Nunneries And The Anglo Saxon Royal Houses:

Nunneries and the Anglo-Saxon Royal Houses Barbara Yorke, 2003-06-16 By the late Anglo Saxon period almost all newly founded nunneries were founded by royal patronage This detailed study which traces the histories of royal nunneries in the 7th and 8th centuries examines how they differed from other types of religious communities in terms of their organisation status special secular and ecclesiastical features and the authority and power which the abbess and other women held Barbara Yorke reveals how the royal nunneries were not only subject to the changing fortunes of the Church and state but also to the successes and failures of the royal houses that patronised them This particular group of nunneries is also compared and contrasted with the variety of other arrangements available to religious women both within and outside of convents and male religious establishments and with gender and societal norms Lords and Communities in Early Medieval East Anglia Andrew Wareham, 2005 This text is an investigation of the changing power structures of the English aristocracy in medieval England The author uses the organization of the aristocracy in East Anglia as a case study to explore the issue The Cartulary of Chatteris Abbey Chatteris Abbey, 1999 Takes its place as perhaps the finest available study of a house for women religious ENGLISH HISTORICAL REVIEW The fifteenth century cartulary of the Benedictine nunnery of Chatteris Abbey in Cambridgeshire founded in the early eleventh century has important implications for the study of women religious especially in the light of the small number of surviving cartularies from English nunneries yet until now it has received little attention perhaps due to its damage in the Cotton Library fire of 1731 This critical edition of the manuscript which contains documents copied into it from the mid twelfth to the fifteenth centuries offers a full transcription together with historical notes and apparatus The introduction draws on the cartulary itself as well as manorial and episcopal records to analyse the nunnery's relationship with its patron the bishop of Ely and the development and management of its estates it also examines the location and layout of the abbey the social and geographical origins of the nuns and the production and organisation of the cartulary The edition is accompanied by an annotated list of all known abbesses prioresses and nuns CLAIRE BREAY gained her Ph D at the Institute for Historical Research at the University of London she is currently a curator of medieval manuscripts at the British Library Women in the Piast Dynasty Grzegorz Pac, 2022-03-07 This book analyses the role of women in the Polish Piast dynasty from c 965 to c 1144 It discusses gender expectations and the literary topoi employed to describe rulers wives and daughters as well as showing their importance in religious donations the creation of dynastic memory and naming patterns as well as examining Piast women's involvement in female monasticism Pac takes a comparative approach to these themes analysing Polish sources alongside sources from other areas of early and high medieval Europe Courts, Elites, and Gendered Power in the Early Middle Ages Janet L. Nelson, 2024-10-28 A major theme in the volume of articles by Janet Nelson is the usefulness of gender as a category of historical analysis Papers range widely across early medieval time and geographical as well as social space but most focus on the Carolingian period and on royalty and elites The workings of dynastic political power are viewed in social as well as political context and the author explores the realities of gendered power which while constraining women gave them distinctive possibilities for agency These papers offer new perspectives on the Carolingian world in general and on Charlemagne's reign in particular

Burton, Karen Stöber, 2008 New essays on the monastic life in the later middle ages show that far from being in decline it remained rich and vibrant In recent years there has been an increasing interest in the history of the numerous houses of monks canons and nuns which existed in the medieval British Isles considering them in their wider socio cultural economic context historians are now questioning some of the older assumptions about monastic life in the later Middle Ages and setting new approaches and new agenda The present volume reflects these new trends Its fifteen chapters assess diverse aspects of monastic history focusing on the wide range of contacts which existed between religious communities and the laity in the later medieval British Isles covering a range of different religious orders and houses This period has often been considered to represent a general decline of the regular life but on the contrary the essays here demonstrate that there remained a rich monastic culture which although different from that of earlier centuries remained vibrant CONTRIBUTORS KAREN STÖBER JULIE KERR EMILIA JAMROZIAK MARTIN HEALE COLMAN O CLABAIGH ANDREW ABRAM MICHAEL HICKS JANET BURTON KIMM PERKINS CURRAN JAMES CLARK GLYN COPPACK JENS ROHRKASTEN SHEILA SWEETINBURGH NICHOLAS ORME CLAIRE CROSS

Feminist Approaches to Early Medieval English Studies Robin Norris, Rebecca Stephenson, Renee Trilling, 2025-10-01 Scholarship on early medieval England has seen an exponential increase in scholarly work by and about women over the past twenty years but the field has remained peculiarly resistant to the transformative potential of feminist critique Since 2016 Medieval Studies has been rocked by conversations about the state of the field shifting from MeToo to WhiteFeminism to the purposeful rethinking of the label Anglo Saxonist This volume takes a step toward decentering the traditional scholarly conversation with thirteen new essays by American Canadian European and UK professors along with independent scholars and early career researchers from a range of disciplinary perspectives Topics range from virginity women s literacy and medical discourse to affect medievalism and masculinity The theoretical and political commitments of this volume comprise one strand of a multivalent effort to rethink the parameters of the discipline and to create a scholarly community that is innovative inclusive and diverse The ^ACare of Nuns Katie Ann-Marie Bugyis, 2019-04-01 In her ground breaking new study Katie Bugyis offers a new history of communities of Benedictine nuns in England from 900 to 1225 By applying innovative paleographical codicological and textual analyses to their surviving liturgical books Bugyis recovers a treasure trove of unexamined evidence for understanding these women s lives and the liturgical and pastoral ministries they performed Essential to this argument is the discovery that the production of the liturgical books used in these communities was carried out by female scribes copyists correctors and creators of texts attesting to the agency and creativity that nuns exercised in the care they extended to themselves and those who sought their hospitality counsel instruction
