Nursing Homes and Assisted Living Peter S. Silin,2009-11-16 Almost a decade ago Peter S Silin wrote Nursing Homes The Family's Journey to provide family members with practical advice and emotional support This successor volume incorporates the new and sometimes baffling world of assisted living Nursing Homes and Assisted Living focuses on the psychological emotional and practical aspects of helping family members and seniors make a difficult transition Silin approaches his subject with compassion and sensitivity guiding readers through the process of finding the best possible care He describes how nursing homes and assisted living facilities work and outlines the selection process he explains how to prepare for the day a relative moves into a facility and suggests ways to help the resident settle in he focuses on the family member's role in solving problems obtaining good quality care and visiting The author's insights help caregivers cope with difficult decisions and deal with emotional issues such as guilt and grief while celebrating the tender rewarding aspects of being a caregiver Vignettes from real life caregivers narrating their experiences amplify Silin's advice and will resonate with families This book provides caregivers family members and seniors with the information they need to effect successful transitions It is also a valuable tool for social workers nurses and family therapists Patient Advocacy for Health Care Quality: Strategies for Achieving Patient-Centered Care Jo Anne L. Earp,Elizabeth French,Melissa Gilkey,2008-05-02 As a contribution to the emerging healthcare quality movement Patient Advocacy for Healthcare Quality Strategies for Achieving Patient Centered Care is distinct from any others of its kind in its focus on the consumer's perspective and in its emphasis on how advocacy can influence change at multiple social levels This introductory volume synthesizes patient advocacy from a multi level approach and is an ideal text for graduate and professional students in schools of public health nursing and social work Changes in Decision-Making Capacity in Older Adults Sara Honn Qualls,Michael A. Smyer,2008-02-13 Part of the Wiley Series in Clinical Geropsychology Changes in Decision Making Capacity in Older Adults Assessment and Intervention helps to familiarize you with the legal and social contexts for decision making in potentially impaired individuals Editors Sara Qualls and Michael Smyer have brought together a notable team of international contributors to provide you with a unique framework of the legal social and psychological approaches to assessing the ability of older adults to make decisions Remedy Eldercide, Restore Elderpride Jerry Rhoads,2009-06 Remedy Eldercide Restore ELDERPRIDE will surely become an election issue Just look at the voting pool 77 million baby boomers that grew up expecting the best of everything turned 60 in 2006 If the nursing home industry does not change they can only expect the worst 36 million people have joined AARP because they want bargaining power 17 million people are already institutionalized in nursing homes and are facing extinction Millions more will have to face the possibility of one day joining the list of system victims Every American has a personal vested interest in changing this struggling industry Without a comprehensive overhaul the current health care system will be bankrupt in 2020 with the cost exceeding 4 trillion dollars annually or 36% of the GNP 6% of those costs are funding the nursing home industry That means that unless we make a change we will spend 960 billion dollars in four years to fund a system that kills its patients and bankrupts itself and its operators This book details three prevailing principles that makes this problem solvable Embrace the restorative care model Use computer technology and case management to customize care plans for each patient Pay for performance based on outcomes attained RESTORATIVE CARE remedies Eldercide the systematic institutionalization of the elderly and disabled by restoring function of the mind the body the emotions and the spirit any of these that are slighted in treating the aging process results in chronic illnesses and dependence on prescription drugs and nstitutional care Health Care Reform notably Obama Care does not use Health Sciences and holistic methods for establishing processes that deal with the whole person and still depend on inductive reasoning guessing and treatment rather deductive processes and prevention of such diseases using the pursuit of definable and measurable outcomes The MEDICAL MODEL symptomatic treatment and the SOCIAL MODEL elderly housing now in practice models are not the solution for managing the aging processes This book defines the problems facing society with the BOOMERS COMING at us and lays out the methods systems and outcomes that need to be pursued by physicians hospitals skilled nursing facilities home care and hospice providers It also proposes a SHIFT in the payment paradigm based on outcomes and funding using Self Health Insurance Funding Trusts that allow the individual to manage their own health care services and costs Community Resources for Older Adults Robbyn R. Wacker, Karen A. Roberto, 2007-12-17 How have programs for older adults evolved Who uses these resources How are they delivered And what challenges do service providers face in meeting the needs of the aging baby boom generation Community Resources for Older Adults Programs and Services in an Era of Change Third Edition answers these and other critical questions by providing a theoretical framework for understanding the forces that shape older adults likelihood to seek assistance Improving the Quality of Long-Term Care Institute of Medicine, Division of Health Care Services, Committee on Improving Quality in Long-Term Care, 2001-02-27 Among the issues confronting America is long term care for frail older persons and others with chronic conditions and functional limitations that limit their ability to care for themselves Improving the Quality of Long Term Care takes a comprehensive look at the quality of care and quality of life in long term care including nursing homes home health agencies residential care facilities family members and a variety of others This book describes the current state of long term care identifying problem areas and offering recommendations for federal and state policymakers Who uses long term care How have the characteristics of this population changed over time What paths do people follow in long term care The committee provides the latest information on these and other key questions This book explores strengths and limitations of available data and research literature especially for settings other than nursing homes on methods to measure oversee and improve the quality of long term care The committee makes recommendations on setting and enforcing standards of care strengthening the caregiving workforce reimbursement issues and expanding the knowledge base to guide organizational and individual caregivers in improving the quality of care
