Nurturing Reflective Christians To Teach:

Nurturing Reflective Christians to Teach Daniel C. Elliott, 1995 In the Spring of 1994 teacher educators from representative institutions within the Christian College Coalition met to consider the question Just what is it that Christian colleges of education should do in preparing teachers for the nation s schools This well constructed volume begins to answer that question Christian Faith and English Language Teaching and Learning Mary Shepard Wong, Carolyn Kristjansson, Zoltán Dörnyei, 2013 Ideological and educational political aspects of the link between language and faith especially between Global English and Christianity is a topic of growing interest in the field of English language teaching This book explores the possible role and impact of teachers and students faith in the English language classroom Bringing together studies representing a diversity of experiences and perspectives on the philosophies purposes practices and theories of the interrelationship of Christianity and language learning and teaching it is on the front line in providing empirical data that offers firm insights into the actual role that faith plays in various aspects of the language learning teaching experience By adding a data based dimension the volume contributes to the cultivation of valid research methods and innovative ways to analyze and interpret studies of the intersection of Christian faith and the practice of teaching and learning language

Toward a Theology of Special Education David W. Anderson Ed D., David W. Anderson, 2012 Professor mentor author disability advocate seminar leader around the world Dr David Anderson corralled his many talents and worldwide experiences to author this important book The volume should prove invaluable to Christians concerned about disabilities especially teachers Without flinching Dr Anderson tackles the tough issues How could a good and benevolent God permit disabled children Are disabilities the result of sin How does a Christian teacher of the disabled differ from secular counterparts Especially helpful is his emphasis on the reflective teacher integrating faith and learning Certainly this is a volume that belongs on the bookshelves of anyone concerned with disabilities Steven A Kaatz PhD Graduate Programs in Special Education Bethel University St Paul Minnesota I have had the privilege of traveling with Dr Anderson as he has taught the concepts addressed in this book to educators pastors and parents in a variety of countries I ve seen the material come alive as leaders discover the importance of thinking Christianly about disability This book has the potential of impacting all readers in similar ways Dr Anderson challenges all of us to come to grips with a biblical worldview and then to live it out within our spheres of influence Toward a Theology of Special Education thus encourages all readers to think Christianly about disability Such thinking will then motivate us to care with God s care and to serve with God s concern for justice and compassion Dr Richard Schoenert pastor emeritus Calvary Church Roseville Minnesota Teaching in a Distant
