Nyibayarri Kimberley Tracker:

Nyibayarri, Kimberley Tracker Jack Bohemia, William McGregor, 1995 Bohemia tells stories from his police tracking days finding lost people murderers thieves and horse rustlers as well as leper patrols A rich history based on a complex understanding of black white relations The Languages of the Kimberley, Western Australia William B.

McGregor, 2013-03-07 The Kimberley the far north west of Australia is one of the most linguistically diverse regions of the continent Some fifty five Aboriginal languages belonging to five different families are spoken within its borders Few of these languages are currently being passed on to children most of whom speak Kriol a new language that arose about half a century ago from an earlier Pidgin English or Aboriginal English a dialect of English as their mother tongue and usual language of communication This book describes the Aboriginal languages spoken today and in the recent past in this region

Deadly Sounds, Deadly Places Peter Dunbar-Hall, Chris Gibson, 2004 A comprehensive book on contemporary Aboriginal music in Australia 'Every Mother's Son is Guilty' Chris Owen, 2016 This is a marvellous contribution by Chris Owen to the understanding of the role the Western Australian police force played in the colonial expansion into the Kimberley district of Western Australia Senator Patrick Dodson Yawuru Elder Chris Owen provides a compelling account of policing in the Kimberley district from 1882 when police were established in the district until 1905 when Dr Walter Roth's controversial Royal Commission into the treatment of Aboriginal people was released Owen's achievement is to take elements of all the pre-existing historiography and test them against a rigorous archival investigation In doing so a fuller understanding of the complex social economic and political changes occurring in Western Australia during the period are exposed The policing of Aboriginal people changed from one of protection under law to one of punishment and control The subsequent violence of colonial settlement and the associated policing and criminal justice system that developed often of questionable legality was what Royal Commissioner Roth termed a brutal and outrageous state of affairs Every Mother's Son is Guilty is a significant contribution to Australian and colonial criminal justice history Subject History Aboriginal Studies Criminal Justice policing Entangled Subjects Michèle Grossman, 2013 Indigenous Australian cultures were long known to the world mainly from the writing of anthropologists ethnographers historians missionaries and others Indigenous Australians themselves have worked across a range of genres to challenge and reconfigure this textual legacy so that they are now strongly represented through their own life narratives of identity history politics and culture Even as Indigenous authored texts have opened up new horizons of engagement with Aboriginal knowledge and representation however the textual politics of some of these narratives particularly when cross culturally produced or edited can remain haunted by colonially grounded assumptions about orality and literacy Through an examination of key moments in the theorizing of orality and literacy and key texts in cross culturally produced Indigenous life writing Entangled Subjects explores how some of these works can sustain rather than trouble the frontier zone established by modernity in relation to talk and text Yet contemporary Indigenous vernaculars offer radical new approaches to how we might move beyond the orality literacy frontier and how modernity and the a modern are Productively entangled in the process Boundary Writing Lynette Russell,2006-06-30 Have globalization and the emergence of virtual cultures reduced cultural diversity Will the world become homogenized or Americanized Boundary Writing sets out to demonstrate that this oversimplification denies the reality that today there is greater space for cultural diversity than ever before It explores the desire to categorize individuals and collectivities into racial ethnic gender and sexuality categories black and white men and women gay and straight which is a feature of most Western societies More specifically it analyzes the boundaries and edges of these categories and concepts Across nine chapters contributors reveal that such binaries are often too restrictive Through a series of case studies they consider how these various concepts overlap coincide and at times conflict They investigate the tension between these classifications that in turn produce individual speaking positions Many people indigenous native Anglo settler recent migrants of diverse ethnic backgrounds gay transgender queer occupy an in between position that is strategically shifting with the social political and economic circumstances of the individual In Boundary Writing the reader will journey through various complex permutations of identity and in particular the ways in which indigeneity race sex and gender interact and even counter act one another Contributors Erez Cohen Aaron Corn Bruno David Neparrna Gumbula Michele Grossman Myfanwy McDonald Clive Moore Stephen Pritchard Liz Reed Lynette Russell Celebrating Indigenous Voice Alexandra Y. Aikhenvald,Robert L. Bradshaw,Luca Ciucci,Pema Wangdi,2023-01-30 Every society thrives on stories legends and myths This volume explores the linguistic devices employed in the astoundingly rich narrative traditions in the tropical hot spots of linguistic and cultural diversity and the ways in which cultural changes and new means of communication affect narrative genres and structures It focusses on linguistic and cultural facets of the narratives in the areas of linguistic diversity across the tropics and surrounding areas New Guinea Northern Australia Siberia and also the Tibeto Burman region The introduction brings together the recurrent themes in the grammar and the substance of the narratives The twelve contributions to the volume address grammatical forms and categories deployed in organizing the narrative and interweaving the protagonists and the narrator These include quotations person of the narrator and the protagonist mirativity demonstratives and clause chaining The contributors also address the kinds of narratives told their organization and evolution in time and space under the impact of post colonial experience and new means of communication via social media The volume highlights the importance of documenting narrative tradition across indigenous languages Indigenous Biography and Autobiography Peter Read,Frances Peters-Little,Anna Haebich,2008-12-01 In this absorbing collection of papers Aboriginal Maori Dalit and western scholars discuss and analyse the difficulties they have faced in writing Indigenous biographies and autobiographies The issues range from balancing the demands of western and non western scholarship through writing about a family that refuses to acknowledge its identity to considering a community demand not to write anything at all The collection also presents some state of the art issues in teaching Indigenous Studies based on auto biography in Austria Spain and Italy

Holding Men Brian F. McCoy,2008 This is an easily readable book that explores how Indigenous men understand their lives their health and their culture Using conversations stories and art the author shows how Kimberley desert communities have a cultural value and relationship described as kanyirninpa or holding The author uses examples from Australian Rules football petrol sniffing and imprisonment to reveal the possibilities for lasting improvements to men s health based on kanyirninpa s expression of deep and enduring cultural values and relationships While young Indigenous men s lives remains vulnerable in a rapidly changing world the author believes that an understanding of kanyirninpa one of the key values that has sustained Aboriginal desert life for centuries may provide the hope of change and better health for all It also offers insights for all who wish to grow up their young people
