Reducing Adolescent Risk Toward An Integrated Approach:

Reducing Adolescent Risk Daniel Romer, 2003-04 Current policies treat adolescent risk behaviours as separate problems requiring separate solutions ignoring the overlap of many risk behaviours This text seeks to move beyond the fractured approach of preventing one kind of behaviour at a time and suggests more comprehensive prevention strategies Leading Psychoeducational Groups for Children and Adolescents Janice L. DeLucia-Waack, 2006-05-03 This book provides readers with direction on how to organize psychoeducational groups while also helping them enhance skills for effectively leading such groups all in one comprehensive volume Offering an applied pragmatic approach author Janice L DeLucia Waack uniquely integrates research and practice to suggest valuable leadership strategies while addressing special issues such as children of divorce anger management bullying behaviors and much more Religion, Family, and Chinese Youth Development Jerf W. K. Yeung, 2020-12-30 Religion is a fundamental cultural factor profoundly influential on human mental health and behavioural choices and in addition family is the most proximal and intimate socialization agent contributive to youth development Religion Family and Chinese Youth Development explores how religious involvement of Chinese parents affects their psychological health and family socialization which leads to various aspects of the development of Chinese youths Specifically a structural relationship between religion family socialization and youth development was constructed theoretically and tested empirically in the Chinese context which can portray the linked lives of religious involvement of Chinese parents parental psychological health family processes parenting practices the development of psychosocial maturity and the internalizing and externalizing outcomes of Chinese youths Undeniably the findings of this book provide insightful social and policy implications for researchers and human service practitioners related to Chinese societies By clearly depicting and empirically testing the connections between religion family and Chinese youth development the book can be a reference for clergy family practitioners researchers policy makers management of NGOs and graduate students of social sciences Community Interventions and AIDS Edison J. Trickett, Willo Pequegnat, 2005-09-01 As news headlines report staggering numbers of people infected with HIV or AIDS across the globe and as stereotypes of typical AIDS patients become less and less specific to particular sexual orientations and ethnic backgrounds the AIDS pandemic shows little sign of relenting AIDS crosses geopolitical and social barriers and social and behavioral scientists are confronted with the new challenge of developing scientific inquiry and corresponding interventions around participatory community based and community focused methods These interventions are increasingly targeting the contextual influences on individual behavior such as peer groups social networks and support systems and community norms Community level interventions also draw on local resources and are respectful of sociocultural circumstances and traditions This book articulates how the social and behavioral sciences can respond to HIV AIDS It is written for all who have a stake in AIDS research stimulating discussion and debate about the natures of community research and intervention broadly across such disciplines as public health community health education urban planning psychology sociology anthropology and philosophy of science The book proposes alternative perspectives on means of ascertaining knowledge about the HIV AIDS pandemic and the inclusion of community collaboration in interventions Problem Gambling in Europe Gerhard Meyer,Tobias Hayer,Mark Griffiths,2009-04-29
