Examiner , 1999 The independent voice of the visual arts Has Modernism Failed? Suzi Gablik, 2004 If Has Modernism Failed was critical and provocative its readers also found it inspirational Arguing for a renewed moral social and spiritual dimension in art Gablik pointed to some encouraging developments Now in this revised and expanded edition Gablik assesses the state of contemporary art at the beginning of the twenty first century Though there is still a commodified modernist and postmodernist art world a world for which Gablik s trenchant analysis is as relevant as ever there is a burgeoning commitment to socially relevant and spiritually informed art In a new prologue and two new chapters Gablik looks at the promises and the problems of globalization and the attempts of artists to integrate the concerns of the environment and the world with their art Arts and Cultural Leadership Kenneth Foster, 2022-10-17 This textbook provides an expert overview of the challenge of arts and cultural leadership in the contemporary world Grounded in theories of sustainability and with a renewed global focus for this second edition the author s insights from contemporary arts organizations facilitate meaningful student comprehension Drawing on the work of practitioners and theorists in the fields of philosophy biology and ecology as well as the arts Foster proposes a rethinking of organizational design strategy and structure that is based on ecological concepts and the creative process that is intrinsic to the arts rather than the conventional business model that currently prevails particularly in western arts and culture organizations He contests conventional thinking about arts administration and management and urges arts leaders to foreground innovation as they reimagine their organizations for a world unlike any other New sections include an enhanced theoretical discussion as well as new material on business models strategy and organizational design and practice Applicable to any arts organization the entrepreneurial focus is especially relevant in the aftermath of the global pandemic the ongoing climate crisis and the quest for democracy and social justice This updated edition will be a valuable resource both for present day arts and cultural leaders who are working to adapt to the current environment as well as students and future leaders who aspire to make change in the world through arts and cultural leadership Art Journal , 1960 Flash Art , 1992 Re-Enchantment James Elkins, 2011 The near absence of religion from contemporary discourse on art is one of the most fundamental issues in postmodernism Artists critical of religion can find voices in the art world but religion itself including spirituality is taken to be excluded by the very project of modernism The sublime re enchantment as in Weber and the aura as in Benjamin have been used to smuggle religious concepts back into academic writing but there is still no direct communication between religionists and scholars Re Enchantment volume 7 in The Art Seminar Series will be the first book to brid
