Reflecting Black:

Reflecting Black Michael Eric Dyson, 1993-01-01 Reflecting Black Michael Eric Dyson, Professor of Communication Studies Michael Eric Dyson, 1993 From rap music to preaching from Toni Morrison to Leonard Jeffries from Michael Jackson to Michael Jordan Reflecting Black explores as never before the varied and complex dimensions of African American culture through personal reflection expository journalism scholarly investigation and even homily Shaping Our Responses to Violent and Demeaning Imagery in Popular Music United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Juvenile Justice, 1995 Distributed to some depository libraries in microfiche African American Nationalist Literature of the 1960s Sandra Hollin Flowers, 2019-09-25 Bringing together political theory and literary works this study recreates the political climate which made the 1960s an unforgettable era for young black Americans A chapter on The Many Shades of Black Nationalism for instance explains why black nationalism is known by more than a dozen different names how events in Africa influenced black nationalism in America why Malcolm X's death had a greater impact on nationalism than did his life and how the United States government unwittingly became nationalism's ally Another chapter explores the bitter feud between the dominant factions of the 1960s cultural and revolutionary nationalists This feud erupted in both verbal and armed warfare and generated an abundance of political theory and literary works much of which is out of circulation but is examined in the study Nationalist poetry theater and fiction are each treated in separate chapters which exemplify the aesthetic and political concerns of this memorable period in American history and letters Aside from its unique combination of artistic and political works what makes this book important is the current revival of nationalist sentiment in African American life and arts Though this revival is closely identified with the nationalism of the 1960s it lacks the focus of that period This study explains what gave the nationalism of the 1960s its focus how that focus was expressed in art forms and why 1960s nationalism continues to influence the African American identity and will probably do so well into the twenty first century The Wiley Blackwell Reader in Practical Theology Bonnie J. A Companion to African American History Alton Hornsby, Jr.,2008-04-15 A Companion to

African American History is a collection of original and authoritative essays arranged thematically and topically covering a wide range of subjects from the seventeenth century to the present day. Analyzes the major sources and the most influential books and articles in the field. Includes discussions of globalization, region, migration, gender, class, and social forces that make up the broad cultural fabric of African American history.

The Womanist Reader Layli Phillips, 2006. Comprehensive in its coverage. The Womanist Reader is the first volume to anthologize the major works of womanist scholarship. Charting the course of womanist theory from its genesis as Alice Walker's African American feminism through Chikwenye Okonjo Ogunyemi's African womanism and Clenora Hudson Weems' Africana womanism to its present-day expression as a global anti-oppressionist perspective rooted in the praxis of everyday women of color, this interdisciplinary reader traces the rich and diverse history of a quarter century of womanist thought. Featuring selections from over a dozen disciplines by top womanist scholars from around the world, plus several critiques of womanism, an extensive bibliography of womanist sources, and the first ever systematic treatment of womanist thought on its own terms, Layli Phillips has assembled a unique and groundbreaking compilation.

Brown Dress Thoughts, 2010-05-15 Diverse Worship Pedrito U. Maynard-Reid, 2000-04-10. Pedrito Maynard Reid explores the multiethnic dimensions of worship by looking at African American, Caribbean, and Hispanic contexts of worship.

The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001. This massive guide, sponsored by the W. E. B. Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts, offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America.

The Politics of Black Empowerment James Jennings, 2000-01-08. The Politics of Black Empowerment uses the experiences of grassroots activists to develop various conceptualizations and explanations of Black political behavior today. In analyzing Black politics since the late 1960s, James Jennings focuses on both the behavioral aspects such as individual and group characteristics of voting and nonvoting and elections as well as more fundamental philosophical and cultural questions regarding Black politics. This study examines how the traditional face of Black politics and electoral activism interacts with a growing progressive face of Black politics. While traditional Black political activists seek access or political incorporation, another group aims for power sharing. The traditional approach is sometimes satisfied with merely replacing white politicians with Blacks, but the progressive constituency focuses on fundamentally changing the whole economic and political pie. Activists desirous of Black empowerment are pursuing a political and economic orientation that goes beyond programs based on access to American institutional arrangements and attempting to change or alter given political arrangements and social relations between Blacks and whites on the basis of changing the social structure and the distribution of wealth and power. Based on interviews with Black and Latino activists in several big cities as well as on a review of the literature and the Black newspapers around the country, The Politics of Black Empowerment describes the characteristics of Black empowerment activism in America.

African American Nonfiction Books in the 21st Century Harry

B. Dunbar, 2005 This work is essentially a bibliography consisting of a representative sampling of 58 nonfiction books published in the year 2004 about African Americans and about the issues that impacted and impact us viewed in the context of the canon of 664 selected from those published in the last two decades of the twentieth century The offerings of the mainstream press in the period 1939-1964 are cited as a backdrop Ninety one titles published over the years 2001 to 2003 constitute the sampling for that period The surge in the publication of books in the canon at the end of the 20th century is analyzed

We Average Unbeautiful Watchers Noah Cohan, 2019-07 Sports fandom often more than religious political or regional affiliation determines how millions of Americans define themselves In We Average Unbeautiful Watchers Noah Cohan examines contemporary sports culture to show how mass mediated athletics are in fact richly textured narrative entertainments rather than merely competitive displays While it may seem that sports narratives are written by athletes and journalists Cohan demonstrates that fans are not passive consumers but rather function as readers and writers who appropriate those narratives and generate their own stories in building their sense of identity Critically reading stories of sports fans self definition across genres from the novel and the memoir to the film and the blog post We Average Unbeautiful Watchers recovers sports games as sites where fan authors theorize interpretation historicity and narrative itself Fan stories demonstrate how unscripted sporting entertainments function as identity building narratives which in turn enhances our understanding of the way we incorporate a broad range of texts into our own life stories Building on the work of sports historians theorists of fan behavior and critics of American literature Cohan shows that humanistic methods are urgently needed for developing nuanced critical conversations about athletics Sports take shape as stories and it is scholars in the humanities who can best identify how they do so and why that matters for American culture more broadly

I May Not Get There with You Michael Eric Dyson, 2000 A private citizen who transformed the world around him Martin Luther King Jr was arguably the greatest American who ever lived Now after more than thirty years few people understand how truly radical he was In this groundbreaking examination of the man and his legacy provocative author lecturer and professor Michael Eric Dyson restores King's true vitality and complexity and challenges us to embrace the very contradictions that make King relevant in today's world

Gender Inequality in The Bahamas Juliette Storr, 2023-09-05 This book examines sexual power dynamics long held patriarchal values and other harmful attitudes toward women in The Bahamas and Caribbean through the lens of media and law Though gender politics is pushing these societies toward inclusivity Storr adopting a phenomenological framework argues that as sites of both reinforcement and resistance to misogynistic norms future progress must focus on deconstructing the inequitable social institutions underlying unhealthy gender relations

Civility in the City Jennifer Lee, 2002 Hollywood and the news media have repeatedly depicted the inner city retail store as a scene of racial conflict and acrimony Civility in the City uncovers a quite different story Jennifer Lee examines the relationships between African American Jewish and Korean merchants and their black customers in New York and

Philadelphia and shows that in fact social order routine and civility are the norm Lee illustrates how everyday civility is negotiated and maintained in countless daily interactions between merchants and customers While merchant customer relations are in no way uniform most are civil because merchants actively work to manage tensions and smooth out incidents before they escalate into racially charged anger Civility prevails because merchants make investments to maintain the day to day routine recognizing that the failure to do so can have dramatic consequences How then do minor clashes between merchants and customers occasionally erupt into the large scale conflicts we see on television Lee shows how inner city poverty and extreme inequality coupled with the visible presence of socially mobile newcomers can provide fertile ground for such conflicts The wonder is that they occur so rarely a fact that the media ignore Ebony ,1974-10 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Women of Color and Social Media Multitasking Sonja M. Brown Givens,Keisha Edwards Tassie,2015-11-11 Women of Color and Social Media Multitasking Blogs Timelines Feeds and Community explores and critically analyzes the motivations and uses of social media by women of color This edited collection seeks to determine how and why women of color make strategic use of social media as a social professional personal and political tool for navigating the world The contributors uniquely address the motivations and pathways for establishing virtual communities by and for women of color Women of Color and Social Media Multitasking contributes to dialogues concerning gender race class sexuality politics and uses of social media
