Reflect

"Moments of reflection occur with calm deliberation and careful thought. Imagine the thoughts which would come to you if you would simply allow them. By giving intentional consideration to a situation, you will gain clarity which you may not have achieved otherwise."

Reflections Of Life In Our Town:

Reflections of Life in Our Town James, 2004 Reflections of Life in Our Town is a satirical look at life and values in small town America. The book is occasionally absurd, occasionally offensive, sometimes sensitive but mostly just funny. Our Town does not exist in a time nor does it really inhabit a specific place though most of its inhabitants believe that they are somewhere in Ohio and all agree that they are definitely on the planet Earth. The citizens of Our Town live life pretty much as any Americans do dealing with such issues as the spread of communism, the rise of the superstore and rampaging ogres at the end of the street as we all would. The cast of characters in Our Town is wildly varied from the senile village elder Grandpa Genkaku to the physically indescribable Laughlin twins. There is a child prodigy with a fish bowl on her head, a many tentacled alien from the dark side of Saturn and of course the aforementioned ogres. Though varied together they form a relatively tight community trying to cope with the trials of everyday life. And everyday life in Our Town is pretty much like life in any town. You have your good days and your bad, your successes and your failures. One day a wandering band of angels is scandalizing the local women, the next day the circus comes to town. Life is kind of like a roller coaster that way. The citizens of Our Town also offer forays into outer space in order to rediscover previously discovered planets and a quest for god while in pursuit of a red balloon. While life in Our Town may not be quite as exciting as life in places like Toledo, we generally manage to fill our days quite well. So these are my reflections of life in Our Town. While some may seem a bit bizarre at first glance, upon closer inspection they really are not that much different from the things most people experience in life. After all, it's about values and an appreciation for the things which we hold most dear. So join me as I take a stroll down memory lane. Relax and have a laugh, just be careful not to step in any ogre. Reflection On Life In Buffalo NY (1932-92) Thomas Murphy, 2006. Tom Murphy and his family lived in Buffalo, NY. At various times he was employed as a landscaper, appliance salesman, insurance agent, real estate developer and civil servant. He worked for and with some of Buffalo's most noted and controversial business and political figures including Joseph N. Desmon, Harold Farber, Robert J. Bradley, Philip B. Schwab, Edward H. Cottrell as well as Frank Sedita, Stanley Makowski and Jimmy Griffin. Murphy loved each and every job and yet he always found time to laugh and to play with friends and family. J. Chung, 2015-11-30 Yi Hwang 1501 1570 best known by his literary name T oegye is one of the most eminent thinkers in the history of East Asian philosophy and religion His Chas ngnok Record of self reflection is a superb Korean Neo Confucian text an eloquent collection of twenty two scholarly letters and four essays written to his close disciples and junior colleagues These were carefully selected by T oegye himself after self reflecting chas ng on his practice of personal cultivation The Chas ngnok continuously guided T oegye and inspired others on the true Confucian way including leading Neo Confucians in Tokugawa Japan while it criticized Buddhism and Daoism Its philosophical merit rivals T oegye s monumental S nghak sipto Ten diagrams on sage learning and Four Seven Debate Letters however as a testament of T oegye s character scholarship and teaching the Chas ngnok is of greater interest The work engages with his holistic knowledge and experience of self cultivation by articulating textual and historical material on various key doctrines and ideas It is an inspiring practical guide that reveals the depth of T'oebye's learning and spirituality. The present volume offers a fully annotated translation of the Chas'ngnok. Following a groundbreaking discussion of T'oebye's life and ideas according to the Chas'ngnok and his other major writings, it presents the core of his thought in six interrelated sections: Philosophy of Principle, Human Nature and Emotions, Against Buddhism and Daoism, True Learning, Self-Cultivation, and Reverence and Spiritual Cultivation. The bibliography offers a current catalogue of primary sources and modern works in Korean, Chinese, Japanese, and English. As the first comprehensive study of the Chas'ngnok, this book is a welcome addition to current literature on Korean classics and East Asian philosophy and religion. By presenting T'oebye's thought-provoking contributions, it sheds new light on the vitality of Confucian wisdom, thereby affording scholars and students with an excellent primary source for East Asian studies in general and Confucian studies in particular.
