Reflections On Multiliterate Lives:

Reflections on Multiliterate Lives Diane Dewhurst Belcher,Ulla Connor,2001 Reflection on Multiliterate Lives is a collection of personal accounts in narrative and interview format of the formative literacy experiences of highly successful second language users all of who are professional academics Representing fourteen countries in origin the contributors well known specialists in language teaching as well as a variety of other fields in the social and physical sciences recount in their own words past and present struggles and successes as learners of language and of much else Language Learning

Joseph Foley,Linda Thompson,2017-09-25 Language Learning provides an introduction to language development that differs from existing books in that it traces language and cognitive development together with the associated debates from babyhood through the school years of middle childhood and adolescence into adulthood and the world of work Increasingly the global trend is towards learning to speak read and write more than one language Language Learning is a comprehensive book that includes descriptions and discussions of learning more than one language sequentially and simultaneously The only book to look at language with a lifelong perspective it is ideal as an introductory student text Each chapter contains ideas and suggestions for students to follow up and begin their own small scale investigations into language development

Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing Suresh Canagarajah,2019-07-08 The literacy autobiography is a personal narrative reflecting on how one's experiences of spoken and written words have contributed to their ongoing relationship with language and literacy Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing is a cutting edge study of this engaging genre of writing in academic and professional contexts In this state of the art collection Suresh Canagarajah brings together 11 samples of writing by students that both document their literary journeys and pinpoint the seminal works affecting their development as translingual readers and writers Integrating the narrative of the author which is written as his own literacy autobiography with a close analysis of these texts this book presents a case for the literacy autobiography as an archetypal genre that prepares writers for the conventions and processes required in other genres of writing demonstrates the serious epistemological and rhetorical implications behind the genre of literacy autobiography among migrant scholars and students effectively translates theoretical publications on language diversity for classroom purposes providing a transferable teaching approach to translingual writing analyzes the tropes of transnational writers and their craft in meshing translingual resources in their writing demonstrates how transnationalism and translingualism are interconnected guiding readers toward an understanding of codemeshing not as a cosmetic addition to texts but motivated toward resolving inescapable personal and social dilemmas Written and edited by one of the most highly regarded linguists of his generation this book is key reading for scholars and students of applied linguistics TESOL and literacy studies as well as tutors of writing and composition worldwide Meaningful Action Jane Arnold,Tim Murphey,2013-03-28 This volume explores the importance of meaningful action for language teaching and learning paying tribute to the enduring influence of Earl Stevick With contributions from 19 ELT authors and influential academics Meaningful Action draws upon and acknowledges the huge influence of Earl Stevick on language teaching Stevick's work on meaningful action explored how learners can engage with activities that appeal to sensory and cognitive processes ensuring that meaning is constructed by the learner's internal characteristics and by their relationship with other learners and the teacher This edited volume focuses on meaningful action in three domains learner internal factors and relationships between the people involved in the learning process classroom activity and diverse frameworks supporting language learning

Narratives of Marginalized Identities in Higher Education Santosh Khadka, Joanna Davis-McElligatt, Keith Dorwick, 2018-07-27 This book features theorized narratives from academics who inhabit marginalized identity positions including among others academics with non normative genders sexualities and relationships nontenured faculty racial and ethnic minorities scholars with HIV depression and anxiety and other disabilities immigrants and international students and poor and working class faculty and students The chapters in this volume explore the ways in which marginalized identities fundamentally shape and impact the academic experience thus the contributors in this collection demonstrate how academic outsiderism works both within the confines of their college or university systems and a broader matrix of community state and international relations With an emphasis on the inherent intersectionality of identity positions this book addresses the broad matrix of ways academics navigate their particular locations as marginalized subjects Writing Studies Research in Practice Lee Nickoson, Mary P Sheridan, 2012-09-10 An essential reference for students and scholars exploring the methods and methodologies of writing research What does it mean to research writing today What are the practical and theoretical issues researchers face when approaching writing as they do What are the gains or limitations of applying particular methods and what might researchers be overlooking These questions and more are answered by the writing research field's leading scholars in Writing Studies Research in Practice Methods and Methodologies Editors Nickoson and Sheridan gather twenty chapters from leaders in writing research spanning topics from ethical considerations for researchers quantitative methods and activity analysis to interviewing and communitybased and Internet research While each chapter addresses a different subject the volume as a whole covers the range of methodologies technologies and approaches both old and new that writing researchers use and examines the ways in which contemporary writing research is understood practiced and represented An essential reference for experienced researchers and an invaluable tool to help novices understand research methods and methodologies Writing Studies Research in Practice includes established methods and knowledge while addressing the contemporary issues interests and concerns faced by writing researchers today The Routledge Doctoral Supervisor's Companion Melanie Walker, Pat Thomson, 2010-04-19 Accompanying The Routledge Doctoral Student's Companion this book examines what it means to be a doctoral student in education and the social sciences providing a guide for those supervising students Exploring the key role and pedagogical challenges that face supervisors in students personal development the contributors outline the research capabilities which are essential for confidence quality and success in doctorate level research Providing guidance about helpful resources and methodological support the chapters frame important questions within the history of debates act as a road map through international literatures make suggestions for good practice raise important questions and provide answers to key pedagogical issues provide advice on enabling students scholarly careers and identities While there is no one solution to ideal supervision this wide ranging text offers resources that will help supervisors develop their own personal approach to supervision Ideal for all supervisors whether assisting part time or full time students it is also highly suitable for helping academics to support international students who confront Western doctoral traditions and academic cultures helping both supervisor and student to understand why things are as they are

Autoethnographic Perspectives on Multilingual Life Stories Hancı-Azizoglu, Eda Başak, Şahinkarakaş, Şehnaz, Tannacito, Dan J., 2022-05-13 Storytelling is an ideal avenue for language learners to share their experiences and journeys and find a sense of identity Everyone who has learned an additional language has a story to tell but there is a unique type of autoethnographic and linguistic story that can be read in scholarly platforms Autoethnographic Perspectives on Multilingual Life Stories presents the life stories of multilingual people and their experiences by using autoethnography as a research method It proposes narrative as an autobiographical research method that provides the technique and opportunity to express how transnationals construct their identities in foreign and new contexts through partial or full life stories Covering topics such as identity life stories and self discovery this reference work is ideal for academicians researchers scholars practitioners instructors and students

Learning Pragmatics from Native and Nonnative Language Teachers Andrew D. Cohen, 2018-05-25 This book deals with intercultural pragmatics and how both nonnative teachers NNTs and native teachers NTs may enhance their classroom instruction regarding target language TL pragmatics It focuses primarily on the experiences of instructors as they teach their learners about the pragmatics of the TL both in second and foreign language learning settings It makes clear that there are aspects of teaching pragmatics where it may help to be an NT and other areas where it may help to be an NNT and proposes creative ideas that both sets of teachers may draw on to compensate for gaps in their knowledge Further themes in the book include ideas for motivating students who want to learn about pragmatics the role of technology in teaching and learning pragmatics the role of learning strategies the assessment of pragmatics and ways to research pragmatics The book will be of interest to teachers teacher educators and students interested in researching and improving the teaching of pragmatics
