Reflections On Practice

Judd E. Hollander

Reflections On Reading From Gcse To A Level Reflections On Practice:

Effective Language Learning Suzanne Graham, 1997 This book investigates some of the learning processes of students of French and German as they begin language learning at an advanced level a stage which is frequently problematic By looking at the learning strategies employed by both successful and less successful language students the author elucidates some of the key cognitive and affective processes which facilitate advanced level language learning The implications of this for the classroom are discussed in detail leading to practical recommendations for learning and teaching strategies A central theme is the need to teach explicitly the proficient use of learning strategies and suggestions are made as to how this may be achieved in the language classroom

Learning to Teach Modern Languages in the Secondary School Norbert Pachler, Ann Barnes, Kit Field, 2013-11-19 Learning to Teach Modern Foreign Languages in the Secondary School has established itself as the leading textbook for student teachers of modern foreign languages in the UK The practical focus of the book is underpinned by a theoretical perspective and students are encouraged to develop a personal approach to modern foreign language teaching An account is also taken of relevant statutory frameworks This fully revised third edition has been thoroughly updated to take account of recent policy and curriculum changes And with the recent increased emphasis on teachers as researchers and the alignment of many PGCE courses with Masters Level criteria reference to important concepts and theoretical positions have been strengthened with strong reference to their relevance in the context of professional practice and a new chapter discussing the findings of research on Second Language Acquisition and Foreign Language Learning has been added Other chapters cover a wide range of relevant topics including teaching methods and learning strategies teaching in the target language and developing cultural awareness the teaching of grammar differentiation and assessment the use of ICT in modern foreign language teaching

Connect the Dots: The Collective Power of Relationships, Memory and Mindset Nina Dibner, Tricia Taylor, 2019-09-27 We are spoiled for choice Educational research abounds and countless teaching tips and trends are available at our fingertips Where do you start Connect the Dots presents three key interconnected areas of focus that will have the most impact on teaching and learning 1 Building Strong Relationships creating a sense of belonging establishing norms and high expectations and understanding barriers like unconscious bias and misconceptions in order to break them down 2 Maximising Memory managing cognitive load using effective learning strategies planning for long term retention and application of knowledge 3 Cultivating Learning Mindsets building self efficacy developing metacognitive skills and using feedback goal setting and talk effectively Each of these three chapters lays out the research worth knowing and applies that research to ready to use teaching tools for real classrooms The chapters conclude with detailed guides to support leadership in creating personalised professional learning sessions to turnkey these concepts to school staff Connect the Dots is a book for educators by educators Conceived by lead author Tricia Taylor who started as a teacher in the US but has been teaching in UK schools for nearly two decades as well as running her consultancy Tailored Practice and co authored by Nina Dibner a veteran US educator and founder of PowerTools an American educational consulting firm Connect the Dots offers a transcontinental lens Illustrated by Oliver Caviglioli the graphics and layout make the book incredibly accessible and a joy to read
