Steps on the Path to Enlightenment Lhundub Sopa,2017-12-12 The final installment of the Steps on the Path to Enlightenment series examines the nature of reality with a master class in Buddhist Middle Way philosophy and meditation The late Geshe Sopa was a refugee monk from Tibet sent to the United States by the Dalai Lama in 1963 He became a professor at the University of Wisconsin training a generation of Western Buddhist scholars and was a towering figure in the transmission of the Buddhism to the West In this fifth and final volume of his commentary on Lama Tsongkhapa s masterwork on the graduated steps of the Buddhist path Geshe Sopa explains the practice of superior insight or wisdom the pinnacle of the bodhisattva s perfections All the Buddhist practices are for the purpose of developing wisdom for it is wisdom that liberates from the cycle of suffering All other positive actions from morality to deep states of meditation have no power to liberate unless they are accompanied by insight into the nature of reality With unparalleled precision Geshe Sopa unpacks this central principle with scholarly virtuosity guiding the reader through the progressive stages of realization

Philosophy Richard H. Popkin,Avrum Stroll,2014-05-21 Philosophy Made Simple Second Edition provides information pertinent to the fundamental philosophical problems This book discusses the developments in philosophy Organized into seven chapters this edition begins with an overview of the usage of philosophy in the interpretation or evaluation of what is important or meaningful in life This text then examines the intimate connections of political philosophy with ethics and with the social sciences Other chapters consider some of the fundamental metaphysical problems that have persisted throughout the ages and examine the most popular metaphysical systems in the history of philosophy This book discusses as well the aspect of philosophy that examines the intellectual questions that arise in considering religious views The final chapter examines some of the main movements in modern philosophy This book is a valuable resource for teachers as well as undergraduate and graduate students Readers who are seeking the simplest introductions to philosophy will also find this book useful

Philosophy Made Simple A. Stroll,R H Popkin,2012-09-10 Philosophy Made Simple will be of particular interest to students beginning degree courses in philosophy and to those who are studying it as an ancillary subject within courses such as sociology education linguistics theology and psychology It will in addition be useful for a variety of liberal arts courses in adult education The book also provides a valuable basis for an introductory self study course Avrum Stroll is Professor of Philosophy at the University of California San Diego USA Richard H Popkin is presently Professor Emeritus Washington University St Louis and Adjunct Professor History and Philosophy at UCLA USA

Philosophy R. H. Popkin,Richard Henry Popkin,Avrum Stroll,1993 In this third edition the chapter on ethics

has been expanded and updated to include material on euthanasia abortion and censorship The impact of the break up of the former communist countries is discussed in the chapter on political philosophy The book contains new material on artificial intelligence logic and contemporary philosophy      Philosophy Made Simple Richard H. Popkin,Avrum Stroll,1993-07-01 For almost four decades Made Simple books have set the standard for continuing education and home study In answer to the changing needsof today s marketplace the Made Simple series for the 90s presents a thoroughly up to the minute portfolio of skills information and experience with revised and updated editions of bestselling titles plus a whole range of new subjects from personal finance to office management to desktop publishing B W illustrations throughout      Reflections on Human Inquiry Nirmalangshu Mukherji,2017-10-30 This original volume examines forms and limits of human inquiry from a largely sceptical point of view Human beings are endowed with cognitive agency Our grasp of the world and of ourselves are not merely responses to external stimuli they are reflective products of human inquiry At one point in human history it was thought that modern science especially theoretical physics is the paradigm of human inquiry Where does this form of inquiry significantly apply Are there limits on its claims of truth and objectivity How much of the vast canvas of human experience does it cover Where do other forms of inquiry such as philosophy religion and the arts attain their salience With the emergence of the scientific study of the human mind itself these critical questions have taken a more intriguing form in recent decades Can human inquiry investigate its own nature Can the scientific theory of language explain the richness of human expression Can a science of the mind account for human experience These probing questions on the scientific enterprise are usually addressed from the outside as it were by humanists and critical theorists In these essays they are examined from the inside by a philosopher whose primary academic work concerns the study of the human linguistic mind In that sense the sceptical inquiry turns on itself      Reflection of Human Behaviour ,      Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places Lynne Dixon,Alison Hales,2013-12-04 A much needed and delightful book It shows how history can be taught with the meaningful experiences of each child at its centre making connections between the child the locality and community the national and global past and concepts of time Throughout the authors empower teachers to adopt their philosophy by showing them how to plan select resources and strategies and reflect on ideas and case studies Hilary Cooper Emeritus professor of history and pedagogy The University of Cumbria UK Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places puts the local environment and community at the heart of history showing how it can be used as the context for successful history teaching across the primary age range It considers how to develop children s concepts and skills through local history how to link local national and global aspects of history and helps you develop your own historical knowledge understanding and confidence in teaching the subject Practical topics explored include Investigating children s cultural and geographical roots through fieldwork Finding and visiting local museums archives and heritage sights Choosing and using resources Using significant people events and buildings to link with national history Environmental education and sustainable development through local history Understanding the links between history and everyday life Planning and assessing history Based on the latest research and practice in the field Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places offers an exciting template of creative ideas and activities to show teachers how they can make history relevant to all children
