Reflections On The Theatre:

Reflections on the Theatre Jean-Louis Barrault, 1951      Reflections on the Theatre Jean Genet, 2009-11-03 The 1966 staging in Paris of Jean Genet's The Screens by the Jean Louis Barrault Madeleine Renaud Company was highly controversial. Written at the height of the Algerian War it was initially considered unperformable in France due to the violent political reactions it was bound to arouse. The Barrault Renaud production was directed by the venerable Roger Blin and during the several months of rehearsals that Genet attended he wrote a series of letters and notes to Blin giving his views on every aspect of the staging. His comments deal with the details of that play and that production but also transcend them amounting to a precise and fascinating compilation of Jean Genet's concept of the theatre. This volume also contains two essays by Genet originally published in the French periodical Un Tel giving his striking and highly personal views on life and art.

The volume concludes with an interview recently conducted with Fornes herself where she touches on not only the different aspects of her theatrical life but its movement and change over the last forty years.      Brief Chronicles Martin Esslin, 1970

Winter Passages Robert Brustein, 2017-09-08 Winter Passages is Robert Brustein's nineteenth book of criticism. It includes his considerations of culture and politics over the past four years of American life demonstrating how the imperfections of the government and economy have plunged the country into an artistic winter in which there is a troubling lack of support for and understanding of America's arts and artists. In a section on Cultural Passages Brustein includes chapters on compromised theatre institutions, auteur productions, the American musical, generational idiosyncrasies and China's growing theatre culture which contrasts with American culture. The second section, Dramatic Passages, addresses twenty-seven great playwrights from Aeschylus to August Wilson and demonstrates how they have influenced our sense of history and human character. In Laudatory Passages Brustein discusses great American artists living and dead who continue to influence our sense of self as a nation and as individuals. Brustein concludes that we will be judged like all cultures by the quality of our arts and artists and by our willingness to allow their insights to influence our behavior.      The Dramatic Imagination Robert Edmond Jones, 2004-09-08 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an information company.      Grotesques and Other Reflections on Art and the Theatre Mary Cass Canfield, 1927      The Ancient
