Relationships-Reflection of the Image of God Crawford Clark,2016-07-25 There are many couples struggling in their relationships with each other Couples who are dating and who are married are settling for less than God s best There are several reasons why but perhaps there is a lack of understanding about the dynamics and expectations of their relationships God lets us know He has a plan for our lives as well as our relationships That plan for couples is to reflect His Image In order to be able to look like God we must be willing to look at what God intended for us and examine how we got into the predicament that many couples find themselves There is an enemy that constantly tries to keep you thinking that you are okay in your relationship with God and your life mate Can we honestly say that we are where we need to be in our relationship with God and with each other In this book you will find out from Genesis how God created us in His Image and how we are able to live His image every day in our lives He created us to be a reflection of His image and that image reveals itself in many ways Every couple can be that reflection even if you find your relationship or marriage in shambles This book offers you the answers and the steps to grow as a couple through Christ As a couple you can reflect the presence of Jesus and truly inspire others This can happen if you allow the word of God and the Holy Spirit to transform your relationship to be a powerful witness for Christ You can become a Reflection of His Image

The Diamond Heart Julianne McLean, 2023-04-15 Two towering figures thread their way through this book St Teresa of Avila the sixteenth century Spanish Carmelite saint writer and reformer and C G Jung the founder of modern depth psychology Through sharing fifteen key papers chapters and talks written over nearly twenty five years the author draws on their writings to focus on and explore the interface and relationship between the Christian mystical tradition and Jungian depth psychology Jung saw the human psyche as by nature religious and made this insight a principal focus of his explorations In this regard the book aims to explore an essentially depth approach to spirituality and numinosity relevant for todays largely post religious situation Jungian depth psychology with all its own richness can serve as an essential psychological foundation for and bridge to the Christian mystical tradition Over the past 1500 years the Christian tradition of theologia mystica or mystical theology has flourished in particular communities and individuals with great transformative beauty vitality and strength like a mysterious hidden river of Love overflowing into society such as in sixteenth century Spain Key to understanding the transmission of this tradition down the centuries has been the sixth century writings known as the Dionysian Corpus written by Pseudo Dionysius the Areopagite These writings have evolved over more than 1000 years of interpretation and translation being closely identified with the tradition of theologia mystica The author looks forward with enthusiasm hope and optimism to renewed creative and invigorated approaches to understanding the nature of our inner life that characterize the essential writings of St Teresa of Avila and C G Jung St Teresa of Avila s writings assure us our life journey can be graced by divine presence describing various stages of transformation of the soul in God s Love in her classic book on prayer the Interior Castle Living symbols were a major preoccupation in the life and writings of C G Jung where he explored the psychological foundation of religion particularly the Christian tradition what he termed the path of individuation The author believes under different guises we are in the midst of another flowering of theologia mystica in our own secular time The unprecedented spiritual longing and emergency of our own times is fuelling a strong need for the depth psychological tradition of Jungian psychology and the ancient tradition of theologia mystica to become more widely known understood practiced and lived There is a wider evolutionary shift happening in our times in the diamond heart of individuals groups nations and the global community Something new and unprecedented is being born in our world today we are not

James M. Nelson,2009-02-17 Over a century ago psychologists who were fascinated with religion began to study and write about it Theologians and religious practitioners have responded to this literature producing a fascinating dialogue that deals with our fundamental und standings about the human person and our place in the world This book provides an introduction to the important conversations that have developed out of these interchanges The dialogue between psychology and religion is difficult to study for a number of reasons First it requires knowledge of both psychology and religion People with a background in psychology often lack a solid understanding of the religious traditions they wish to study and theologians may not be up to date on the latest developments in psychology Second it requires conceptual tools to organize the material and understand the basic problems involved in any attempt to connect the science of psychology with religion These concepts can be found in many places for instance in the writings of philosophers of science but they are complex and often hard to follow for those without a proper theological and philosophical ba ground Finally authors who write on the topic come to the study of psychology and religion from a variety of academic and personal backgrounds This makes for wonderful diversity in conversations but it makes understanding and mastery of the material quite difficult Buenos Aires 2022 -
