Reflective Teaching And Learning In The Health Professions:

Reflective Teaching and Learning in the Health Professions David Kember, 2008-04-15 This book deals with the nature of professional education and the need to produce professionals who are capable of reflection upon practice. It derives comprehensive guidelines for developing curricula and teaching methods that encourage reflective thinking. It is heavily research based and the multiprofessional approach is unique to this subject matter. It will appeal to educators in all health science disciplines. The book includes an introduction to the concepts of reflection and reflective thinking and describes action research methodology used to carry out this study. Findings are presented in the form of case studies and the conclusions drawn are considered in the context of practical implementation. Reflective Teaching and Learning in the Health Professions David Kember, 2001 Evidence-Based Education in the Health Professions Ted Brown, Brett Williams, 2005-02-01 Evidence based education is an attempt to find critique and implement the highest quality research evidence that underpins the education provided to students.
