The Origin and Diversification of Language Morris Swadesh, 2017-09-04 Morris Swadesh one of this century's foremost scientific investigators of language dedicated much of his life to the study of the origin and evolution of language This volume left nearly completed at his death and edited posthumously by Joel F Sherzer is his last major study of this difficult subject Swadesh discusses the simple qualities of human speech also present in animal language and establishes distinctively human techniques of expression by comparing the common features that are found in modern and ancient languages He treats the diversification of language not only by isolating root words in different languages but also by dealing with sound systems with forms of composition and with sentence structure In so doing he demonstrates the evidence for the expansion of all language from a single central area Swadesh supports his hypothesis by exhibits that conveniently present the evidence in tabular form Further clarity is provided by the use of a suggestive practical phonetic system intelligible to the student as well as to the professional The book also contains an Appendix in which the distinguished ethnographer of language Dell Hymes gives a valuable account of the prewar linguistic tradition within which Swadesh did some of his most important work

Etnobiología del pueblo kakataibo Roberto Zariquiey, 2019-05-08 A partir de la integración de dos campos de investigación la etnobiología lingüística y la documentación de lenguas este libro ofrece la primera introducción sistemática a las manifestaciones lingüísticas del conocimiento sobre la naturaleza del pueblo kakataibo El autor Roberto Zariquiey nos presenta al pueblo kakataibo su lengua y sus estrategias lingüísticas para crear nombres de plantas y animales Asimismo nos introduce a la tradición oral de este pueblo que nos revela una fascinante cosmovisión en la que la diferencia entre humano y no humano es conceptualizada como un continuum Además nos expone los presupuestos teóricos y metodológicos para emprender estudios de etnobiología con pueblos amazónicos y nos narra detalladamente la experiencia de investigación colaborativa con el pueblo kakataibo Con ello se busca inspirar y facilitar el trabajo de investigadores jóvenes interesados en desarrollar proyectos etnobiológicos Este libro incluye adicionalmente un completo índice semántico de términos etnobiológicos kakataibo

Essays in the History of Linguistic Anthropology Dell H. Hymes, 1983 Anthropology and linguistics as historically developing disciplines have had partly separate roots and traditions In particular settings and in general the two disciplines have partly shared partly differed in the nature of their materials their favorite types of problem the personalities of their dominant figures their relations with other disciplines and intellectual current The two disciplines have also varied in their interrelation with each other and the society about them Institutional arrangements have reflected the varying degrees of kinship kithship and separation Such relationships themselves form a topic that is central to a history of linguistic anthropology yet marginal to a self contained history of linguistics or anthropology as either would be conceived by most authors There exists not only a subject matter for a history of linguistic anthropology but also a definite need
