Reformed Confessions Theology From Zurich To Barmen:

Reformed Confessions Jan Rohls, 1998

Reformed Confessions of the Sixteenth Century Arthur C.

Cochrane, 2003-01-01 Reformed Confessions of the Sixteenth Century makes available a number of confessional documents that are not easily accessible elsewhere Arthur Cochrane's introduction to the work and to each confession indicates each document's importance and its theological emphases A new introduction by Jack Rogers focuses on developments in the study of Reformed Confessions since the first appearance of Cochrane's book in 1966 Perpetually Reforming: A Theology of Church Reform and Renewal John P. Bradbury, 2013-04-25 This volume offers a constructive theology of how the church is perpetually reformed and renewed within the context of life in the world The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit in the Major Reformed Confessions and Catechisms of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries Yuzo Adhinarta, 2012-06-14 With the rise of Pentecostalism in the early twentieth century and growth in the charismatic movement since a resurgence of interest in the Holy Spirit and Christian spirituality in both theology and the church's life has become evident Along with increased interest in the doctrine of the Holy Spirit there are criticisms of the treatment of the doctrine in church history for having neglected the Holy Spirit in both theology and the church's life Critical studies of the treatments of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in church history have been laboriously conducted However there have not been many studies on the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in Reformed orthodoxy particularly in its confessional standards Recognizing the gap in the history of scholarship this work explores and provides a systematic account of the person and some aspects of the work of the Holy Spirit as presented in the major Reformed confessions and catechisms of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Attention is particularly given to those aspects of the work of the Holy Spirit that have not been greatly explored but are pertinent to contemporary discussions Confessional Theology? Rothney S. Tshaka, 2010-04-16 Christian confessions are usually seen as statements of faith which has no relationship with politics The result is a tendency to view these documents as theological but not political This study discusses this misconception but adds that although these documents are not to be perceived as political per se that they can nonetheless not ignore the political contexts from which they emerge Two confessional documents are discussed to illustrate the point viz the Barmen Theological Declaration 1934 in Nazi Germany as well as the Belhar Confession 1986 during apartheid South Africa The findings of the study is that the theology of Karl Barth and therefore the Belhar Confession establishes an unavoidable link between Christian confessions and politics The word confession is used here in relation to Barth's interpretation of our responsibility to speak about God because of the fact that we are Christian and also our inability to speak about God as if God is known in God's entirety to us Seen in this way confessional theology is opposed to tendencies that give the impression that we are able to speak about God as if we know Him in His entirety Five characteristics in the theology of Barth are investigated These characteristics illustrate the degree to which theology is related to politics It also points to the fact that politics was never a marginal factor in the theological reflections of Barth The study suggests that the theology of Barth remains relevant because it interprets the Word in a manner that does not ignore the contexts in which this interpretation of the Word takes place The study furthermore suggests that the entire theology of Barth can be construed as confessional theology It arrives at this end and makes very clear that confessional theology differs fundamentally from confessionalism but that confessional theology always calls for those who espouse it to embody that which is confessed To uphold the characteristics of confessional theology in the theology of Barth it is agreed that his theology continued to play significant roles in different theological contexts It is because of this view that it is argued that the theology of Barth had a great influence on the Belhar Confession The debate around the Belhar Confession brings further important questions about the theological situation in South Africa today In the end it is suggested that confessional theology is a significant theological method which can safeguard theology from the claws of theologised politics Confessional theology can thus make a significant contribution to the current theological debates in democratic South Africa

Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches Robert Benedetto, Donald K. McKim, 2023-10-15 As its name implies the Reformed tradition grew out of the 16th century Protestant Reformation The Reformed churches consider themselves to be the Catholic Church reformed The movement originated in the reform efforts of Huldrych Zwingli 1484 1531 of Zurich and John Calvin 1509 1564 of Geneva Although the Reformed movement was dependent upon many Protestant leaders it was Calvin's tireless work as a writer preacher teacher and social and ecclesiastical reformer that provided a substantial body of literature and an ethos from which the Reformed tradition grew Today the Reformed churches are a multicultural multiethnic and multinational phenomenon Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 1 000 cross referenced entries on leaders personalities events facts movements and beliefs of the Reformed churches This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about reformed churches

Standing for Orthodoxy Carl R. Trueman, Joel R. Beeke, Michael A. G. Haykin, Jared Hood, 2025-07-22 Standing for Orthodoxy celebrates the life and legacy of Peter Barnes aptly described as one of Australia's ablest defenders of theological orthodoxy whose tireless dedication to Scripture pastoral care and historical theology has profoundly impacted generations within the global Reformed community Spanning pastoral historical biblical and systematic theology the essays within this volume reflect the diverse yet unified commitment of Barnes's ministry to uphold biblical orthodoxy in a changing world Contributions from esteemed Australian and international scholars and pastors such as Joel R Beeke Michael A G Haykin Jared Hood John McClean Carl R Trueman Geoffrey Thomas and Rowland S Ward engage crucial questions of pastoral care confessional integrity historical interpretation and theological fidelity From discussions on the Early Church Fathers and John Calvin to explorations of Abraham Kuyper A W Pink and contemporary issues facing the church today these essays illustrate the rich interplay between historical depth and practical pastoral insight This volume serves as both a tribute and an urgent call reminding readers of the enduring necessity of standing firmly for biblical truth the power of historical theology to inform contemporary challenges and the essential role of the pastor scholar in guiding God's people toward faithfulness in every generation

Evangelical Calvinism Myk Habets, Bobby Grow, 2012-06-08 In this exciting volume new and emerging voices join senior Reformed scholars in presenting a coherent and impassioned articulation of Calvinism for today's world Evangelical Calvinism represents a mood within current Reformed theology The various contributors are in different ways articulating that mood of which their very diversity is a significant element In attempting to outline features of an Evangelical Calvinism a number of the contributors compare and contrast this approach with that of Federal Calvinism currently dominant in North American Reformed theology challenging the assumption that Federal Calvinism is the only possible expression of orthodox Reformed theology This book does not however represent the arrival of a new Calvinism or even a neo Calvinism if by those terms are meant a novel reading of the Reformed faith An Evangelical Calvinism highlights a Calvinistic tradition that has developed particularly within Scotland but is not unique to the Scots The editors have picked up the baton passed on by John Calvin Karl Barth Thomas Torrance and others in order to offer the family of Reformed theologies a reinvigorated theological and spiritual ethos This volume promises to set the agenda for Reformed Calvinist discussion for some time to come

The Son of God Beyond the Flesh Andrew M. McGinnis, 2014-07-31 The so called extra Calvinisticum the doctrine that the incarnate Son of God continued to exist beyond the flesh was not invented by John Calvin or Reformed theologians If this is true as is almost universally acknowledged today then why do scholars continue to fixate almost exclusively on Calvin when they discuss this doctrine The answer to the why of this scholarly trend however is not as important as correcting the trend This volume expands our vision of the historical functions and christological significance of this doctrine by expounding its uses in Cyril of Alexandria Thomas Aquinas Zacharias Ursinus and in theologians from the Reformation to the present Despite its relative obscurity the doctrine that came to be known as the Calvinist extra is a possession of the church catholic and a feature of Christology that ought to be carefully appropriated in contemporary reflection on the Incarnation
