Regarding Children A New Respect For Childhood And Families:

Regarding Children Herbert Anderson, Susan B. W. Johnson, 1994-01-01 Discusses child rearing identifies children's needs and outlines the support church and society should provide The Child in American Evangelicalism and the Problem of Affluence David A. Sims, 2009-06-01 This work presents an evangelical theology of the child nurtured in the context of American evangelicalism and affluence. It employs an eclectic theological critical method to produce a theological anthropology of the affluent American evangelical child (AAEC) through interdisciplinary evangelical engagement of American history, sociology, and economics. Sims articulates how affluence constitutes a significant impediment to evangelical nurture of the AAEC in the discipline and instruction of the Lord. Thus the problem he addresses is nurture in evangelical affluence conceived as a theological anthropological problem. Nurture in the cultural matrices of the evangelical affluence generated by technological consumer capitalism in the U.S. impedes spiritual and moral formation of the AAEC for discipleship in the way of the cross. This impediment risks disciplinary formation of the AAEC for capitalist culture cultivates delusional belief that life consists in an abundance of possessions and hinders the practice of evangelical liberation of the poor on humanity's underside. The result is the AAEC's spiritual moral lack in late modernity. Chapter 1 introduces the problem of the AAEC. Chapters 2 and 3 provide a diachronic lens for the theological anthropology of the AAEC through critical assessment of the theological anthropologies of the child in Jonathan Edwards, Horace Bushnell, and Lawrence Richards. Chapters 4 and 5 constitute the synchronic perspective of the AAEC. Chapter 4 presents an evangelical sociology of the AAEC drawing upon William Corsaro's theory of interpretive reproductions, and chapter 5 constructs an evangelical theology of the AAEC through critical interaction with John Schneider's moral theology of affluence. Chapter 6, 'Whither the AAEC,' concludes with a recapitulation of the work and a forecast of possible futures for the AAEC in the twenty-first century. Children and Childhood in American Religions Don S. Browning, Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2009-02-16 Whether First Communion or bar mitzvah religious traditions play a central role in the lives of many American children. In this collection of essays, leading scholars reveal for the first time how various religions interpret, reconstruct, and mediate their traditions to help guide children and their parents in navigating the opportunities and challenges of American life. The book examines ten religions among other topics: How the Catholic Church confronts the tension between its teachings about children and actual practice. The Oglala Lakota's struggle to preserve their spiritual tradition. The impact of modernity on Hinduism. Only by discussing the unique challenges faced by all religions and their followers can we take the first step toward a greater understanding for all of us. Theologies of Childhood and the Children of Africa Jan Grobbelaar, Gert Breed, Alfred Brunsdon, Marcia J. Bunge, Sam Ndoga, Hannes (J.J.) Knoetze, Nico Vorster, 2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theologies from a variety of theological sub-disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic. The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field.

especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It wants to convey the importance of considering Africa s children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa s children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research which the authors have done in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Theologies of Childhood is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa s children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provide insights that is also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere before
