Cultural History of Furniture in the Age of Empire and Industry Catherine L. Futter, Christina M. Anderson, 2022-02-24

The 19th century in Western culture was a time of both confidence and turbulence Industrial development produced a growing middle class as well as efficiency convenience and innovation across a range of fields from engineering to architecture Alongside these improvements the century began with the extended period of the Napoleonic Wars and was further disrupted by rebellions and revolutions both within Europe and in India South America and other parts of the world Slavery was abolished and urbanization increased dramatically These myriad developments were reflected throughout the period in the proliferation of types of furniture along with their categorization as industrial art at the international exhibitions and world fairs and the increasingly adventurous range of materials that were sometimes used in their construction. Nonetheless a strong antiquarian historicist strand also prompted interest in the revival of past styles in areas of art and design including furniture. Drawing upon a wealth of visual and textual sources this volume of A Cultural History of Furniture presents essays that examine key characteristics of the furniture of the period on the themes of design and motifs, makers, making and materials, types and uses, the domestic setting, the public setting, exhibition and display, furniture and architecture, visual representations and verbal representations.

Encyclopedia of Interior Design Joanna Banham, 1997-05-01 From ancient Greece to Frank Lloyd Wright, studio to smoking rooms, chimney boards to cocktail cabinets and papier mâché to tubular steel, the Encyclopedia of Interior Design provides a history of interior decoration and design from ancient times to the present day. It includes more than 500 illustrated entries covering a variety of subjects ranging from the work of the foremost designers to the origins and function of principal rooms and furnishing types, as well as surveys of interior design by period and nationality, all prepared by an international team of experts in the field. Entries on individuals include a biography, a chronological list of principal works or career summary, a primary and secondary bibliography, and a signed critical essay of 800 to 1500 words on the individual's work in interior design. The style and topic entries contain an identifying headnote, a guide to main collections, a list of secondary sources, and a signed critical essay.

Good Furniture and Decoration, 1929 19th-century America: Furniture and Other Decorative Arts Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Marilyn Johnson, 1970 This book illustrates and discusses 300 prime objects displayed in the 1970 exhibition of American decorative arts displayed during the Centennial exhibition at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in 1970. Presented as a series of lavish room settings and galleries, the exhibit included pieces in the 19th century's principal styles of furniture and decorative arts: Federal, Empire, Gothic, rococo, Renaissance, art nouveau, and reform.
