You Should Really Write a Book Regina Brooks, Brenda Lane Richardson, 2024-06-04 This is a terrific guide that clearly explains how to take your own story and turn it into a book that readers can t put down Julie Silver MD Chief Editor of Books at Harvard Health Publications If you ve ever been told that You should really write a book and you ve decided to give it a try this book is for you It hones in on the three key measures necessary for aspiring authors to conceptualize sell and market their memoirs Written especially for those who don't happen to be celebrities You Should Really Write a Book reveals why and how so many relatively unknown memoirists are making a name for themselves With references to more than four hundred books and six memoir categories this is essential reading for anyone wanting to write a commercially viable memoir in today's vastly changing publishing industry The days are long gone when editors and agents were willing to take on a manuscript simply because it was based on a good idea or even because it was well written With eyes focused on the bottom line they now look for skilled and creative authors with an established audience too Brooks and Richardson use the latest social networking marketing and promotional trends and explain how to conceptualize and strategize campaigns that cause buzz dramatically fueling word of mouth and attracting attention in the publishing world and beyond Full of current examples and in depth analysis this guide explains what sells and why teaches writers to think like publishers and offers guidance on dealing with complicated emotions essential tools for maximizing memoir success

The Role of Gender in Practice Knowledge Josefine Figueira McDonough, F. Ellen Netting, Ann Nichols Casebolt, 2018-10-24 Feminist critiques of the social sciences are based on the assumption that because the social sciences were developed for the most part by white middle class Western men the perspectives of women were ignored This book offers an approach for integrating gender related content into the social work curriculum The distinguished contributors discuss the shortcoming of dominant knowledge address the pressing need for a gender integrated curriculum consider the pedagogies consistent with the implementation of an integrate curriculum address specific areas in social work education assessing content and assumptions and discuss strategic issues for the implementation of curricular knowledge

Globalizing Automobility Gijs Mom, 2020-08-07 Why has car society proven so durable even in the face of mounting environmental and economic crises In this follow up to his magisterial Atlantic Automobility Gijs Mom traces the global spread of the automobile in the postwar era and investigates why adopting more sustainable forms of mobility has proven so difficult Drawing on archival research as well as wide ranging forays into popular culture Mom reveals here the roots of the exuberance excess and danger that define modern automotive culture

Vertigo Louise DeSalvo, 2002-08-01 A scholar's memoir of growing up and the powerful forces that shaped her as a woman and a writer her story will inspire all women

Library Journal In this honest and outspoken reflection on her childhood Louise DeSalvo explores the many ways literature saved her both emotionally and practically Born to Italian immigrants during World War II DeSalvo takes readers back to the emotional chaos of her 1950s girlhood in New Jersey growing up with her authoritative distant father her depressed mother and a sister who later committed suicide Reading and research were an anchor to her then and widened her choices about her future in ways that weren't otherwise available to girls of that era A Virginia Woolf scholar DeSalvo wrote a groundbreaking study on the impact of childhood sexual abuse on the reclusive writer Here she mines her own early days and her adolescent obsession with Hitchcock's Vertigo in an attempt to give her own life's path some shape some order Publisher's

Weekly said Her clarity of insight and expression make this memoir an impressive achievement and the San Francisco Chronicle proclaimed DeSalvo has one of the most refreshing feminist voices around A Critical Look at Institutional

Mission Joseph Janangelo, 2016-09-01 This book explores the relevance of institutional mission to writing program administration and writing center direction It helps WPAs and writing center directors understand the challenges and opportunities mission can pose to their work It also examines ways WPAs and writing center directors can work with and against mission statements and legacy practices to do their best work Chiaroscuro Helen Barolini, 1999 A lively lucid and often extremely moving collection of essays Sandra Gilbert author of Wrongful Death A Memoir Barolini's essays moved me Their commitment their passion their intelligence struck me very powerfully and made them among the most incisive essays on Italian Americana ethnicity and diversity in literature that I have ever read Fred Misurella author of Understanding Milan Kundera Public Events Private Affairs and Short Time Part memoir part social commentary and part literary criticism Chiaroscuro is not only profoundly original but also of crucial importance in establishing the contours of an Italian American tradition Spanning a quarter century of work the essays in Helen Barolini's essays explore her personal search literature as a formative influence and the turning of the personal into the political Included in Chiaroscuro is an updated re introduction to Barolini's American Book Award winning collection The Dream Book An Anthology of Writings by Italian American Women

Best Books for Young Adults Holly Koelling, 2007-08-13 Rev ed of Best books for young adults Betty Carter with Sally Estes and Linda Waddle 2nd ed c2000 Writing With An Accent Edvige Giunta, 2016-04-30 Mary Cappello Louise DeSalvo Sandra M Gilbert Maria Mazziotti Gillan Carole Maso Agnes Rossi These are some of the best known Italian American writers today They are part of a literary tradition with mid twentieth century roots that began to develop in earnest in the late 1970s and early 1980s During those decades a number of Italian American women such as Helen Barolini began to publish books that depicted their perspectives on life through the critical lenses of gender class and ethnicity At the end of the twentieth century this literature finally blossomed into a fully fledged cultural movement that also took into account issues of sexuality age illness and familial and societal abuse Writing with an Accent takes a look at this vibrant literary movement by discussing those first writers of the 1970s and 1980s as well as later authors At the center of Edvige Giunta's Writing with an Accent is the literal notion of accent the marker of linguistic and cultural difference that separates and identifies recent immigrants to the United States In this study an accent symbolically embodies the differences and creative strategies through which contemporary Italian American women writers engage Italian American culture in works of fiction poetry and memoir Giunta also looks at the links between the literature and art music film and video produced by contemporary Italian American women The literature of the Italian American women in Writing with an Accent is shaped by the complicated connections these authors maintain with their cultural origins but also and perhaps more importantly by their feminist consciousness and politicized sense of ethnic identity Writing with an Accent celebrates and explores a group of authors who characteristically

mix the joy and pain of Italian American life to paint a multifaceted picture of Italian American women and their complex place in U S culture
