Riding for Ladies W. A. Kerr, 2019-12-18 In Riding for Ladies W A Kerr delivers a comprehensive exploration of equestrianism tailored specifically for women embracing the nuances of riding care safety and etiquette The book is characterized by its engaging and conversational prose inviting readers into a realm where riding transcends mere sport and evolves into an empowering pursuit Rooted in the late 19th century transition of social norms regarding women's roles Kerr provides not only practical riding advice but also reflects on the evolving perceptions of femininity and independence in a historically male dominated domain Kerr an accomplished equestrian himself draws from both personal experience and a broader cultural discourse of his time which valued educated and skilled women His insights into horse care and riding technique stem from a genuine passion for the sport as well as a deep recognition of the capabilities of women shaping a text that is both instructive and uplifting The author's unique position allows him to bridge traditional practices with modern ideology making the content accessible yet authoritative Riding for Ladies is an invaluable resource for any woman seeking to engage with the equestrian world confidently The book offers an amalgamation of practical tips and motivational insights ensuring readers not only learn the art of riding but also embrace the spirit of independence it fosters It is a must read for aspiring equestrians and those interested in the historical context of women in sports

Women, Horse Sports and Liberation Erica Munkwitz, 2021-07-13 Shortlisted for the 2022 Lord Aberdare Literary Prize This book is the first full length scholarly examination of British women's involvement in equestrianism from the eighteenth through the twentieth centuries as well as the corresponding transformations of gender class sport and national identity in Britain and its Empire It argues that women s participation in horse sports transcended limitations of class and gender in Britain and highlights the democratic ethos that allowed anyone skilled enough to ride and hunt from chimney sweep to courtesan Furthermore women s involvement in equestrianism reshaped ideals of race and reinforced imperial ideology at the zenith of the British Empire Here British women abandoned the sidesaddle which they had been riding in for almost half a millennium to ride astride like men thus gaining complete equality on horseback Yet female equestrians did not seek further emancipation in the form of political rights This paradox of achieving equality through sport but not through politics shows how liberating sport was for women into the twentieth century It brings into question what emancipation meant in practice to women in Britain from the eighteenth through twentieth centuries This is fascinating reading for scholars of sports history women s history British history and imperial history as well as those interested in the broader social gendered and political histories of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and for all equestrian enthusiasts

Cultivating Community Jodey Nurse, 2022-02-22 For close to two hundred years families and individuals across Ontario have travelled down country roads and gathered to enjoy seasonal agricultural fairs Though some features of township and county fairs have endured for generations these community events have also undergone significant transformations since 1850 especially in terms of women s participation Cultivating Community tells the story of how women s involvement became critical to agricultural fairs growth and prosperity By examining women s diverse roles as agricultural society members fair exhibitors performers volunteers and fairgoers Jodey Nurse shows that women used fairs manifold nature to present different versions of rural womanhood Although traditional domestic skills and handicrafts such as baking needlework and flower arrangement remained the domain of women throughout this period women steadily enlarged their sphere of influence on the fairgrounds By the mid twentieth century they had staked out a place in venues previously closed to them including the livestock show ring the athletic field and the boardroom Through a wealth of fascinating stories and colourful detail Cultivating Communities adds a new dimension to the social and cultural history of rural women placing their activities at the centre of the agricultural fair
