There have been problems to date with the tracks & the contents, but we think we brought some ideas to the board to fix them and to make the carrying of information in the maps with a very low number above each depth and position, and that some new ideas about the handling, including individual and large ones like the one showing information the last day of the season, 1980. Also, we have some ideas for the other part of the map, the one for the weather, but we have not had time to work on it yet. The maps will have a lot of data and a lot of information, but we have not had time to work on it yet. The maps will have a lot of data and a lot of information, but we have not had time to work on it yet.
