layers and archaeological wood The book clearly shows how collaboration between engineers physicists biologists and chemists and conservators of different types of materials can lead to new research in conservation science This book is crucial reading for conservators and conservation scientists as well as for technical art historians providing key methodological case studies of polychromy from different temporal and geographical contexts Egyptian textiles and their production: [word] and [object] Maria Mossakowska-Gaubert,2020 This volume presents the results of a 2017 workshop at the Centre for Textile Research CTR University of Copenhagen an event within the framework of the MONTEX project including support from a Marie Sk A Cultural History of Theatre in the Middle Ages Jody Enders,2019-08-08 Historically and broadly defined as the period between the fall of the Roman Empire and the rise of the Renaissance the Middle Ages encompass a millennium of cultural conflicts and developments A large body of mystery passion miracle and morality plays cohabited with song dance farces and other public spectacles frequently sharing ecclesiastical and secular inspiration A Cultural History of Theatre in the Middle Ages provides a comprehensive and interdisciplinary overview of the cultural history of theatre between 500 and 1500 and imaginatively pieces together the puzzle of medieval theatre by foregrounding the study of performance Each of the ten chapters of this richly illustrated volume takes a different theme as its focus institutional frameworks social functions sexuality and gender the environment of theatre circulation interpretations communities of production repertoire and genres technologies of performance and knowledge transmission The Creation of Eve and Renaissance Naturalism Jack M. Greenstein,2016-08-23 Depicting the Creation of Woman presented a special problem for Renaissance artists The medieval iconography of Eve rising half formed from Adam s side was hardly compatible with their commitment to the naturalistic representation of the human figure At the same time the story of God constructing the first woman from a rib did not offer the kind of dignified affective pictorial narrative that artists patrons and the public prized Jack M Greenstein takes this artistic problem as the point of departure for an iconographic study of this central theme of Christian culture His book shows how the meaning changed along with the form when Lorenzo Ghiberti Andrea Pisano and other Italian sculptors of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries revised the traditional composition to accommodate a naturalistically depicted Eve At stake Greenstein argues is the role of the artist and the power of image making in reshaping Renaissance culture and religious thought Greek and Roman Textiles and Dress Mary Harlow,Marie-Louise Nosch,2014-09-30 Twenty chapters present the range of current research into the study of textiles and dress in classical antiquity stressing the need for cross and inter disciplinary study in order to gain the fullest picture of surviving material Issues addressed include the importance of studying textiles to understand economy and landscape in the past different types of embellishments of dress from weaving techniques to the late introduction of embroidery the close links between the language of ancient mathematics and weaving the relationships of iconography to the realities of clothed bodies including a paper on the ground breaking research on the polychromy of ancient statuary dye recipes and methods of analysis case studies of garments in Spanish Viennese and Greek collections which discuss methods of analysis and conservation analyses of textile tools from across the Mediterranean discussions of trade and ethnicity to the workshop relations in Roman fulleries Multiple aspects of the production of textiles and the social meaning of dress are included here to offer the reader an up to date account of the state of current research The volume opens up the range of questions that can now be answered when looking at fragments of textiles and examining written and iconographic images of dressed individuals in a range of media The volume is part of a pair together with Prehistoric Ancient Near Eastern and Aegean Textiles and Dress an interdisciplinary anthology edited by Mary Harlow Cile Michel and Marie Louise Nosch Collection Care/Sammlungspflege Gabriela Krist, 2015-05-21 Prevention is an attempt to look into the future and have a positive influence on it therefore it is one of the most important aspects in the area of collection care the central current field of applied research in conservation and restoration With sustainability damage and loss are avoided dangers averted and research conducted Collection care is only successful if the theory is appropriately implemented in museum practice War and Worship Susan Möller-Wiering, 2011-08-30 War and Worship concerns textile deposits from the bog sites of Thorsberg in Germany and Nydam Vimose and Illerup dal in Denmark All four sites are well known for containing a substantial amount of archaeological materials particularly weapons but they also contain as integral parts of the weapon deposits a smaller number of preserved textiles which nevertheless constitute outstanding assemblages With the exception of Thorsberg publications dealing particularly with textiles from weapon deposits are almost non-existent The textiles from each site are analysed then compared to one another and described as a unit characterising the particular site Comparisons are then made between the four sites with emphasis on the overall context A final chapter by Lise R der Knudsen analyses tablet woven textiles in the deposits a textile technique used to make bands edges and borders Although the state of preservation of the textiles at the different locations varies hugely the research has extracted a large amount of information allowing conclusions on status origin function and role in the deposits to be drawn The fabrics presented here were unquestionably consecrated textiles They had been worn by the defeated foreign warriors during the battle and were considered worthy as sacrificial offerings to the gods Some individual high status textiles were perceived to have a value comparable to certain metal items Others probably the majority were used for covering and wrapping other offerings for the subsequent sacrifice All were committed to the lakes in a sacred act of remembrance to celebrate victorious battles
