Rights From The Sea

Irini Papanicolopulu

Rights From The Sea:

International Law and the Protection of People at Sea Irini Papanicolopulu, 2018-03-09 Media interest in the fates of people at sea has heightened across the last decade The attacks and the hostage taking of victims by Somali pirates and the treatment of migrants and asylum seekers in the Mediterranean ask pressing questions as does the sinking of the Costa Concordia off the Italian island of Giglio which one hundred years after the Titanic capsized reminded the world that despite modern navigation systems and technology shipping is still fallible Do pirates have human rights Can migrants at sea be turned back to the State from which they have sailed How can the crews of vessels be protected against inhuman and degrading working and living conditions And are States liable under international human rights treaties for arresting drug traffickers on the high seas The first text to comprehensively compare the legal rights of different people at sea Irini Papanicolopulu s timely text argues that there is an overarching duty of the state to protect people at sea and adopt all necessary acts with a view towards ensuring enjoyment of their rights Rather than being in doubt she reveals that the emerging law in this area is watertight The International Law of the Sea Yoshifumi Tanaka, 2023-03-02 Provides clear systematic and comprehensive coverage of fundamental and contemporary issues of the law of the sea Catalogue of the Library of Parliament Canada. Library of Parliament, 1878 The Development of the Law of the Sea by UNCLOS Dispute Settlement Bodies Lan Ngoc Nguyen, 2023-02-09 A critical assessment of how UNCLOS dispute settlement bodies develop the law the sea and factors that explain such development Legal Language and the Sea Mary C. Lavissière, Audrey Cartron, Laurent Gautier, 2025-08-04 While maritime law and law of the sea are highly researched domains of law there are few studies about the language associated with these fields In a global society that is increasingly impacted by environmental health social humanitarian and political crises that partly unfold on the sea this volume unites legal scholars and linguists who work on the language of these fields The book includes chapters that focus on macro levels of linguistic analyses e g discourse and genre analysis and micro levels e g terminology as well as translation Several languages for maritime legal purposes are studied including English French and Chinese Aboriginal Customary Law: A Source of Common Law Title to Land Ulla Secher, 2014-12-01 Described as ground breaking in Kent McNeil s Foreword this book develops an alternative approach to conventional Aboriginal title doctrine It explains that aboriginal customary law can be a source of common law title to land in former British colonies whether they were acquired by settlement or by conquest or cession from another colonising power The doctrine of Common Law Aboriginal Customary Title provides a coherent approach to the source content proof and protection of Aboriginal land rights which overcomes problems arising from the law as currently understood and leads to more just results The doctrine s applicability in Australia Canada and South Africa is specifically demonstrated While the jurisprudential underpinnings for the doctrine are consistent with fundamental common law principles the author explains that the Australian High Court s decision in Mabo provides a broader basis for the doctrine

a broader basis which is consistent with a re evaluation of case law from former British colonies in Africa as well as from the United States New Zealand and Canada In this context the book proffers a reconceptualisation of the Crown s title to land in former colonies and a reassessment of conventional doctrines including the doctrine of tenure and the doctrine of continuity With rare exceptions the existing literature does not probe as deeply or question fundamental assumptions as thoroughly as Dr Secher does in her research She goes to the root of the conceptual problems around the legal nature of Indigenous land rights and their vulnerability to extinguishment in the former colonial empire of the Crown This book is a formidable contribution that I expect will be influential in shifting legal thinking on Indigenous land rights in progressive new directions From the Foreword by Professor Kent McNeil to read the Foreword please click on the sample chapter link The Law of the Sea Robin Rolf Churchill, Alan Vaughan Lowe, 1983 Introductory survey covering 1982 U N Convention on the Law of the Sea and the customary and conventional law which supplements it The American Secretaries of State and Their Diplomacy Samuel Flagg Bemis (1891-, ed), 1928 Law of the Sea in East Asia Keyuan Zou, 2005 Law of the Sea in East Asia selects the most prominent maritime legal issues that have emerged since the post LOS Convention era for a detailed discussion and assessment The current marine legal order in East Asia is based on the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea LOS Convention and accordingly coastal states in the region are obliged to cooperate amongst themselves to exercise their rights and perform their duties Keyuan a respected expert in the fields of international and Chinese law explores issues concerning compliance with the law of the sea territorial disputes and maritime boundary delimitation fishery management safety of navigation and maritime security and neglected issues in the law of the sea This is the first book to examine maritime laws in East Asia and as such will appeal to academics of law and Asian studies lawyers and policy makers

UN Convention on the Law of the Sea and the South China Sea Shicun Wu, Mark Valencia, Nong Hong, 2016-03-09 Research on The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea UNCLOS is a valuable addition to understanding the political situation in the potentially volatile South China Sea region This book covers topics such as baselines historic title and rights due regard and abuse of rights peaceful use of the ocean navigation regimes marine scientific research intelligence gathering the UNCLOS dispute settlement system and regional common heritage In search of varying viewpoints the authors in this book come from multiple countries including the Philippines Australia Ireland Mainland China and Taiwan the United States and Indonesia Singapore UK and Germany Ongoing events such as the recent waves made by China in the East China Sea and increasing tensions between the South East Asian countries over the use of South China Sea make this book especially pertinent
