Rilke In Seiner Zeit:

Rainer Maria Rilke's 'Gedichte An Die Nacht' Anthony Stephens, 1972-05-25 An analysis of Rilke's Gedichte an die Nacht and the influence of this collection on his most outstanding work the Duinese Elegien Following Norberg-Schulz
Anna Ulrikke Andersen, 2021-12-16 This book examines the window in the life and work of the seminal architectural thinker Christian Norberg Schulz 1926 2000 It draws new attention to his architectural designs and re-examines his acclaimed theoretical work on the phenomenology of architecture and place within the context of a biography of his life linking him with other historical figures such as Helen Keller and Rainer Maria Rilke and framing him within the modernist tradition of the latter Taking a novel experimental approach the book also explores the potential of the essay film as an innovative new approach to producing architectural history Bridging archival research and artistic exploration its ten chapters written by an architectural historian who is also a film maker are each accompanied by a short documentary film hosted online and linked from within the chapter which use the medium of film to creatively explore and delve deeper into little known aspects of Norberg Schulz's theory of genius loci and the phenomenology of architecture The book questions what it means to follow those who came before exploring the positionality of the architectural historian filmmaker Offering an insightful account of the life work and theory of a key thinker Following Norberg Schulz is also essential reading for those interested in practice led research methodologies particularly in the practice of film making and the essay film providing a highly innovative example of scholarly research which bridges the text film gap Discovery of El Greco Eric Storm, 2016-05-24 Originally published in Dutch and translated to Spanish for the fourth centenary celebration of the death of El Greco in 2014 this book is a comprehensive study of the rediscovery of El Greco seen as one of the most important events of its kind in art history The Nationalization of Culture versus the Rise of Modern Art analyses how changes in artistic taste in the second half of the nineteenth century caused a profound revision of the place of El Greco in the artistic canon As a result El Greco was transformed from an extravagant outsider and a secondary painter into the founder of the Spanish School and one of the principle predecessors of modern art increasingly related to that of the Impressionists due primarily to the German critic Julius Meier Graefe's influential History of Modern Art 1914 This shift in artistic preference has been attributed to the rise of modern art but Eric Storm a cultural historian shows that in the case of El Greco nationalist motives were even more important This study examines the work of painters art critics writers scholars and philosophers from France Germany and Spain and the role of exhibitions auctions monuments and commemorations Paintings and associated anecdotes are discussed and historical debates such as El Greco's supposed astigmatism are addressed in a highly readable and engaging style This book will be of interest to both specialists and the interested art public Rilke's Book of Hours Anita Barrows, 2005-11-01 A FINALIST FOR THE PEN WEST TRANSLATION AWARD The 100th Anniversary Edition of a global classic containing beautiful translations along with the original German text While visiting Russia in his twenties Rainer

Maria Rilke one of the twentieth century's greatest poets was moved by a spirituality he encountered there. Inspired, Rilke returned to Germany and put down on paper what he felt were spontaneously received prayers. Rilke's Book of Hours is the invigorating vision of spiritual practice for the secular world and a work that seems remarkably prescient today, one hundred years after it was written. Rilke's Book of Hours shares with the reader a new kind of intimacy with God or the divine, a reciprocal relationship between the divine and the ordinary in which God needs us as much as we need God. Rilke influenced generations of writers with his Letters to a Young Poet, and now Rilke's Book of Hours tells us that our role in the world is to love it and thereby love God into being. These fresh translations rendered by Joanna Macy, a mystic and spiritual teacher, and Anita Barrows, a skilled poet, capture Rilke's spirit as no one has done before. Lost Son M. Allen Cunningham, 2008-04-01. Spanning western Europe from 1875 to 1917 and presenting a gothic historical Paris that subverts our old assumptions regarding the City of Light, M. Allen Cunningham's new novel brings a brooding atmosphere and human complexity to an intimate and imaginative portrait of one of the most uniquely sensitive artists of his time, a poet whose odd childhood and difficult early life will both fascinate and perhaps help explain his determination to stay true to his artistic vision at almost any cost. Here is Rainer Maria Rilke in the grip of his greatest artistic struggle, life itself. Rilke's gripping emotional drama, as child lover, husband, father, prodig, misfit, soldier, and wanderer, is framed by a haunted young figure, a researcher who a century later feels compelled to trace Rilke's itinerant footsteps and those of Rilke's fictional alter ego, the bewitched poet Malte Laurids Brigge. The result is an exploration of the forever imperfect loyalties we face in work and life, the seemingly immeasurable distances that can separate life and art, and the generational tensions between masters and admirers.

Multicultural Writers from Antiquity to 1945 Alba Amoia, Bettina L. Knapp, 2001-10-30. The final decades of the 20th century have seen an explosion of interest in multiculturalism. But multiculturalism is more than an awareness of the different cultures comprising contemporary societies. For centuries, people from around the world have come in contact with cultures other than their own, and their exposure to multiple cultures has fostered their creativity and ability to make lasting contributions to civilization. The effects of multiculturalism are especially apparent in literature, since writers tend to be particularly aware of their environments and record their experiences. This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 100 world writers from antiquity to 1945 who were significantly influenced by cultures other than their own. Included are entries for major canonical Ancient and Modern writers of the Western and Eastern worlds. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography, a discussion of multicultural themes and contexts, a summary of the writer's critical reception, and primary and secondary bibliographies. By illuminating the shaping influence of multiculturalism on these writers, the volume points to the lasting value of multiculturalism in the contemporary world.

Objects in Air Margareta Ingrid Christian, 2021-06-07 Margareta Ingrid Christian unpacks the ways in which around 1900 art scholars critics and choreographers wrote about the artwork as an actual object in real time and space surrounded and fluently connected to the viewer through the very air we breathe Theorists such as Aby Warburg Alois Riegl Rainer Maria Rilke and the choreographer Rudolf Laban drew on the science of their time to examine air as the material space surrounding an artwork establishing its milieu atmosphere or environment Christian explores how the artwork's external space was seen to work as an aesthetic category in its own right beginning with Rainer Maria Rilke's observation that Rodin's sculpture exhales an atmosphere and that Cezanne's colors create a calm silken air that pervades the empty rooms where the paintings are exhibited Writers created an early theory of unbounded form that described what Christian calls an artwork's ecstasis or its ability to stray outside its limits and engender its own space Objects viewed in this perspective complicate the now fashionable discourse of empathy aesthetics the attention to self-projecting subjects and the idea of the modernist self-contained artwork For example Christian invites us to historicize the immersive spatial installations and environments that have arisen since the 1960s and to consider their origins in turn of the twentieth century aesthetics Throughout this beautifully written work Christian offers ways for us to rethink entrenched narratives of aesthetics and modernism and to revisit alternatives

Sense and Creative Labor in Rainer Maria Rilke's Prose Works Nicholas Carroll Reynolds, 2021-08-06 This book is an investigation of the role of creative labor and the five senses in Rainer Maria Rilke's prose works including his Primal Sound essay The Stories of God The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge and his monograph on Auguste Rodin It is about several protagonists' quest to achieve creative labor by reconnecting spirit or the unconscious to the hand There are many difficulties in the way however illustrated by Rilke's essays tales and monographs In the process of overcoming these impediments the five senses are expanded and refined Rilke's characters undergo a transformation that not only allows them to do true creative labor but also brings them into a new relationship with themselves the world around them and other people Nicholas Carroll Reynolds received his PhD at the University of Oregon USA He has authored several articles on philosophy and literature and has worked as an editor and translator He is currently employed at Trinity University in San Antonio Texas USA where he teaches in the German Philosophy and First Year Experience programs as well as in Trinity's Study abroad program in Berlin Germany
