Rise And Fall Of Swahili States:

The Rise and Fall of Swahili States Chapurukha M. Kusimba, 1999-03-31 The Swahili civilization was a fascinating and complex system_a group of advanced cultures with large economic networks international maritime trade and urban sophistication This book documents the growth of Swahili civilization on the eastern coast of Africa from 100 B C to the time of European colonialism in the sixteenth century Using archaeological anthropological and historical information Chapurukha M Kusimba describes the origins of this unique and powerful culture including its Islamic components architecture language and trading systems Incorporating the results of his own surveys and excavations Kusimba provides us with a remarkable African derived study of the rise and collapse of societies on the Swahili Coast The Story of Swahili John M.

Mugane, 2015-07-15 Swahili was once an obscure dialect of an East African Bantu language Today more than one hundred million people use it Swahili is to eastern and central Africa what English is to the world From its embrace in the 1960s by the black freedom movement in the United States to its adoption in 2004 as the African Union s official language Swahili has become a truly international language How this came about and why of all African languages it happened only to Swahili is the story that John M Mugane sets out to explore The remarkable adaptability of Swahili has allowed Africans and others to tailor the language to their needs extending its influence far beyond its place of origin Its symbolic as well as its practical power has evolved from its status as a language of contact among diverse cultures even as it embodies the history of communities in eastern and central Africa and throughout the Indian Ocean world The Story of Swahili calls for a reevaluation of the widespread assumption that cultural superiority military conquest and economic dominance determine a language s prosperity This sweeping history gives a vibrant living language its due highlighting its nimbleness from its beginnings to its place today in the fast changing world of global communication Making Ancient Cities Andrew Creekmore, Kevin D. Fisher, 2014-04-28 Investigates how the structure and use of space developed and changed in cities and examines the role of different societal groups in shaping urbanism Inland from Mombasa David P.

Bresnahan, 2024-12-10 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Over the past few decades scholars have traced how Indian Ocean merchants forged transregional networks into a world of global connections East Africa s crucial role in this Indian Ocean world has primarily been understood through the influence of coastal trading centers like Mombasa In Inland from Mombasa David P Bresnahan looks anew at this Swahili port city from the vantage point of the communities that lived on its rural edges By reconstructing the deep history of these Mijikenda speaking societies over the past two millennia he shows how profoundly they influenced global trade even as they rejected many of the cosmopolitan practices that historians have claimed are critical to creating global connections choosing smaller communities over urbanism local ritual practices over Islam and inland trade over maritime commerce Inland from Mombasa makes the compelling case that the seemingly isolating alternative social pursuits engaged in by Mijikenda speakers were in fact key to their active role in global commerce and politics

Prehistoric Marine Resource Use in the Indo-Pacific Regions David Addison, Rintaro Ono, Alex Morrison, 2013-12-20 Although historic sources provide information on recent centuries archaeology can contribute longer term understandings of pre industrial marine exploitation in the Indo Pacific region providing valuable baseline data for evaluating contemporary ecological trends This volume contains eleven papers which constitute a diverse but coherent collection on past and present marine resource use in the Indo Pacific region within a human ecological perspective The geographical focus extends from Eastern Asia mainly Japan and Insular Southeast Asia especially the Philippines to the tropical Pacific Micronesia Melanesia and Polynesia and outlying sites in coastal Tanzania Indian Ocean and coastal California North Pacific The volume is divided thematically and temporally into four parts Part 1 Prehistoric and historic marine resource use in the Indo Pacific Region Part 2 Specific marine resource use in the Pacific and Asia Part 3 Marine use and material culture in the Western Pacific and Part 4 Modern marine use and resource management

China and East Africa Chapurukha M. Kusimba, Tiequan Zhu, Purity Wakabari Kiura, 2019-12-02 China and East Africa Ancient Ties and Contemporary Flows marks the culmination of a new round of archaeological and historical research on the relations between China and Africa from the origins to the present Africa and Asia have always been in constant contact through land and seas The contributors to this volume debate and present the results of their research on the very complex and intricate networks of connections that crisscrossed the Indian Ocean and surrounding lands linking Africa to East Asia A growing number of speakers of Austronesian languages returned to Africa reaching Madagascar in the early centuries of the Common Era The diffusion of domesticated plants like bananas from New Guinea to South Asia and Africa where phytoliths are dated to the mid fourth millennium in Uganda and mid first millennium BCE in southern Cameroon provide additional evidence on early interactions between Africa and Asia Africa and Asia have always been in constant contact through land and seas Edited by Chapurukha Kusimba Tiequan Zhu and Purity Wakabari Kiura this collection explores different facets of the interaction between China and Africa from their earliest manifestations to the present and with an eye to the future

New Materialisms Ancient Urbanisms Susan M. Alt, Timothy R. Pauketat, 2019-08-05 The future of humanity is urban and knowledge of urbanism s deep past is critical for us all to navigate that future The time has come for archaeologists to rethink this global phenomenon by asking what urbanism is and more to the point was Can we truly understand ancient urbanism by only asking after the human element or are the properties and qualities of landscapes materials and atmospheres equally causal The nine authors of New Materialisms Ancient Urbanisms seek less anthropocentric answers to questions about the historical relationships between urbanism and humanity in Africa Asia and the Americas They analyze the movements and flows of materials things phenomena and beings human and otherwise as these were assembled to produce the kinds of complex dense and stratified relationships that we today label urban In so doing the book emerges as a work of both theory and historical anthropology It breaks new ground in the archaeology of urbanism building on the latest New Materialist relational ontological and realist trends in social theory This book challenges a new generation of students to think outside the box and provides scholars of urbanism archaeology and anthropology with a fresh perspective on the development of urban society      Theological Education in Contemporary Africa Grant LeMarquand, Joseph D.

Galgalo, 2004 Part One addresses Theological Foundations The five essays in this section deal with the Bible Theology and Ecumenism The subjects of theological methods contextual hermeneutics and appropriate curriculum are given special attention Of course even foundational issues cannot be discussed in a vacuum and so each of the essays addresses these foundational subjects in the light of African realities Part Two deals with Contemporary Issues It is particularly in this section that the traditional themes in African theology have been somewhat displaced by concerns which are today very pressing indeed Three essays are devoted to the question of HIV AIDS This disease which has devastated the African continent demands a theological and practical response from those who claim to follow Jesus Christ If the churches do not respond to this crisis with energy and determination we should not be surprised if the next generation wonders whether the Gospel has the power which we claim that it has Two essays address the question of Islam and Muslim Christian Relations in Africa The resurgence of Islam in the world today is a concern of many For those who believe in Jesus this is a challenge which demands much wisdom and love How should we respond to our Muslim neighbours What are appropriate and thoughtful ways to share the love of Christ Two further essays appear under the title of The Marginalized This could of course be a much larger section Those who suffer from AIDS could be included in this number and one might have expected to see at least one essay on the place of women In this volume however the disabled and youth are highlighted Both groups are clearly in need of the attention of the churches and both groups are clearly misunderstood and neglected The final section of Part Two contains essays which focus attention on Theological Paedagogy All of the other contributions to this volume make suggestions and arguments about curriculum resources and issues of concern for theological educators The causal aim of this book is that these essays may help us to reflect in an intentional way on the implications of contemporary realities for the future of theological education

African Historical Archaeologies Andrew M. Reid, Paul J. Lane, 2014-10-28 This volume explores the range of interactions between the historical sources and archaeology that are available on the African continent The contributions written by a range of experts on different aspects of African archaeology present the underlying issues such as The conflict and collaboration in the foundation of modern Africa African trading communities maintaining their independence from Europe The impacts of the Atlantic slave trade This represents the first consideration of historical archaeology over the African continent as a whole and therefore provides an important review for African archaeologists and historians This seminal volume also explores Africa's place in global systems of thought and economic development for historical archaeologists and historians alike      Religion and Trade Francesca Trivellato, Leor Halevi, Catia

Antunes,2014-08-20 This vibrant collected volume considers the question how exactly did the relationship between trade and religion develop historically Examining a wide range of commercial exchanges across religious boundaries around the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic and Indian Oceans during the second millennium it offers a variety of perspectives on this intriguing and surprisingly neglected subject
