Rise Up Walk The Autobiography Of Bishop Abel Tendekai Muzorewa:

Rise Up and Walk Abel Tendekayi Muzorewa,1978 In the Footsteps of the Masters Dickson Mungazi,2000-02-28

The height of colonial rule on the African continent saw two prominent religious leaders step to the fore Desmond Tutu in South Africa and Abel Muzorewa in Zimbabwe Both Tutu and Muzorewa believed that Africans could govern their own nations responsibly and effectively if only they were given the opportunity In expressing their religious views about the need for social justice each man borrowed from national traditions that had shaped policy of earlier church leaders Tutu and Muzorewa argued that the political development of Africans was essential to the security of the white settlers and that whites should seek the promotion of political development of Africans as a condition of that future security Desmond Tutu and Abel Muzorewa were both motivated by strong religious principles They disregarded the possible personal repercussions that they might suffer as a result of their efforts to alter the fundamental bases of their colonial governments Each man hoped to create a new national climate in which blacks and whites could cooperate to build a new nation Each played a part in eventual independence for Zimbabwe in 1980 and for South Africa in 1994 Mungazi s examination of their efforts reveals how individuals with strong convictions can make a difference in shaping the future of their nations Rise Up and Walk

Rotberg,2023 How did Africans win their freedom in southern Africa And what did they do with their freedom in the several decades since each southern African country became free Overcoming the Oppressors discusses Black oppression succeeding white oppression indicates why and how corruption prevails in the region and explains why Botswana is exceptional in being non corrupt and well governed The present problems of each country are analyzed and we learn what their leaders are doing to uplift their peoples
