Rishi Of Bangladesh:

The Rishi of Bangladesh Dr Cosimo Zene, Cosimo Zene, 2014-04-08 This book is a study of the changing relationship over time 1856 1994 between the Rishi an ex Untouchable jati of Bengal South West Bangladesh and various groups of Catholic missionaries The book s originality and importance lies in its multi disciplinary approach which combines anthropological fieldwork historical research philosophical enquiry and contemporary missiological debates Moreover it addresses issues of great current relevance in its discussions of Orientalism Neo colonialism and Otherness The Political Philosophies of Antonio Gramsci and B. R. Ambedkar Cosimo Zene, 2013-10-23 Bridging two generations of scholarship on social inequality and modern political forms this book examines the political philosophies of inclusion of subalterns Dalits in Gramsci and Ambedkar s political philosophies It highlights the full range of Gramsci s philosophy of praxis and presents a more critical appreciation of his thought in the study of South Asian societies Equally Ambedkar s thought and philosophy is put to the forefront and acquires a prominence in the international context Overcoming geographical cultural and disciplinary boundaries the book gives relevance to the subalterns Following the lead of Gramsci and Ambedkar the contributors are committed apart from underscoring the historical roots of subalternity to uncovering the subalterns presence in social economic cultural educational literary legal and religious grounds The book offers a renewed critical approach to Gramsci and Ambedkar and expands on their findings in order to offer a present day political focus into one of the most crucial themes of contemporary society This book is of interest to an interdisciplinary audience including political theory post colonial studies subaltern studies comparative political philosophy Dalit studies cultural studies South Asian studies and the study of religions Marx, Marxism and the Spiritual Anjan Chakrabarti, Anup Dhar, Serap A. Kayatekin, 2020-09-10 While Marxian theory has produced a sound and rigorous critique of capitalism has it faltered in its own practice of social transformation Has it faltered because of the Marxian insistence on the hyper secularization of political cultures The history of religions with the exception of some spiritual traditions has not been any less heartless and soulless This book sets up a much needed dialogue between a rethought Marxian praxis of the political and a rethought experience of spirituality Such rethinking within Marxism and spirituality and a resetting of their lost relationship is perhaps the only hope for a non violent future of both the Marxian reconstruction of the self and the social as also faith based life practices Building on past work in critical theory this book offers a new take on the relationship between a rethought Marxism and a rethought spirituality rethought in the life philosophy and works of Christian thinkers anti Christian thinkers Marxian thinkers those critical of Marxist Statecraft Dalit neo Buddhist thinkers thinkers drawing from Judaism as well as thinkers drawing critically from Christianity Contrary to popular belief this book does not see spirituality as a derivative of only religion This book also sees spirituality as what Marx designated the sigh of the oppressed against both social and religious orthodoxy In that sense spirituality is not just a displaced form of religion it is a displaced form of the political too This book therefore sets up the much needed dialogue between the Marxian political and the spiritual traditions The chapters in this book were originally published in Rethinking Marxism A Journal of Economics Culture and Society Overtly Muslim, Covertly Boni Mark R.J. Faulkner,2006-05-01 This volume explores the way of life of the Boni community a hunter gatherer people that straddle the Kenya Somali border in East Africa The Boni converted to Islam some fifty years ago and the reasons for this both internal and external to the community are identified The book argues that former indigenous religious activity far from having died out is now being renegotiated so as to reflect an evolving Boni self identity in a multi ethnic setting as well as allowing the fermentation of resistance in the face of attempts at cultural hegemony advanced by outside forces Employing a phenomenological approach and a methodology based on participant observation this volume identifies three contrasting spheres of religious activity the bush the village centre and individual homesteads Intercultural Theology Mark J. Cartledge,David Cheetham,2010-11-01 A groundbreaking and trendsetting collection of essays introducing a new interdisciplinary area of theological studies Usable as a key text for modules in intercultural theology mission studies Black Theology and Pentecostal Studies at upper undergraduate and M level The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume Rethinking Gramsci Marcus Green,2011-03-30 This edited volume provides a coherent and comprehensive assessment of Antonio Gramsci s significant contribution to the fields of political and cultural theory It contains seminal contributions from a broad range of important political and cultural theorists from around the world and explains the origins development and context for Gramsci s thought as well as analysing his continued relevance and influence to contemporary debates It demonstrates the multidisciplinary nature of Gramscian thought to produce new insights into the intersection of economic political cultural and social processes and to create a vital resource for readers across the disciplines of political theory cultural studies political economy philosophy and subaltern studies

Climate Change and Gendered Livelihoods in Bangladesh Sajal Roy,2021-11-07 Globally climate induced disasters have been impacting marginalised communities lives livelihood and gendered relations This book explores the effects of Cyclone Aila as a result of climate change in 2009 on the rural livelihoods and gendered relations of two ethnically distinct forest communities Munda an indigenous group and Shora a Muslim group dwelling near the Sundarbans Forest in Bangladesh Examining the cyclone s medium to long term impacts on livelihoods and comparative aspects of gendered relations between these two contrasting communities this book addresses a gap in current critical development studies It adopts an ethnographic research design and analyses the alterations to livelihood activities and reconfiguration of gender relations within the Munda and Shora communities since 2009 The study primarily contends that post Aila livelihoods and gendered relations have been substantially transformed in both communities making the case that the improvement of local infrastructure as an important part of the geographical location has noticeably progressed the living conditions and livelihoods of some members of the Munda and Shora communities Connecting climate induced changes with the construction and alteration of gendered livelihood patterns the book will be of interest to a wide range of academics in the fields of Asian Studies Sociology of Environment Social Anthropology Human Geography Gender and Cultural Studies Human Geography Disaster Management and Forestry and Environmental Science South Asia in World Politics Devin T. Hagerty, 2005-03-11 South Asia in World Politics offers a comprehensive introduction to the politics and international relations of South Asia a key area encompassing the states of Afghanistan Bangladesh Bhutan India the Maldives Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka While U S interest has long been sporadic and reactive 9 11 alerted Washington that paying only fitful attention to one of the world s most volatile and populous regions was a recipe for everyday instability repeated international crises major and minor wars and conditions so chronically unsettled that they continue to provide a fertile breeding ground for transnational Islamic terrorism Exploring the many facets of this dynamic region the book also assesses U S policy toward Afghanistan and explains the importance of Bangladesh and Pakistan two of only a handful of Islamic states with significant track records as democracies Mangrove Tiger Jayanta Kumar Mallick, 2023-11-25 This book contains well researched literature review field surveys and personal experience on the origin and adaptation of Bengal tiger Panthera tigris tigris the only large carnivore species inhabiting the mangrove forests across the world The Bengal tiger population in this mangrove habitat is isolated from other mainland populations and exhibits certain distinctive morphological adaptations Unlike the mainlanders these islanders are much smaller suggesting insular dwarfism more muscular with leaner frame and lesser body mass 100 kg The stress factor associated with changes in their natural habitat and the availability of the smaller prey species is often related to such phenomenon Apart from the long stretch swimming the tiger has adapted to changed food habits and become omnivore Loss and degradation of the mangrove habitat has caused severe decline of the tiger population Tiger conservation within and beyond the protected areas is based on the ethical issues biodiversity aesthetic values and integrity as well as management of the mangrove ecosystem challenged by development works and anthropogenic activities A published book highlighting the updated information on the migratory behaviour morphological and behavioural adaptations of the Bengal tiger in the mangrove eco system is not readily available This monograph is ideal for researchers postgraduate and graduate students in zoology botany ecology and conservation This comprehensive treatise will also serve professionals such as foresters environmentalists conservationists resource managers planners government agencies academic institutions NGOs and naturalists
