Rising Of The Women Feminist Solidarity And Class Conflict 1880 1917:

Rising of the Women Meredith Tax,1980-01-01 The Rising of the Women Meredith Tax,2022-04-05 How working class socialist women changed the course of American history with a foreword by labor journalist Sarah Jaffe In this landmark study Meredith Tax charts the actions of women in working class feminist and socialist movements during the first upsurge of the American labor movement From the pioneering efforts of Chicago women in the 1880s to the unprecedented New York City shirtwaist strike in 1909 to the 1912 bread and roses strike of immigrant textile workers in Lawrence Massachusetts and from the Socialist Party to the Industrial Workers of the World Tax gives us a rich narrative of women workers struggles Caught between the hostility of male trade unionists the sexism of male socialist organizers and the assumptions of middle class feminists women workers forged their own demands for economic and political justice In doing so Tax argues a unique form of socialist feminist class consciousness was created whose ripples touched the suffrage movement First published in 1980 The Rising of the Women is a classic of feminist labor history presented here with a new introduction by the author and a new foreword by Sarah Jaffe Labor Histories Eric Arnesen,Julie Greene,Bruce Laurie,2022-10-17 Is class outmoded as a basis for understanding labor history This collection emphatically answers No These thirteen essays delve into subjects like migrant labor religion ethnicity agricultural history and gender Written by former students of preeminent labor figure and historian David Montgomery the works advance the argument that class remains indispensable to the study of working Americans and their place in the broad drama of our shared national history

The Personal and the Political in American Working-Class Literature, 1850-1939 Laurie J. C. Cella,2019-09-06 As working women invaded the public space of the factory in the nineteenth century they challenged Victorian notions of female domesticity and chastity With virtue at the forefront of discussions regarding working women aspects of working class women s culture fashion fiction and dance halls become vivid signifiers for moral impropriety and attempts to censure these activities become overt attempts to censure female sexuality in the workplace The Personal and the Political in American Working Class Literature 1850 1939 argues that these informal and often ignored trifles of female community provided the building blocks for female solidarity in the workplace While most critical approaches to working class fiction emphasize female suffering rather than agency this book argues that working women themselves viewed aspects of consumer culture and new avenues for courtship as extensions of their rights as breadwinners The strike itself is an intense moment of political upheaval that lends itself to more extensive personal and sexual freedoms Through its analysis of strike novels this book provides a fuller picture of working class women as they simultaneously navigate new identities as working ladies and enter the dramatic and sometimes violent world of labor activism This book is recommended for scholars of literary studies women s studies and US history Gender and Class in the Egyptian Women's Movement, 1925-1939 Cathlyn

Mariscotti,2022-09-01 The women s movement in Egypt has been heralded as improving the lives of women in Egypt and paving the way for women throughout the Arab world As seen through the eyes of the university educated elite and middle class this is no doubt true yet such a narrow view fails to account for the diversity of women s experience In Changing Perspectives Cathlyn Mariscotti provides a critical re examination of the women s movement framing it within the broader economic and political movements occurring in Egypt and abroad Her nuanced account unveils a rich differentiated and complex history of Egyptian women Drawing upon published journal reports and newspaper articles Mariscotti explores the tensions between upper class harem women and lower class women Rather than a unified movement the author describes the way in which elite feminism created a concept of womanhood that fed into the nationalist cultural ideal one that was not necessarily progressive for all Egyptian women Demonstrating active resistance the non elite women constructed a model of feminism in line with their own class position and political interests Mariscotti s reveals the tension in the movement through the profiles of From this class struggle a unique synthesized form of feminism emerged infused with the politics and culture of Egypt at that time Humanizing her analysis the author profiles two outspoken and prominent women who symbolize the conflict the university educated and wealthy Huda Sha rawi and Munira Thabit who represented the working class women The first book to emphasize the class conflict among women this book makes an invaluable contribution to the fields of women s studies and Middle East studies

Women, Labor Segmentation and Regulation David Peetz, Georgina Murray, 2017-04-17 This book re shapes thinking on gender gaps differences between men and women in their incomes their employment and their conditions of work It shows how the interaction between regulation distance and content labor segmentation and norms helps us understand various aspects of gender gaps It brings together leading authors from industrial relations sociology politics and feminist economics who outline the roles the family state public policy trade unions and class play in creating gender gaps and consider the lessons from international comparisons While many studies have focused on the role of society or organizations this book also pays attention to the role of occupations in promoting and reinforcing gender gaps discussing groups such as apparel outworkers film and video workers care workers public sector professionals like librarians chief executives academics and coal miners This book will be of interest to practitioners policy makers academics and students interested in understanding why inequality between men and women persists today and what might be done about it

Inez Linda J. Lumsden, 2004-07-08 Inez Milholland was the most glamorous suffragist of the 1910s and a fearless crusader for women s rights Moving in radical circles she agitated for social change in the prewar years and she epitomized the independent New Woman of the time Her death at age 30 while stumping for suffrage in California in 1916 made her the sole martyr of the American suffrage movement Her death helped inspire two years of militant protests by the National Woman s Party including the picketing of the White House which led in 1920 to ratification of the 19th Amendment granting women the right to vote Lumsden s study of this colorful and influential figure restores to history an important link between the homebound women of the 19th century and the iconoclastic feminists of the 1970s Common
