Ritual Art History A Theoretical Art Historical Study:

Images and Objects in Ritual Practices in Medieval and Early Modern Northern and Central Europe Krista Kodres, Anu Mänd, 2014-07-18 This multidisciplinary collection of essays explores the functions meanings and use of images and objects in various late Medieval and Early Modern social practices which were linked by their ritual character The book approaches ritual as an action which is discussed under the general umbrella term performative practice and is characterised by a synthesis between the repetitive and the extraordinary that carries an intense symbolic meaning and is emotionally charged Images spaces and rituals were closely interconnected in both the religious and the secular spheres and played a relevant role in the symbolic communication of the time The essays in this volume are devoted to a complex study of these phenomena in Northern and Central Europe including regions which due to linguistic or cultural barriers have thus far received comparatively little attention in Anglo American scholarship including Scandinavia Poland and the Baltic states Theory

for Art History Jae Emerling, 2019-06-06 Theory for Art History provides a concise and clear introduction to key contemporary theorists including their lives major works and transformative ideas Written to reveal the vital connections between art history aesthetics and contemporary philosophy this expanded second edition presents new ways for rethinking the methodologies and theories of art and art history The book comprises a complete revision of each theorist updated and trustworthy bibliographies on each an informative introduction about the reception of critical theory within art history and a beautifully written original essay on the state of art history and theory that serves as an afterword From Marx to Deleuze from Arendt to Rancière Theory for Art History is designed for use by undergraduate students in courses on the theory and methodology of art history graduate students seeking an introduction to critical theory that will prepare them to engage the primary sources and advanced scholars in art history and visual culture studies who are themselves interested in how these perspectives inflect art historical practice Adapted from Theory for Religious Studies by William E Deal and Timothy K Beal

History of Art Marcia Pointon, 2013-09-13 History of Art covers training and vocational aspects of Art History providing a wealth of information on the different kinds of courses available on the relationship between for example museum and gallery work and academic Art History The Art of Art History Donald Preziosi, 2009 This anthology is a guide to understanding art history through critical reading of the field's most innovative and influential texts focusing on the past two centuries

Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies Theory for Religious Studies William E. Deal, Timothy K. Beal, 2004-11-01 In this handy volume two professors of religious studies provide the student of religious studies whether the motivated undergraduate graduate student or professor with a brief review of theorists work from the perspective of religious studies For example in 5 10 pages the reader will get a review of Emmanuel Levinas s work as it offers insights for scholars in religious studies followed by a selected bibliography In short this is a guide for students of religious studies that will take major theoretical writers in the humanities and social sciences and explain their relevance to the study of religion

Archaeological Method and Theory Linda Ellis, 2003-12-16 This Encyclopedia brings together the most recent scientific information on a collection of subjects that are too often and inconveniently treated in separate publications It provides a survey of archaeological method and theory as well as the application of physical and biological sciences in archaeological research Every aspect of archaeological work is represented from the discovery process to the ultimate disposition of materials Thus the reader will find entries on subject matter covering disciplinary theory legislation affecting the work of archaeologists pre excavation surveying excavation methodology on site conservation techniques post excavation analysis The rapid evolution of analytical technology is often superficially treated or not covered at all in textbooks or other commonly available sources Here the latest refinements in techniques such as radiometric dating stable isotopic analysis and the PCR technique of DNA analysis are presented clearly and authoritatively The discussion of these techniques is amplified by including results of the work of professionals conducting interdisciplinary research and by covering the methodological enhancements provided by the physical and natural sciences Cultural property legislation regardless of its country of origin has affected how archaeologists conduct their work This encyclopedia covers all major U S legislation developed for the protection of cultural property including the recent Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act and offers a substantial article on worldwide legislation concerning the reburial of human remains and its effects on the present and future practice of archaeology Without some sort of conservation program at the point of excavation valuable materials may be inadvertently contaminated or destroyed Many simple and low cost techniques to promote both sample integrity and long term preservation for major classes of materials are described in this volume Traditional treatments of method and theory usually focus on prehistoric periods and are limited in their geographic range This volume includes discussions based on various historical periods on different continents as reflected in entries such as Historical Archaeology Industrial Archaeology Medieval Archaeology and Classical Archaeology Religion and the Arts: History and Method Diane Apostolos-Cappadona, 2017-11-06 In Religion and the Arts History and Method Diane Apostolos Cappadona presents an overview of the 19th century origins of this discrete field of study and its methodological journey to the present day through issues of repatriation museum exhibitions and globalization Apostolos Cappadona suggests that the fluidity and flexibility of the study of religion and the arts has expanded like an umbrella since the 1970s and the understanding that art was simply a visual exegesis of texts to now support the study of material popular and visual culture as well as gender She also delivers a careful analysis of the evolution of thought from traditional iconographies to the transformations once scholars were influenced by response theory and challenged by globalization and technology Religion and the Arts History and Method offers an indispensable introduction to the questions and perspectives essential to the study of this field The International Encyclopedia of Communication Theory and Philosophy, 4 Volume Set Klaus Bruhn Jensen, Robert T. Craig, Jefferson D. Pooley, Eric W. Rothenbuhler, 2016-10-31 The International Encyclopedia of Communication Theory and Philosophy is the definitive single source reference work on the subject with state of the art and in depth scholarly reflection on key issues from leading international experts It is available both online and in print A state of the art and in depth scholarly reflection on the key issues raised by communication covering the history systematics and practical potential of communication theory Articles by leading experts offer an unprecedented level of accuracy and balance Provides comprehensive clear entries which are both cross national and cross disciplinary in nature The Encyclopedia presents a truly international perspective with authors and positions representing not just Europe and North America but also Latin America and Asia Published both online and in print Part of The Wiley Blackwell ICA International Encyclopedias of Communication series published in conjunction with the International Communication Association Online version available at www.wileyicaencyclopedia.com Ficino and Fantasy Marieke J.E. van den Doel, 2021-12-13 Did the Florentine philosopher Marsilio Ficino 1433-99 influence the art of his time Art historians have been fiercely debating this question for decades This book starts with Ficino's views on the imagination as a faculty of the soul and shows how these ideas were part of a long philosophical tradition and inspired fresh insights This approach combined with little known historical material offers a new understanding of whether how and why Ficino's Platonic conceptions of the imagination may have been received in the art of the Italian Renaissance The discussion explores Ficino's possible influence on the work of Botticelli and Michelangelo and examines the appropriation of Ficino's ideas by early modern art theorists
