Merton's writings and unravels the intertwining threads of self realization and widening intellectual interests evidenced in the material he produced between his early autobiography and the controversial work of his later years Elena Malits shows Merton as writer as monk as social critic as seeker of wisdom in the East as man of prayer and as one continually on a journey into the unknown Merton always held that the quest for God is a continuing one The Solitary Explorer traces the progress of this quest in Merton's life and literary works to reveal a multifaceted spiritual guide who offers an approach to the divine at once reassuringly traditional and refreshingly contemporary Dante and His Circle Julia Bolton

readers on the art of architecture It is a collection of essays written by educators and literary critics about how architecture is presented in 28 selected literary works of fiction These selected works which include well known works such as Hugo s Hunchback of Notre Dame Kafka s The Castle Swift s Gulliver s Travels Tolkien s The Lord of the Rings Carroll s Alice in Wonderland Fitzgerald s The Great Gatsby among many others collectively attempt to illustrate facets of human life in a lucidly expressive way while also having an architectural background added in the narrative Each essay is unique and brings a diverse range of perspectives on the main theme while also touching on some niche topics in this area such as spatial analysis urban transformation and time period settings all of which have exploratory potential With this collection the contributors aspire to initiate the transformation of architectural education by including a blend of literary criticism By building a foundation of architectural aesthetics they hope to bridge the gap between the artist and the architect while also inspiring a new generation of urban planners landscape artists and interior designers to consider past works when designing living spaces Architecture in Fictional Literature is also essential to any enthusiast of fictional works who wants to understand the fictional portrayal of living spaces and architecture in literature

Beneath the Mask of Holiness Mark Shaw, 2024-03-26. Spiritual writer Thomas Merton is the most influential American Catholic author of the twentieth century. Despite appearances to the contrary, in 1966 he was a troubled, lonely monk. Only when the suffering Merton fell madly in love with a student nurse, a forbidden erotic affair condemned by the Catholic Church, would he discover whether his devotion to God was stronger than his dedication to the woman he called a miracle in his life. Truly an inspirational story based on Merton's personal journals, new information and sources such as fellow monks, Beneath the Mask of Holiness presents a unique portrayal of the famous man one never revealed in its entirety before.
