V. Palmer,2011-03-04 Using crucial chapters from Paul s magnum opus as points of theological departure Delano Palmer provides in depth discussion on important themes like the role of first century women in pastoral work and the nature and duration of spiritual endowments Romans in Context is divided into three parts Part one reviews the career and legacy of the apostle Paul against the backdrop of his cultural milieu and history Part two takes up the knotty problem of what exactly does the apostle mean by justification by faith in its exploration of the declarative demonstrative proposal of modern theologians The section also explores what Paul has to say concerning the status of the

justified in Romans 5:8. It is the final section that wrestles with matters of spiritual gifts, the role of female pastors as well as the apostle's best documented thoughts on Christian mission. Journal of Hispanic/Latino Theology, 1999 African Women's Liberating Philosophies, Theologies, and Ethics Beatrice Okyere-Manu, Léocadie Lushombo, 2024-05-02 This volume explores the ethical and philosophical paradigms presented by most of the influential Matriarchs of the Circle of African Women Theologians. It critically evaluates the effectiveness of their ethical and philosophical theories, models and frameworks in pursuing justice and liberation for women in Africa and globally. The authors address critical questions: How have African women theologians reimagined existing ethical paradigms? What original ethical and philosophical ideas have they generated? How have their ethical frameworks influenced the theologies and interpretations they have developed? What purposes do their ethical and philosophical paradigms serve? How do these renderings intersect with various social categories including gender, race, class, sexuality, capitalism and colonialism? What liberating frameworks do they propose? The volume further explores the dialogue between distinct African contexts and universal experiences and values. It explores how universal themes such as humanity, human dignity, rights, justice, motherhood and more can coexist with communal African concepts and themes. It contemplates how embracing African approaches engages these themes more globally, bringing together particular African contexts of women and the universal ethical, philosophical and theological theories, models and frameworks to advance the cause of justice and liberation for African women and women worldwide into the future. Indecent Theology Marcella Althaus-Reid, 2002-09-11 Indecent Theology brings liberation theology up to date by introducing the radical critical approaches of gender, postcolonial and queer theory. Grounded in actual examples from Latin America, Marcella Althaus-Reid's highly provocative but immaculately researched book reworks three distinct areas of theology: sexual, political and systematic. It exposes the connections between theology, sexuality and politics whilst initiating a dramatic sexual rereading of systematic theology. Groundbreaking, intriguing and scholarly, Indecent Theology broadens the debate on sexuality and theology as never before. Mother Earth, Mother Africa and Biblical Studies Berman, Sidney K., Leshota, Paul L., Dunbar, Ericka S., Dube, Musa W., 2021-07-14 Power and Responsibility in Biblical Interpretation Alissa Jones Nelson, 2014-10-14 Power and Responsibility in Biblical Interpretation addresses the interpretive challenges now facing much biblical interpretation. Incorporating the methodologies of poststructuralism, postcolonialism and liberation theology, the study presents a possible methodology which integrates scholarly and vernacular hermeneutics. The approach is based on the theories of Edward Said, adapting his concept of contrapuntal reading to the interpretation of Job. The book sets this study in the broader context of a survey of current work in the field. The analysis of Job examines the possibilities for dialogue between those interpretations that view suffering as a key theme in the book and those that do not. Interpretations of the Book of Job are then compared to the psychology of suffering as experienced in various contexts today. The conclusion argues for pedagogical reform based upon the ethical and interpretive insights of contrapuntal hermeneutics. Reinventing
