Ritual Masks Deceptions And Revelations:

Ritual Masks Henry Pernet,2006-03-01 Ritual masking is an important institution in many traditional societies and has attracted much attention from Western scholars In Ritual Masks Pernet provides a thorough survey of masks and masking traditions in Africa Oceania and the Americas based on a close analysis of the literature in several languages Pernet s approach provides him with an opportunity to examine issues of importance to the history of religion and anthropology These include the influence of theory on the interpretation of prehistoric documents androcentrism in anthropology and the history of religions and Western scholarship s recurrent problems in interpreting preliterate or traditional societies Ritual, Play, and Belief in Evolution and Early Human Societies Colin Renfrew,Iain Morley,Michael Boyd,2018 This book presents unique new insights into the development of human ritual and society through our heritage of play and performance African Masks and Emotions Z. S. Strother,2025-12-23 In this groundbreaking book Z S Strother inspired by dialogues with African masquerade patrons and performers disputes assumptions that masks universally hide reveal or transform In Western European languages the word mask exerts a powerful presence as a figure of speech To masquerade is to pretend to be someone or something one is not By extension unmasking is a heroic metaphor for exposing a hidden truth In this volume art historian Z S Strother counters that narrative using African case studies to offer an alternative vision of masquerading She explores the aesthetic emotions aroused by masks or more precisely by dances of masks joy wonder awe fear and the release of laughing out loud She also investigates the uncanny a sensation of delicious shiveriness triggered when familiar spaces and individuals become strange and changeable Inspired by Strother s studies in DR Congo African Masks and Emotions takes a comparative perspective and moves emotion from the periphery to the center of analysis Mask Makers and Their Craft Deborah Bell,2014-01-10 Profiling 30 mask makers from around the world this book explores the motivations and challenges of contemporary artists working to bring the traditional methods and conventions of mask making to an evolving global theatre There are 181 photographs including two sections of color plates which illustrate how the mythic iconography of masks is used in the modern fields of dance mime theatre and storytelling Topics include the ways in which mask artists and performers maintain a sense of universality despite varying local customs the legacies of Italian mask makers Amleto and Donato Sartori and of the California based Dell Arte International School of Physical Theatre and the ways in which traditional approaches in mask artistry continue to influence commercial mask performance ventures in film on Broadway and in touring companies Elgar Encyclopedia of Political Anthropology Arpad Szakolczai,Paul O'Connor,2025-09-10 This Encyclopedia explores the anthropological underpinnings of politics Featuring biographical entries that reconstruct the life works of key theorists from across the globe alongside topical entries on a range of issues in political anthropology it poses the question what does it mean to be human in contemporary times Masks T. H. M. Gellar-Goad,2024 The Old Testament in Theology and Teaching Teresa Chai,Dave Johnson,2018-03-23 APTS Press is privileged to offer this festchrift honoring Dr Kay Fountain who for more than twenty years has served the Lord at the Asia Pacific Theological Seminary APTS in Baguio City Philippines first as a student then as a faculty member and finally as the Academic Dean Our hope is that this book will reflect her passion for teaching and understanding the Old Testament which has instilled in her students that kind of passion for the ministry as well From the Foreword Theatrical Costume, Masks, Make-Up and Wigs Sidney Jackson Jowers, 2013-10-15 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company

Forms of Practitioner Reflexivity Hilary Brown, Richard D. Sawyer, Joe Norris, 2016-09-07 This edited volume addresses the different methods professionals use to promote a critical reflective and reflexive stance among practitioners leading to both a reconceptualization of practice and its subsequent change The goal of increased reflection in professional education is intended to expand approaches for professionals to work with diverse others It is also intended to increase their levels of cognitive differentiation and depth of professional consciousness about themselves alongside diverse others in a rapidly changing world This is an important issue in a range of applied professional programs from education to medicine social work to psychology business to criminal justice in nearly every country in the world Subversive Seduction Travis Landry, 2013-01-10 Male male rivalry and female passive choice the two principal tenets of Darwinian sexual selection raise important ethical questions in The Descent of Man and in the decades since about the subjugation of women If female choice is a key component of evolutionary success what impact does the constraint of women's choices have on society The elaborate courtship plots of 19th century Spanish novels with their fixation on suitors and selectors rivalry and seduction were attempts to grapple with the question of female agency in a patriarchal society By reading Darwin through the lens of the Spanish realist novel and vice versa Travis Landry brings new insights to our understanding of both while Darwin's theories have often been seen as biologically deterministic Landry asserts that Darwin's theory of sexual selection was characterized by an open ended dynamic whose oxymoronic emphasis on passive female choice carries the potential for revolutionary change in the status of women Art and Religion in Africa Rosalind Hackett, Rosalind I. J.

Hackett, 1998-10-01 Annotation Explores the interactive and interdependent relationship between art and religion in Africa challenging Western perceptions of what is important in the continent's visual and performing arts Case studies and examples reflect the geographical and gendered diversity of the arts and highlight changes imposed by Christianity Islam and the newer religious movements in post colonial Africa Includes b&w photos and illustrations and a few color photos Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Mirrors and Masks in the Roman Empire Shelley Hales, 2025-11-13 This book explores the ways in which masks and mirrors mediated encounters enabled performances and effected visual and social metamorphoses across the Roman empire The complex and multifaceted roles played by masks and mirrors in Roman culture has been the subject of several sophisticated analyses though to date there has been a lack of significant scholarly engagement with geographical context This volume explores the experiences of classical mirror and mask users across the Roman empire from Gaul and Africa to Asia Minor and the Levant It explores how particular themes are instantiated across a range of imperial contexts as well as offering carefully selected case studies for detailed analysis At once confrontational and evasive enabling and terrifying mirrors and masks hold extraordinary resonance as objects images and metaphors As such they had the capacity to mediate encounters enable performances and effect visual and social metamorphoses in myriad different ways throughout the Roman Empire Exploring these contexts can enrich our understanding of the meanings and uses of mirrors and masks in the Roman world not only in isolation in their immediate locations but also in the influence they might have exerted on each other By examining how the populations of empire encountered themselves and each other through these masks and mirrors we can also observe how classical culture allowed communication and miscommunication between these communities Crucially too we can trace how Roman understandings of these objects not only shaped their own attitude to provincial users but have also helped form perceptions that continue to mask those provincial populations today

Religions in Contemporary Africa Laura S. Grillo,Adriaan van Klinken,Hassan Ndzovu,2019-03-28 Religions in Contemporary Africa is an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the three main religious traditions on the African continent African indigenous religions Christianity and Islam The book provides a historical overview of these important traditions and focuses on the roles they play in African societies today It includes social cultural and political case studies from across the continent on the following topical issues Witchcraft and modernity Power and politics Conflict and peace Media and popular culture Development Human rights Illness and health Gender and sexuality With suggestions for further reading discussion questions illustrations and a list of glossary terms this is the ideal textbook for students in religion African studies and adjacent fields approaching this subject area for the first time Thinking through the Body Yannis Hamilakis,Mark Pluciennik,Sarah Tarlow,2012-12-06 This book is based on the Thinking through the Body workshop held at the University of Wales Lampeter in June 1998 We would like to thank the University of Wales Lampeter and in particular the Department of Archaeology for financial and other support the student volunteers for their help in organizing the conference and the participants for co operating in preparing their papers for pre circulation An exhibition of works by contemporary artists dealing with the body was also held in conjunction with the academic conference and contributed greatly to the intellectual aesthetic and social atmosphere We would like to thank all the artists Ron Dukelow and Cambria Arts for agreeing to participate in the workshop and for organizing and mounting the exhibition CONTENTS List of Figures and Tables ix List of Contributors xi Introduction Thinking Through the Body Yannis Hamilakis Mark Pluciennik and Sarah Tarlow 1 Part 1 Bodies Selves and Individuals Introduction Sarah Tarlow 23 1 Archaeology s humanism and the materiality of the body Julian Thomas 29 2 Body Parts personhood and materiality in the earlier Manx neolithic Chris Fowler 47 3 Moralities of dress and the dress of the dead in early medieval Europe Jos Bazelmans 71 4 The aesthetic corpse in nineteenth century Britain Sarah Tarlow 85 Part 2 Experience and Corporeality Introduction Yannis Hamilakis 99 5 Feeling through the body gesture in Cretan Bronze Age Religion Christine Morris and Alan Peatfield 105 6 The past as oral history towards an archaeology of the senses Yannis Hamilakis The Routledge International Handbook to Veils and Veiling Anna-Mari Almila, David Inglis, 2017-07-06 Veils and veiling are controversial topics in social and political life generating debates across the world The veil is enmeshed within a complex web of relations encompassing politics religion and gender and conflicts over the nature of power legitimacy belief freedom agency and emancipation In recent years the veil has become both a potent and unsettling symbol and a rallying point for discourse and rhetoric concerning women Islam and the nature of politics Early studies in gender doctrine and politics of veiling appeared in the 1970s following the Islamic revival and re veiling trends that were dramatically expressed by 1979 s Iranian Islamic revolution In the 1990s research focussed on the development of both an Islamic culture industry and greater urban middle class consumption of Islamic garments and dress styles across the Islamic world In the last decade academics have studied Islamic fashion and marketing the political role of the headscarf the veiling of other religious groups such as Jews and Christians and secular forms of modest dress Using work from contributors across a range of disciplinary backgrounds and locations this book brings together these research strands to form the most comprehensive book ever conceived on this topic As such this handbook will be of interest to scholars and students of fashion gender studies religious studies politics and sociology Playful Performers David Binkley, 2017-07-28 African children develop aesthetic sensibilities at an early age roughly from four to fourteen years By the time they become full fledged adolescents they may have had up to ten years experience with various art forms masking music costuming dancing and performance Aesthetic learning is vital to their maturation The contributors to this volume argue that the idea that learning the aesthetics of a culture only occurs after maturity is false as is the idea that children wearing masks is only play and is not to be taken seriously Playful Performers is a study of children s masquerades in Africa The contributors describe specific cases of young children s masking in the areas of west central and southern Africa which also happen to be the major areas of adult masquerading The volume reveals the considerable creativity and ingenuity that children exhibit in preparing costumes masks and musical instruments and in playing music dancing singing and acting The book includes over 50 pages of black and white photographs which illustrate and elaborate upon the authors main points The editors describe general categories of children s masquerades In each of the three masking categories children s relationships to their parents and other adults differ from a close relationship to some independence to almost complete independence No other major work has covered this aspect of African children at this age level The book offers a challenging perspective on young children seeing them as active agents in their own culture rather than passive recipients of culture as taught by parents and other elders It will be interesting reading for anthropologists art historians educators and African studies specialists alike

Symbolic Objects in Contentious Politics Benjamin Abrams, Peter Robert Gardner, 2023-04-04 When we observe protest marches striking workers on picket lines and insurgent movements in the world today a litany of objects routinely fill our field of vision Some such objects are ubiquitous the world over like flags banners and placards Others are situationally unique Who could have anticipated the historical importance of a flower placed in the barrel of a gun a flaming torch a sea of umbrellas a motorist s yellow vest a feather headdress an AK 47 or a knitted pink hat This book explores the stuff at the heart of protests revolutions civil wars and other contentious political events with particular focus on those objects that have or acquire symbolic importance In the context of contentious politics disruptive political episodes where people try to change societies without going through institutions certain objects can divide and unite social groups tell stories make declarations spark controversy and even trigger violent upheavals This book draws together scholars from a variety of fields to discuss symbolic objects in contentious politics their meanings uses functions and social responses In bringing these phenomena together this book offers a serious distinctive and cohesive theoretical contribution that draws upon diverse scholarly work in order to form the building blocks for future inquiry in the field The aim is not merely to close the gap in the literature but to create space in the field for further and more fruitful inquiry

The Veil Jennifer Heath,2008-07-02 Veiling is a globally polarizing issue a locus for the struggle between Islam and the West and between contemporary and traditional interpretations of Islam This book examines the vastly misunderstood and multi layered world of the veil It explores and analyzes the cultures politics and histories of veiling

African Art and the Colonial Encounter Sidney Littlefield Kasfir,2007-10-24 Focusing on the theme of warriorhood Sidney Littlefield Kasfir weaves a complex history of how colonial influence forever changed artistic practice objects and their meaning Looking at two widely diverse cultures the Idoma in Nigeria and the Samburu in Kenya Kasfir makes a bold statement about the links between colonialism the Europeans image of Africans Africans changing self representation and the impact of global trade on cultural artifacts and the making of art This intriguing history of the interaction between peoples aesthetics morals artistic objects and practices and the global trade in African art challenges current ideas about artistic production and representation
