Memoirs of a Playground Cop Rene Ortega, 2010-12-20 Most students lack any form of discipline or restraint in the classroom Parents condone their childrens behavior School administrators exhibit a god

complex and school police officers are caught in between the web of school politics that often interferes in enforcing the law equally to all Today students adverse behavior in the classroom no longer constitutes a delinquent conduct as per classroom discipline management rules but rather an act that has manifests itself into a criminal offense Students are empowered to act bad when their own parents themselves refuse to correct their childrens maladaptive behavior by blaming others for their short comings And this problem is further exasperated by school administrators who either use a strong arm tactic to curtail the problem or a too soft a hand to make an impression to get a child to exhibit positive behavior in the classroom School administrators have a God complex where they walk around their campus expecting everyone including school police officers to do their bidding School administrators try to instill their own brand of justice by picking and choosing which students are to be charged with a criminal offense while others are allowed to continue their maladaptive behaviors School police officers find themselves in a very precarious situation where they must wear different hats to address different issues that arise in the classroom School police officers are like band aides that are place on a wound it is a cure all fix all approach to making problems go away unfortunately when dealing with the school community school police officers and law enforcement in general cannot use a band aide to make things better as police work in a school setting is a web of complex issues that fosters misunderstanding among members of the school and law enforcement communities
