Robbers In The Theatre:

The Perils of Moviegoing in America Gary D. Rhodes,2012-01-01 Recaptures the lost history of the physical and moral perils that faced audiences at American movie theatres during the first fifty years of the cinema Robbers in the Theatre Carolyn Swift,1984 Thebes Gareth Jandrell,Sophocles,,Aeschylus,2014-02-10 I mean what is Thebes A theocracy No A meritocracy Certainly not A monarchy Kind of A patriarchy Less and less so Thebes is many things and to revolutionise that Well how From Oedipus to Antigone the story of Thebes remains a fascinating exploration of fate morality and chaos two and a half thousand years after the saga was originally written The first domino falls as Oedipus realises he has unwittingly fulfilled a cruel and unusual prophecy As control of Thebes is handed to Creon his sons fight each other for the kingdom and his daughter Antigone is determined to serve the honour of her family to the bitter end This version weaves together Sophocles and Aeschylus to present the full visceral and bloody account of the Oedipus dynasty The Encyclopedia of Romantic Literature, 3 Volume Set Frederick Burwick,Nancy Moore Goslee,Diane Long Hoeveler,2012-01-30 The Encyclopedia of Romantic Literature is an authoritative three volume reference work that covers British artistic literary and intellectual movements between 1780 and 1830 within the context of European transatlantic and colonial historical and cultural interaction Comprises over 275 entries ranging from 1 000 to 6 500 words arranged in A Z format across three fully cross referenced volumes Written by an international cast of leading and emerging scholars Entries explore genre development in prose poetry and drama of the Romantic period key authors and their works and key themes Also available online as part of the Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Literature providing 24 7 access and powerful searching browsing and cross referencing capabilities The New York State Exhibitor ... ,1928 The Play Goer and Theatrical Recorder ,1857 Motion Picture Herald ,1927 A History of the American Drama Arthur Hobson Quinn,1923 African Theatre Martin Banham,James Morel Gibbs,James Gibbs,Femi Osofisan,2001 This second annual volume in the African Theatre series focuses on the intersection of politics and theatre in Africa today Topics include the remarkable collaboration between Horse and Bamboo a puppet theatre company based in the United Kingdom and Nigerian playwright Sam Ukala that was inspired by the infamous execution of Nigerian playwright Ken Saro Wiwa and other Ogoni activists the plays of Femi Osofisan and plays by Ghanaian playwrights Joe de Graft and Mohammed Ben Abdallah African Theatre features the work of Mauritian playwright Dev Virahsawmy and includes an interview with him reviews of an English production of his play Toufann as well as the translated playscript Reports of workshops and conferences reviews and news of the year in African theatre make this volume a valuable resource for anyone interested in current issues in African drama and performance Dramaturgies of War Anselm Heinrich,Ann-Christine Simke,2023-12-01 This book examines the institutional contexts of dramaturgical practices in the changing political landscape of 20th century Germany Through wide ranging case studies it discusses the way in which operationalised modes of action legal frameworks and an established profession have shaped dramaturgical practice and thus links to current debates around the institutional turn in theatre and performance studies German theatre represents a rich and well chosen field as it is here where the role of the dramaturg was first created and where dramaturgy played a significantly politicised role in the changing political systems of the 20th century The volume represents an important addition to a growing field of work on dramaturgy by contributing to a historical contextualisation of current practice In doing so it understands dramaturgy not only as a process which occurs in rehearsal rooms and writers studies but one that has far wider institutional and political implications

Theatre and Postcolonial Desires Awam Amkpa, 2004-06 This book explores the themes of colonial encounters and postcolonial contests over identity power and culture through the prism of theatre The struggles it describes unfolded in two cultural settings separated by geography but bound by history in a common web of colonial relations spun by the imperatives of European modernity In post imperial England as in its former colony Nigeria the colonial experience not only hybridized the process of national self definition but also provided dramatists with the language imagery and frame of reference to narrate the dynamics of internal wars over culture and national destiny happening within their own societies The author examines the works of prominent twentieth century Nigerian and English dramatists such as Wole Soyinka Femi Osofisan David Edgar and Caryl Churchill to argue that dramaturgies of resistance in the contexts of both Nigerian as well as its imperial inventor England shared a common allegiance to what he describes as postcolonial desires That is the aspiration to overcome the legacies of colonialism by imagining alternative universes anchored in democratic cultural pluralism The plays and their histories serve as filters through which Amkpa illustrates the operation of what he calls overlapping modernities and reconfigures the notions of power and representation citizenship and subjectivity colonial and anticolonial nationalisms and postcoloniality The dramatic works studied in this book embodied a version of postcolonial aspirations that the author conceptualises as transcending temporal locations to encompass varied moments of consciousness for progressive change whether they happened during the hey day of English imperialism in early twentieth century Nigeria or in response to the exclusionary politics of the Conservative Party in Thatcherite England

Theatre and Postcolonial Desires will be essential reading for students and researchers in the areas of drama postcolonial and cultural studies
