Robert Frank Robert Frank, Anne Tucker, Philip Brookman, Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, 1986 ROBERT FRANK, 1986 Robert Frank, New York to Nova Scotia Brookman, Philip, Frank, Robert, Tucker, Anne, Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, 2005 Robert Frank , Feast of Excess George Cotkin, 2016 Feast of Excess is an engaging and accessible portrait of The New Sensibility as it was named by Susan Sontag in 1965 The New Sensibility sought to push culture in extreme directions either towards stark minimalism or gaudy maximalism Through vignette profiles of prominent figures John Cage Patricia Highsmith Allen Ginsberg Andy Warhol Anne Sexton John Coltrane Bob Dylan Erica Jong and Thomas Pynchon to name a few George Cotkin presents their bold headline grabbing performances and places them within the historical moment Awakening the Eye George Kouvaros, 2015-09-01 Until now celebrated photographer Robert Frank's daring and unconventional work as a filmmaker has not been awarded the critical notice it deserves In this timely volume George Kouvaros surveys Frank's films and videos and places them in the larger context of experimentation in American art and literature since World War II Born in 1924 Frank emigrated from Switzerland to the United States in 1947 and quickly made his mark as a photojournalist A 1955 Guggenheim Foundation fellowship allowed him to travel across the country photographing aspects of American life that had previously received little attention The resulting book The Americans with an Introduction by Jack Kerouac is generally considered a landmark in the history of postwar photography During the same period Frank befriended other artists and writers among them Allen Ginsberg Peter Orlovsky and Gregory Corso all of whom are featured in his first film Pull My Daisy which is narrated by Kerouac This film set the terms for a new era of experimental filmmaking By examining Frank's films and videos including Pull My Daisy Me and My Brother and Cocksucker Blues in the framework of his more widely recognized photographic achievements Kouvaros develops a model of cross media history in which photography film and video are complicit in the search for fresh forms of visual expression Awakening the Eye is an insightful compelling and at times moving account of Frank's determination to forge a personal connection between the circumstances of his life and the media in which he works The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate

section A useful glossary of terms is also included Photography and Jewish History Amos Morris-Reich, 2022-11-15 It is a sign of the accepted evidentiary status of photographs that historians regularly append them to their accounts Amos Morris Reich observes Very often however these photographs are treated as mere illustrations simple documentations of the events that transpired Scholars of photography on the other hand tend to prioritize the photographs themselves relegating the historical contexts to the background For Morris Reich however photography exists within reality it partakes in and is very much a component of the history it records Morris Reich examines how photography affects categories of history and experience how it is influenced by them and the ways in which our understanding of the relationship between history and photography can be theorized and reoriented Morris Reich here turns to five twentieth century cases in which photography and Jewish history intersect Albert Kahn s utopian attempt to establish a photographic archive in Paris in order to advance world peace the spectacular failed project of Helmar Lerski the most prominent photographer in British Mandate Jewish Palestine photography in the long career of Eugen Fischer a Nazi professor of genetics the street photography of Robert Frank and the first attempt to introduce photography into the study of Russian Jewry prior to World War I as seen from the post Holocaust perspective of the early twenty first century Illustrated with nearly 100 images Photography and Jewish History moves beyond a focus on Jewish photographers or the photographic representation of Jews or Jewish visibility to plumb the deeper and more significant registers of twentieth century Jewish political history Deliberate Speed W. Existential America George Cotkin, 2003 As Cotkin shows not only did Americans readily take to existentialism but they were already heirs to a rich tradition of thinkers from Jonathan Edwards and Herman Melville to Emily Dickinson and William James who had wrestled with the problems of existence and the contingency of the world long before Sartre and his colleagues After introducing the concept of an American existential tradition Cotkin examines how formal existentialism first arrived in America in the 1930s through discussion of Kierkegaard and the early vogue among New York intellectuals for the works of Sartre Beauvoir and Camus Eye of the Sixties Judith E.
