Romancing The Globe:

Telenovelas Ilan Stavans, 2010-02-09 Drama Excess Men in bee suits Often erroneously compared to soap operas of the United States outside of the necessary and sometimes fantastical dramatic story arc however the telenovela differs greatly from U S soap operas and have regional and cultural distinctions throughout Latin America In Telenovelas Ilan Stavans has gathered over two dozen essays covering the telenovela for readers to better understand the phenomenon and its myriad layers Branching off from radionovelas the telenovela was exported from pre Castro Cuba during the 1950s The essays found in Telenovelas covers a broad view of the genre television s impact in Latino culture as well as more in depth discussions of specific telenovelas throughout the Spanish speaking television audience in the North America Also explored is how telenovelas depict stereotypes respond to gender and class roles and examines the differences in topic and thematic choices as well as production values unique to each country Copyright's Arc Martin Skladany, 2020-09-03 Copyright is not one size fits all Skladany argues that copyright law should instead vary according to a country s development status

Romancing the globe Dan Harrison, 1993 Latin American Development Julie Cupples, 2013-07-18 Latin America s diverse political and economic struggles and triumphs have captured the global imagination The region has been a site of brutal dictators revolutionary heroes the Cold War struggle and as a place in which the global debt crisis has had some of its most lasting and devastating impacts Latin America continues to undergo rapid transformation demonstrating both inspirational change and frustrating continuities This text provides a comprehensive introduction to Latin American development in the twenty first century emphasizing political economic social cultural and environmental dimensions of development It considers key challenges facing the region and the diverse ways in which its people are responding as well as providing analysis of the ways in which such challenges and responses can be theorized This book also explores the region s historical trajectory the implementation and rejection of the neoliberal model and the role played by diverse social movements Relations of gender class and race are considered as well as the ways in which media and popular culture are forging new global imaginaries of the continent The text also considers the increasing difficulties that Latin America faces in confronting climate change and environmental degradation This accessible text gives an overarching historical and geographical analysis of the region and critical analysis of recent developments It is accompanied by a diverse range of critical historical and contemporary case studies from all parts of the continent providing readers with the conceptual tools required to analyse theories on Latin American development Each chapter ends with a summary section discussion topics suggestions for further reading websites and media resources This is an indispensable resource for scholars students and practitioners Get in the Go Dr. Gwyneth Williams, 2011-09-26 The Kingdom of God has been the talk of the world since John the Baptist arrived on the scene to prepare the way for the Messiah After the baptism of Christ Jesus continued the message of John Repent for the Kingdom of Heaven is near Moves of God throughout history have begun with this message

Jesus taught His disciples to pray Thy kingdom come thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven Whatever occurs on earth happens as a result of prayer and takes place in heaven first Heaven wants revival heaven desires miracles and we are the vehicles through which His Spirit works It is going to take people who carry great vision and passion for us to establish kingdom power and authority in our generation The power and purpose of God has never changed nor has His strength weakened Every generation has relied on men and women of God to make visible the invisible presence of God through signs wonders and miracles The same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead is awaiting vessels people who will represent His cause to a searching world We have to go no further than our backyards to find a field awaiting harvest The marketplace is clamoring for success with meaning eternal meaning Neighborhoods are flourishing with young minds looking for leadership and nations are longing for a message of hope This is our generation and the command to Go remains the same We go in the name that is above all names Jesus The foundation for all that we do must be love The apostle Paul admonishes us by saying For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love Galatians 5:6 NIV Let our expression and our message be saturated with love Love covers over a multitude of sins 1 Peter 4:8b NIV Love never fails 1 Corinthians 13:8a NIV

Globalized Arts

J. P. Singh, 2014-02-01 The spread of Islam around the globe has blurred the connection between a religion a specific society and a territory One third of the world's Muslims now live as members of a minority At the heart of this development is on the one hand the voluntary settlement of Muslims in Western societies and on the other the pervasiveness and influence of Western cultural models and social norms The revival of Islam among Muslim populations in the last twenty years is often wrongly perceived as a backlash against westernization rather than as one of its consequences Neofundamentalism has been gaining ground among a rootless Muslim youth particularly among the second and third generation migrants in the West and this phenomenon is feeding new forms of radicalism ranging from support for Al Qaeda to the outright rejection of integration into Western society In this brilliant exegesis of the movement of Islam beyond traditional borders and its unwitting westernization Olivier Roy argues that Islamic revival or re Islamization results from the efforts of westernized Muslims to assert their identity in a non Muslim context A schism has emerged between mainstream Islamist movements in the Muslim world including Hamas of Palestine and Hezbollah of Lebanon and the uprooted militants who strive to establish an imaginary ummah or Muslim community not embedded in any particular society or territory Roy provides a detailed comparison of these transnational movements whether peaceful like Tablighi Jama at and the Islamic brotherhoods or violent like Al Qaeda He shows how neofundamentalism acknowledges without nostalgia the loss of pristine cultures constructing instead a universal religious identity that transcends the very notion of culture Thus contemporary Islamic fundamentalism is not a single note reaction against westernization but a product and an agent of the complex forces of globalization

Singles at the Crossroads Albert Y. Hsu, 1997-10-27 Albert Y Hsu provides a balanced biblical understanding of Christian singleness that debunks the myth of the gift of singleness and honors singleness as a status equal to marriage Includes an interview with John Stott Romancing the Globe Cyrus Mulready, 2006 The Oxford Handbook of the Cold War Richard H. Immerman, Petra Goedde, 2013-01-31 The Oxford Handbook of the Cold War offers a broad reassessment of the period war based on new conceptual frameworks developed in the field of international history Nearing the 25th anniversary of its end the cold war now emerges as a distinct period in twentieth century history yet one which should be evaluated within the broader context of global political economic social and cultural developments The editors have brought together leading scholars in cold war history to offer a new assessment of the state of the field and identify fundamental questions for future research The individual chapters in this volume evaluate both the extent and the limits of the cold war s reach in world history They call into question orthodox ways of ordering the chronology of the cold war and also present new insights into the global dimension of the conflict Even though each essay offers a unique perspective together they show the interconnectedness between cold war and national and transnational developments including long standing conflicts that preceded the cold war and persisted after its end or global transformations in areas such as human rights or economic and cultural globalization Because of its broad mandate the volume is structured not along conventional chronological lines but thematically offering essays on conceptual frameworks regional perspectives cold war instruments and cold war challenges The result is a rich and diverse accounting of the ways in which the cold war should be positioned within the broader context of world history Weekly Globe ,1843 Roads to Confederation Jacqueline D. Krikorian, David

R. Cameron, Marcel Martel, Andrew W. McDougall, Robert C. Vipond, 2017-10-31 In recognition of Canada's sesquicentennial this two volume set brings together previously published scholarship on Confederation into one collection. The editors sought to reproduce not only the classic studies about the people, ideas and events associated with the passage of the British North America Act 1867 but also scholarly works that capture the complexities of the Confederation project. This ambitious anthology challenges the notion that there exists one dominant narrative underpinning 1867 and includes research that focuses on Indigenous peoples. Seven articles written in French are translated for the first time for publication in this collection. In the first volume of this anthology Roads to Confederation introduces readers to the competing approaches to the study of Confederation and provides material that considers the nature of the 1867 project from the perspective of peoples and communities who have been traditionally excluded from the literature. It also includes the definitive scholarship on the ideational underpinnings of the making of Canada as well as several leading articles that set out different ways to understand the nature and purpose of the 1867 agreement. The New World History Ross E. Dunn, Laura J. Mitchell, Kerry Ward, 2016-08-23 The New World History is a comprehensive volume of essays selected to enrich world history teaching and scholarship in this rapidly expanding field. The forty-four articles in this book take stock of the history, evolving literature and current trajectories of new world history. These essays together with the editors' introductions to thematic chapters encourage educators and students to reflect critically on the development of the field and to explore concepts, approaches and insights valuable to their own work. The selections are organized in ten chapters that survey the history of the movement, the seminal ideas of founding thinkers and today's practitioners, changing concepts of world, historical space and time, comparative methods, environmental history, the big history movement, globalization, debates over the meaning of Western power and ongoing questions about the intellectual premises and assumptions that have shaped the field. Fascinating Rhythms John Drakakis, 2022-12-30 As one of the most adventurous literary and cultural critics of his generation, Terence Hawkes' contributions to the study of Shakespeare and the development of literary and cultural theory have been immense. His work has been instrumental in effecting a radical shift in the study of Shakespeare and of literary studies. This collection of essays by some of his closest colleagues, friends, peers and mentees begins with an introduction by John Drakakis outlining the profound impact that Hawkes' work had on various areas of literary studies. It also includes a poem by Christopher Norris who worked with Hawkes for many years at the University of Cardiff as well as work on translation, social class, the historicist and presentist exploration of Shakespearean texts and teaching Shakespeare in prisons. The volume features essays by former students who have gone on to establish reputations in areas beyond the study of literature and who have contributed ground-breaking volumes to the pioneering New Accents series. It concludes with Malcolm Evans' innovative account of the migration of semiotics into the area of business. This book is a vibrant and informative read for anyone interested in Hawkes' unique blend of literary and cultural theory, criticism, Shakespeare studies and presentism. Woman's World, 1929

Learning to Love Others Richard Peace,1994 In this title in the Learning to Love Series Dr Peace focuses on learning to love others a task complicated by the fact that others are not always very lovable and that loving others sometimes gets in the way of our own self interest But if we want to follow Jesus love needs to be our lifestyle and the way we treat others really does matter The Capitals of the Globe Archibald Wilberforce,1893 Latin American Popular Culture Arthur A. Natella,2008-06-06 This book details many aspects of Latin American culture as experienced by millions of people living in Central and South America The author argues that despite early and considerable European influences on the region indigenous Latin American traditions still characterize much of the social and artistic heritage of the Latin American countries Several chapters provide detailed accounts of daily life including descriptions of contemporary dress mealtime traditions transportation and traditional ways of conducting business Other chapters focus on the cultural significance of the popular music art and literature prevalent in each Latin American country Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here The World We Live in Robert Turnbull,1851 101 Ways Your Church Can Change the World Anthony Campolo,Gordon D.
