Originally published in 1991 Medieval Texts and Images is a collection of essays which critically examines medieval manuscripts The book contains a wide range of contributions the first examines the relationship of the L gende Dor e and its relationship to the aristocratic patrons who commissioned these manuscripts the second scrutinises the tradition of French illumination as it was developed in Paris in the so called Bedford Master s workshop in the 1420s The text examines liturgical texts of the medieval period and written and liturgical contributions to Renaissance art Other contributions include an investigation into the written scroll within the painted composition comparing various compositional and thematic functions in the depiction of a Crucifixion and a study of Christian vernacular poetry This collection provides a comprehensive overview of the use of text and image in medieval literature Iconography in Medieval Spanish Literature John E. Keller,Richard P. Kinkade,2014-07-15 The masterpieces of medieval Spanish literature have come to be known and loved by Hispanists and more recently by others throughout the world But the brilliant illuminations with which the original manuscripts were illustrated have remained almost totally unknown on the shelves of the great European libraries To redress this woeful neglect two noted scholars here present a generous selection from this great visual treasury including many examples never before reproduced John E Keller and Richard P Kinkade have chosen five representative works dating from the mid thirteenth century to the late fifteenth to illustrate the richness of early Spanish narrative art Together these five works encompass the entire range of narrative techniques and iconography to be found in medieval Spain and reflect both foreign and native Spanish artistic tendencies The authors analyses of the relation between verbalizations and visualizations will provide students of medieval art and literature a wealth of new information expanding our knowledge of this fascinating period The beauty of many of the illuminations speaks for itself Codex and Context: Reading Old French Verse Narrative in Manuscript, Volume II Keith Busby,2022-06-08 Codex and Context: Reading Old French Verse Narrative in Manuscript, Volume I Keith Busby,2022-07-04 The Athenaeum ,1867 Chats on Old Miniatures Joshua James Foster,1908 Catalogue of the renowned collection of objects of art and decoration, of mr.
