Canada Oliver Arpad Istvan Botar, 2009 Andor Weininger 1899 1986 was a founder and member of the Bauhaus where he produced a fascinating body of work mostly related to the avant garde stage attaining his greatest success with the Mechanical Stage Review a kind of moving abstract painting Fleeing the National Socialists Weininger emigrated to Canada where in the 1950s he produced a remarkably eclectic body of work ranging from sketches of Lake Ontario to free calligraphic abstract works Yet his correspondence with Bauhaus figures such as Walter Gropius and Xanti Schawinsky reveals a frustration with the conservative cultural scene Produced upon the occasion of a gift of over 150 works from New York s Weininger Foundation to several Canadian art institutions this publication takes a close look at Weininger in Canada situating the career of this significant European Modernist within the context of the emergent Canadian abstract art scene Weininger s work can be found in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art the Metropolitan Museum of Art the Busch Reisinger Museum at Harvard University and in many European collections Published with Gallery One One One University

Paul Klee and His Illness H. Suter, 2010-02-01 In 1933 Paul Klee s work was branded as Entartete Kunst Degenerate Art by the National Socialists and he was dismissed from his professorial post at the D sseldorf Academy of Fine Arts This led him together with his wife Lily to return to his real home of Bern Here his avant garde art was not understood and Klee found himself in unasked for isolation In 1935 Klee started to suffer from a mysterious disease The symptoms included changes to the skin and problems with the internal organs In 1940 Paul Klee died but it was only 10 years after his death that the illness was actually given the name scleroderma in a publication about Klee. However the diagnosis remained mere conjecture. Since his adolescence the dermatologist and venereologist Dr Hans Suter has been fascinated by Paul Klee and his art and more than 30 years ago this fascination spurred him to commence research into the illness and its influence on the art of Paul Klee's final years. It was due to Dr Suter's meticulous investigations that Klee's illness could be defined as diffuse systemic sclerosis. In this book the author assembles his findings and describes the rare and complex disease in a clear and comprehensible way. Further he empathetically interprets more than 90 of Klee's late works. The point of view of a dermatologist renders a unique source of information. It provides on one hand new insights into everyday medical practices at the University of Bern in the 1930s which will fascinate doctors and local historians alike. While on the other hand art historians and art lovers will be absorbed by the newly discovered links between Paul Klee's work and his illness.

The Klee Universe Paul Klee, 2008. There are artists whose métier is the observation or documentation of the world and artists who set the world aside altogether to build their own visionary cosmology designing its constituent parts from scratch as a personal mythology relayed in motifs. Paul Klee 1879-1940 was such an artist as his aphorism 'Art does not reproduce the visible; rather it makes visible' testifies. The Klee Universe addresses his work from this perspective. In 1906 Klee noted in his diary 'All will be Klee' and in 1911 as the encyclopedist of his cosmos he began to meticulously chronicle his works in a catalogue that by the time he died was to contain more than 9 000 items. Here in the fashion of an Orbis Pictus or a Renaissance emblem book Klee's oeuvre is made legible as a cogent entirety in thematic units address the human life cycle from birth and childhood to sexual desire parenthood and death music architecture theater and religion plants animals and landscapes and finally darker destructive forces in the shape of war fear and death. The Klee Universe reimagines the artist as a Renaissance man an artist of great learning whose cosmos proves to be a coherent system of ideas and images. Paul Klee 1879-1940 was born and died in Switzerland though he never obtained Swiss citizenship. Technically of German nationality he taught at the Bauhaus from 1921 to 1926 alongside Wassily Kandinsky Franz Marc and others. Seventeen of his works were included in the Nazi's infamous 1937 Munich exhibition of degenerate art.
