Digital Library Preservation Strategies Nicholas Lawson, 2018-01-29 Special libraries are facing increasing challenges today The biggest challenge before them is how to demonstrate that they are the best source of specialized information despite reliance on the web for information Special libraries therefore need to change in terms of their collections roles services and evolve strategies for managing the change Preservation refers to the set of activities that aims to prolong the life of a record and relevant metadata or enhance its value or improve access to it through noninterventive means This includes actions taken to influence records creators prior to selection and acquisition The purpose of preservation is to ensure protection of information of enduring value for access by present and future generations Libraries and archives have served as the central institutional focus for preservation and both types of institutions include preservation as one of their core functions In recent decades many major libraries and archives have established formal preservation programs for traditional materials which include regular allocation of resources for preservation preventive measures to arrest deterioration of materials remedial measures to restore the usability of selected materials and the incorporation of preservation needs and requirements into overall program planning This book attempts to provide all basic aspects of digital library in an authentic but simple style It describes the revolutionary changes brought out by digital libraries in the entire concept of library organisation managements and operations It also discusses the challenges emerging due to the adoption of newer technologies

Global perspectives on preservation education Michèle V. Cloonan,2017-11-07 The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions IFLA is the leading international body representing the interests of library and information services and their users It is the global voice of the information profession The series IFLA Publications deals with many of the means through which libraries information centres and information professionals worldwide can formulate their goals exert their influence as a group protect their interests and find solutions to global problems
