Reclaiming America's final section describes how community based nonprofit organizations the media and the Internet are critical resources for building national activism Shaw declares that community based groups can and must combine their service work with national grassroots advocacy He also describes how activists can use public relations to win attention in today's sprawling media environment and he details the movement building potential of e mail All these resources are essential for activists and their organizations to reclaim America's progressive ideals This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1999 Have activists taken the bumper sticker adage Think Globally Act Locally too literally Randy Shaw argues that they have with destructive consequences for America Since the 1970s activist participation in national struggles has steadily given way to U.S. Industrial Outlook, 1994 Presents industry reviews including a section of trends and forecasts complete with tables and graphs for industry analysis U.
