Road Kill Carol L. Jenkner,2021-08-05 Dr Gerald O Connor known to friends as Road Kill O Connor is a retired professor of archaeology and anthropology from Colorado State University During his career he became interested in animal skeletal structure and his penchant for collecting road killed specimens in order to practice the skill of taxidermy earned him his nickname While watching the news one morning he hears a report of a skull found along Interstate 90 not far from his home There is no evidence of a body only the skull The only things authorities can tell is that the skull is likely that of an African American woman in her twenties and it has been there for many years Recalling a cold case in his vast collection of notebooks O Connor begins his search for information about this victim An expert witness for law enforcement throughout his career O Connor begins to piece together other missing persons cases and a pattern emerges He concludes a serial killer has been at work for four decades It s time this murderer was brought to justice and Road Kill O Connor is just the man to get the job done

Displaying Death and Animating Life Jane C. Desmond,2016-08-18 The number of ways in which humans interact with animals is almost incalculable From beloved household pets to the steak on our dinner tables the fur in our closets to the Babar books on our shelves taxidermy exhibits to local zoos humans have complex deep and dependent relationships with the animals in our ecosystems In Displaying Death and Animating Life Jane C Desmond puts those human animal relationships under a multidisciplinary lens focusing on the less obvious and revealing the individualities and subjectivities of the real animals in our everyday lives Desmond a pioneer in the field of animal studies builds the book on a number of case studies She conducts research on site at major museums taxidermy conventions pet cemeteries and even at a professional conference for writers of obituaries She goes behind the scenes at zoos wildlife clinics and meetings of pet cemetery professionals We journey with her as she meets Kanzi the bonobo artist and a host of other animal artists all of whom are preparing their artwork for auction Throughout Desmond moves from a consideration of the visual display of unindividuated animals to mourning for known animals and finally to the marketing of artwork by individual animals The first book in the new Animal Lives series Displaying Death and Animating Life is a landmark study bridging disciplines and reaching across divisions from the humanities and social sciences to chart new territories of investigation

Half Dead Road Kill Paul Donohue,2014-09-23 Half Dead Roadkill is an endless exploration into the unusual we may all see but have never observed like author Paul Donohue Readers are thrown into a story about guns and those that love them a little too much and weave through a humorous heart pounding chance through the streets of San Francisco They are also taken into relationships that range from under cooked eggs to a couple holding onto who they used to be to a jog that turns into an unexpected meeting and an even further unexpected afternoon ministry in the Church of England needs a radical rethink George Herbert died in 1633 His legacy continues His poems are read and sung and his parish ministry remains the model for the Church of England's understanding of how and where and why its priests should minister But there is a problem The memory of Herbert celebrated by the Church is an inaccurate one and in its inaccuracy is unfair on Herbert himself and his successors in the ordained ministry This is a book of the long view It sets out to assess realistically the context of Herbert's life and to explore the difficulties of parish life today By examining the status and role of parish clergy since Herbert's time and today it draws on the work of historians social anthropologists psychologists and theologians and presents their ideas in a readable and passionate style It argues that the future strength of parochial ministry will be found in a recovery of historic renewed understandings of priestly ministry and concludes by outlining more sustainable patterns of practice for the future In a climate of uncertainty for the future of the church it will be an encouragement for priest and people and welcomed by both Road Kill David Jacobs,2000 Twenty six true life cases from the files of True Detective magazine document the horrific crimes of such psychopaths as Spencer Corey Goodman a martial arts expert who killed a beauty queen for her Cadillac and Keith Allen Brown a depraved cab driver who crushed a helpless woman to death with his car Reissue Road Kill Craig Hodge,2011 It has been the best part of 12 years since I investigated a fatal accident and dealt with grieving relatives It has taken me 12 years to have the strength to write about it to put pen to paper and record what has caused me so much grief and anguish So writes Craig Hodge one of Victoria Police's leading investigators of fatal road accidents A police officer for 20 years eight of which he spent with the Accident Investigation Section now the Major Collision Investigation Unit Hodge attended the horrific scenes of more than 350 accidents that resulted in deaths and serious injuries In ROAD KILL Hodge recounts harrowing investigations and details the processes involved in finding out the causes of such tragedies which often led to prosecutions His story is a cautionary tale in which responsible driving messages loom large ROAD KILL also provides a poignant account of the emotional and psychological impact such carnage has on all involved not least of all on investigators like Hodge who struggled at times to find a balance between being sensitive to victims and their families while also trying to remain emotionally detached for his own sanity and wellbeing Road Kill Pete Adams,2022-02-14 Cataclysmic events have occurred in the decorous upper middle class enclave within Southsea Portsmouth on the south coast of England But what were the circumstances that contributed to this violent clash involving a Sherman tank and a bazooka The strange occurrence is Investigated by Lord Everard Pimple a naive upper class twit who not only inadvertently opens a can of worms but has an introduction into the world of womanly wiles Everard s life is about to blow up like an atom bomb he just doesn t know it yet But after the dust settles will he still be standing Handbook of Road Ecology Rodney van der Ree, Daniel J.
