Robert J Flaherty A Biography:

Robert J. Flaherty Paul Rotha, 2015-09-30 Producer of Nanook of the North Moana Man of Aran and other pioneering documentaries between 1920 and 1940 Robert J Flaherty was America's first independent film artist Popular conceptions of Flaherty have led many either to worship his work and regard him in mythical terms or to debunk him as a fraud and castigate him for lack of a social consciousness Rarely has the attempt been made to understand him in the context of his times This captivating study presents Flaherty through the eyes of someone who knew him personally the brilliant British filmmaker and scholar Paul Rotha A colleague and close friend of Flaherty Rotha gives us a powerfully written biography that is a balanced and intimate look at the life and work of an American genius Editor Jay Ruby has restored the Rotha biography including a wealth of anecdotes letters and memoirs that begin to bring Robert Flaherty the man into focus An especially valuable dimension of this work is the appraisal of Flaherty the filmmaker from the viewpoint of a major figure of the British industry He summarizes in detail the critical response to Flaherty of his contemporaries about which only sketchy information has previously been available Flaherty regarded himself as an explorer as well as a filmmaker The exciting story of this biography takes us from the Arctic where Flaherty spent years filming Nanook to the South Pacific England the Aran Islands and finally the United States his courage and overarching vision resulted in an unprecedented recording of the human struggle and in documentary films that reached a wider audience than ever before The Innocent Eye Arthur Calder-Marshall, Paul Rotha, Basil Wright, 1966 The World of Robert Flaherty Richard Griffith, 1970 Robert and Frances Flaherty Robert J. Christopher, 2005-09-23 Robert Flaherty's groundbreaking Nanook of the North 1922 the chronicle of one year in the life of an Inuit hunter and his family in the Hudson Bay region was the first full length anthropological documentary in cinematic history Before Nanook Flaherty endured a number of failures disappointments and false starts Drawing from the unpublished diaries of Flaherty and his wife Frances Robert Christopher's biography fills in crucial background in the emergence of a documentary film legend Previous biographical emphasis on Nanook has not only obscured Flaherty's early career but also neglected the critical contributions Frances made to his development as an artist Robert and Frances Flaherty charts her transformation from a Bryn Mawr bluestocking to the partner of a frontier explorer and offers her unique perspective as his collaborator and publicist From iron prospector to photographer to filmmaker Flaherty's early life is situated in the context of his explorations of the Canadian north and its peoples the development of modern cinema the rise of modernism and his association with significant figures such as Alfred Adler Franz Boas Edward Curtis and Alfred Steiglitz Robert J. Flaherty Henri Agel, 1965 *The Innocent Eye the Life of Robert J. The World of Robert Flaherty Richard Griffith,1953 the life of Robert J. Flaherty Arthur Calder-Marshall,1963 The Vision of Robert Flaherty Richard Meran Barsam,1988 Previous studies of Robert Flaherty have tended toward the celebration of the legend rather than toward an examination of its sources or an assessment of its validity The Vision of Robert Flaherty The Artist as Myth and Filmmaker is the first book length critical evaluation of Flaherty s approach working methods and achievements While this is not a biography Barsam s study rests on the proposition that no matter how hard one tries to separate an artist and his work they each inform the other Barsam examines both the form and the content of Flaherty s films with the intention of seeing more clearly the merits of Flaherty s films and thus understanding more deeply his achievements Back cover

Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken,2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation

A Philosophical History of Documentary, 1895-1959 Dan Geva,2021-09-15 This book presents a chronology of thirty definitions attributed to the word term phrase and concept of documentary between the years 1895 and 1959 The book dedicates one chapter to each of the thirty definitions scrutinizing their idiosyncratic language games from close range while focusing on their historical roots and concealed philosophical sources of inspiration Dan Geva s principal argument is twofold first that each definition is an original ethical premise of documentary and second that only the structured assemblage of the entire set of definitions successfully depicts the true ethical nature of documentary insofar as we agree to consider its philosophical history as a reflective object of thought in a perpetual state of being self defined an ethics sui generis

Filming Robert Flaherty's Louisiana Story Helen Durant,1998 This book details the production of Robert Flaherty s most beautiful and most ambitious film Louisiana Story At its core are the production diaries of Helen van Dongen associate producer and editor for the project and a pioneer among women filmmakers Her informative notes which have never before been published illuminate the problems and challenges of shooting and cutting the film on location in the bayou country of Louisiana The essays describe the creative partnership that van Dongen developed with Flaherty They also provide insight into New York's documentary film scene during the 1930s and 40s The illustrations include film stills working documents and archival photographs there are also biographies and filmographies The Innocent Eye Albert E. Stone, 1963 Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included A New History of Documentary Film Jack C. Ellis, Betsy A. McLane, 2005-08-01 This history of documentary film concentrates mainly on the output of the film industries in the US the UK and Canada The authors outline the origins of the form and trace its development over the next several decades Each chapter concludes with a list of the key documentaries in that time period or genre American Showman Ross Melnick, 2012-05-01 Samuel Roxy Rothafel 1882-1936 built an influential and prolific career as film exhibitor stage producer radio broadcaster musical arranger theater manager war propagandist and international celebrity He helped engineer the integration of film music and live performance in silent film exhibition scored early Fox Movietone films such as Sunrise 1927 pioneered the convergence of film broadcasting and music publishing and recording in the 1920s and helped movies and moviegoing become the dominant form of mass entertainment between the world wars The first book devoted to Rothafel's multifaceted career American Showman examines his role as the key purveyor of a new film exhibition aesthetic that appropriated legitimate theater opera ballet and classical music to attract multi class audiences Roxy scored motion pictures produced enormous stage shows managed many of New York's most important movie houses directed and or edited propaganda films for the American war effort produced short and feature length films exhibited foreign documentary independent and avant garde motion pictures and expanded the conception of mainstream commercial cinema He was also one of the chief creators of the radio variety program pioneering radio broadcasting promotions and tours The producers and promoters of distinct themes and styles showmen like Roxy profoundly remade the moviegoing experience turning the deluxe motion picture theater into a venue for exhibiting and producing live and recorded entertainment Roxy's interest in media convergence also reflects a larger moment in which the entertainment industry began to create brands and franchises exploit them through content release events and give rise to feature films soundtracks broadcasts live performances and related consumer products Regularly cited as one of the twelve

most important figures in the film and radio industries Roxy was instrumental to the development of film exhibition and commercial broadcasting musical accompaniment and a new convergent entertainment industry

Let Us Now Praise Famous Gullies Paul S. Sutter, 2015-12-15 Providence Canyon State Park also known as Georgia's Little Grand Canyon preserves a network of massive erosion gullies allegedly caused by poor farming practices during the nineteenth century It is a park that protects the scenic results of an environmental disaster While little known today Providence Canyon enjoyed a modicum of fame in the 1930s During that decade local boosters attempted to have Providence Canyon protected as a national park insisting that it was natural At the same time national and international soil experts and other environmental reformers used Providence Canyon as the apotheosis of human and particularly southern land abuse Let Us Now Praise Famous Gullies uses the unlikely story of Providence Canyon and the 1930s contest over its origins and meaning to recount the larger history of dramatic human induced soil erosion across the South and to highlight the role that the region and its erosive agricultural history played in the rise of soil science and soil conservation in America More than that though the book is a meditation on the ways in which our persistent mental habit of separating nature from culture has stunted our ability to appreciate places like Providence Canyon and to understand the larger history of American conservation

The British Documentary Film Movement, 1926-1946 Paul Swann, 1989-07-28 Paul Swann's study is a political and social history of the documentary film movement led by John Grierson in the 1930s and 1940s

The Documentary Film Book Brian Winston, 2019-07-25 Powerfully posing questions of ethics ideology authorship and form documentary film has never been more popular than it is today Edited by one of the leading British authorities in the field The Documentary Film Book is an essential guide to current thinking on documentary film In a series of fascinating essays key international experts discuss the theory of documentary outline current understandings of its history from pre Flaherty to the post Griersonian world of digital i Docs survey documentary production from Africa to Europe and from the Americas to Asia consider documentaries by marginalised minority communities and assess its contribution to other disciplines and arts Brought together here in one volume these scholars offer compelling evidence as to why over the last few decades documentary has come to the centre of screen studies

Race in American Film Daniel Bernardi, Michael Green, 2017-07-07 This expansive three volume set investigates racial representation in film providing an authoritative cross section of the most racially significant films actors directors and movements in American cinematic history Hollywood has always reflected current American cultural norms and ideas As such film provides a window into attitudes about race and ethnicity over the last century This comprehensive set provides information on hundreds of films chosen based on scholarly consensus of their importance regarding the subject examining aspects of race and ethnicity in American film through the historical context themes and people involved This three volume set highlights the most important films and artists of the era identifying films actors or characterizations that were considered racist were tremendously popular or hugely influential attempted to be progressive or some combination thereof Readers will not only learn basic information about each subject but also be able to contextualize it culturally historically and in terms of its reception to understand what average moviegoers thought about the subject at the time of its popularity and grasp how the subject is perceived now through the lens of history
