Offshore A North Sea Journey:

Offshore Alfred Alvarez, 1986 Offshore Alfred Alvarez, 1988 Britain and the Sea Glen O'Hara, 2010-06-30 O'Hara presents the first general history of Britons relationship with the surrounding oceans from 1600 to the present day This all encompassing account covers individual seafarers ship borne migration warfare and the maritime economy as well as the British people s maritime ideas and self perception throughout the centuries Death and Oil Bradford Matsen, 2011 Documents the events of the 1988 oil rig disaster on the North Sea drawing on interviews with survivors and family members the Occidental Petroleum Corp and rescue workers to trace the gas leak that triggered the explosion and the devastation it continues to inflict Transportable Environments 3 Robert Kronenburg, Filiz Klassen, 2006-03-10 The latest volume in this popular series of books which explores the theoretical basis for temporary and transportable structures where permanence is either not possible or desirable The book provides insight into the wide range of uses of these structures the varied forms they take and the concerns and ideas for future development focusing on portability adaptability sustainability of the built environment and technical innovations A wide range of designed solutions identify and define contemporary directions in design theory and practice With international examples throughout this book will be of interest and value to all those involved in the areas of building design building component manufacture and urban design The Shipping Forecast Meg Clothier, 2024-10-24 There s a sea lover in every Brit The Shipping Forecast on Radio 4 has been keeping people in tune with the gloriously fickle British weather for a century and capturing our hearts and imaginations along the way Celebrating a hundred years since the first broadcast this book takes you to the heart of what the Shipping Forecast means to us as a nation Each of the ten chapters brings you on a fascinating exploration of a different area of our British maritime history from stormy weather up above to the seabed far below and from fishing boats and battleships to the songs and poems inspired by the forecast This joyous book invites you to sail away into the enchanting world of the forecast and is the perfect companion for anyone curious about our great British skies and seas Flammable Societies John-Andrew McNeish, Owen Logan, 2012-01-06 The impact of the oil and gas industry paradoxically seen both as a blessing and a curse on socio economic development is a question at the heart of the comparative studies in this volume stretching from Northern Europe to the Caucasus the Gulf of Guinea to Latin America Britain s transformation under Margaret Thatcher into a supposedly post industrial society orientated towards consumer sovereignty was paid for with revenues from the North Sea oil industry an industry conveniently out of sight and out of mind for many Other case studies include resource struggles in Bolivia oil money in Venezuela and the Azerbaijani oil boom among many others Drawing on bottom up research and theoretical reflection this book questions the political and scientific basis of current international policy that aims to address the problem of resource management through standard Western models of economic governance institution building and national sovereignty Energy, Land and Public Policy J. Barry Cullingworth, 2017-09-29 The development of alternative forms of energy supply since the mid 1970s has brought with it a range of new issues and concerns ranging from nuclear waste disposal to land use planning for energy efficiency This latest volume in the acclaimed Energy Policy Studies series brings together an interdisciplinary group of researchers to examine the relationship between energy and planning policy with emphasis on urban and regional impacts Like other volumes in the series the articles included focus on the social political and economic dimensions of energy technology resources and use The emphasis on issues of technological scale resource allocation environmental impact and quality and urban and regional studies makes this a unique contribution to the literature

Life as a North Sea Tiger and Beyond Terry Thomas, 2020-06-08 Terry returned from Saudi Arabia in the May of 1978 after a year in the Kingdom with a spring in his step and overflowing with enthusiasm feeling that he could secure a job using the experience he had gained during his time in operations engineering in the Eastern Province of Saudi Arabia Having cut his teeth in a demanding environment and coming out the other end full of ambition to move on in the Petroleum industry and how soon he was to discover it was not to be as easy as he first thought Experiencing an educational system of the 50's and the inadequacies of that system made Terry realise at an early age that things don't come simple and if you really want something then you had better be prepared to work hard to get it Coming back from Saudi Arabia after soaking up so much experience in the petroleum industry he expected to walk into employment without any problems When that was not the case it was like another wakeup call and reasserted what Terry had previously experienced that nothing comes without an inner drive from yourself to make it happen Originally his wife and himself had agreed that he would work in Saudi Arabia for two years but at the end of the first year and in the fifth week of his six weeks leave period after which Terry was supposed to return they realised that neither relished the idea of being apart from each other and Terry being away from his family for another year He was only too willing to agree that he needed to seek work nearer home and so the search began in July 1978 After many interviews and rejected contracts he finally found his dream job in the North Sea Petroleum industry and his career takes off with an engineering construction company he remained with for over thirty years The book tells of the projects and people he was engaged with including many adventures and events that transpired over the span of his career

The Biggest Game in Town Al Alvarez, 2009-02-03 The greatest dissection of high stakes Vegas poker and the madness that surrounds it ever written TimeOut Al Alvarez touched down in Las Vegas one hot day in 1981 a dedicated amateur poker player but a stranger to the town and its crazy ways For three mesmerizing weeks he witnessed some of the monster high stakes games that could only have happened in Vegas and talked to the extraordinary characters who dominated them road gamblers and local professionals who won and lost fortunes on a regular basis Set over the course of one tournament The Biggest Game in Town is both the first chronicle of the World Series of Poker ever written and a portrait of the hustlers madmen and geniuses who ruled the high stakes game in America It is a brilliant insight into poker s appeal as a hobby an addiction and a way of life and into the skewed psychology of master players and fearless gamblers With a new introduction by the author Alvarez s classic account is probably the best book on poker ever written The Evening Standard A classic There is no better book on America s national pastime James McManus New York Times bestselling author of Positively Fifth Street Magnificent Beyond the straights and full houses Alvarez has written a book about people who are extremely good at what they do and about America San Francisco Chronicle Conveys an understanding of gamblers and their milieu that can appeal to someone who has never seen a casino Philadelphia Inquirer Thoroughly entertaining both perceptive and literate The Washington Post

Ecological Exile Derek Gladwin, 2017-11-13 Ecological Exile explores how contemporary literature film and media culture confront ecological crises through perspectives of spatial justice a facet of social justice that looks at unjust circumstances as a phenomenon of space Growing instances of flooding population displacement and pollution suggest an urgent need to re examine the ways social and geographical spaces are perceived and valued in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Maintaining that ecological crises are largely socially produced Derek Gladwin considers how British and Irish literary and visual texts by Ian McEwan Sarah Gavron Eavan Boland John McGrath and China Mi ville among others respond to and confront various spatial injustices resulting from fossil fuel production and the effects of climate change This ambitious book offers a new spatial perspective in the environmental humanities by focusing on what the philosopher Glenn Albrecht has termed solastalgia a feeling of homesickness caused by environmental damage The result of solastalgia is that people feel paradoxically ecologically exiled in the places they continue to live because of destructive environmental changes Gladwin skilfully traces spatially produced instances of ecological injustice that literally and imaginatively abolish people s sense of place or place home By looking at two of the most pressing social and environmental concerns oil and climate Ecological Exile shows how literary and visual texts have documented spatially unjust effects of solastalgia This interdisciplinary book will appeal to students scholars and professionals studying literary film and media texts that draw on environment and sustainability cultural geography energy cultures climate change and social justice
