Other Modernities:

Other Modernities Lisa Rofel, 1999-03-01 In this analysis of three generations of women in a Chinese silk factory Lisa Rofel brilliantly interweaves the intimate details of her observations with a broad ranging critique of the meaning of modernity in a postmodern age The author based her study at a silk factory in the city of Hangzhou in eastern China She compares the lives of three generations of women workers those who entered the factory right around the Communist revolution in 1949 those who were youths during the Cultural Revolution of the 1970s and those who have come of age in the Deng era Exploring attitudes toward work marriage society and culture she convincingly connects the changing meanings of the modern in official discourse to the stories women tell about themselves and what they make of their lives One of the first studies to take up theoretically sophisticated issues about gender modernity and power based on a solid ethnographic ground this much needed cross generational study will be a model for future anthropological work around the world Cultural Studies in the Future Tense Lawrence Grossberg, 2010-11-25 Lawrence Grossberg one of the most influential figures in cultural studies assesses the mission of cultural studies as a discipline in the past present and future Rethinking Modernity Gurinder K. Bhambra, 2023-02-16 The second edition of this influential book addresses how the experiences and claims of non European others have been rendered invisible to the standard narratives and analytical frameworks of sociological understandings of modernity In challenging the dominant Euro centred accounts of the emergence and development of modernity Bhambra puts forward an argument for connected histories in the reconstruction of historical sociology at a global level This updated version of the original published in 2007 adds a new preface which explores key themes that Bhambra has further developed over the intervening years specifically how the rethinking of modernity enables us to reconstruct sociology and a call for a reparatory sociology committed to the repair of the social sciences and the securing of global justice A Global Conceptual History of Asia, 1860-1940 Hagen Schulz-Forberg, 2015-10-06 Contributors to this volume explore the changing concepts of the social and the economic during a period of fundamental change across Asia They challenge accepted explanations of how Western knowledge spread through Asia and show how versatile Asian intellectuals were in introducing European concepts and in blending them with local traditions Korean Modern: The Matter of Identity Peter G. Rowe, Yun Fu, Jihoon Song, 2021-08-02 Korean modernity a defining overview The development of modern architecture in Korea and more recently South Korea is closely tied to the country's dramatic transformations since the late 19th century The authors interrogate major periods from the Late Joseon Dynasty to the vibrant democratic present showing how architecture by making technological and stylistic leaps has played an important role in the construction of the nation's identity The architectural analyses ranging from Hwaseong Fortress to 21st century constructions like Paju Book City Ssamziegil Shopping Center the Boutique Monaco skyscraper and the Bauziium Sculpture Museum focus on buildings in which the formation of a specifically Korean modernism is particularly observable The appendix includes biographical descriptions of major architectural figures Emergence and development of modern architecture in Korea Written by a team with unique expertise in East Asian architecture and urbanism A timely contribution to the topic of identity in architecture

State of Fear in a Liquid World Carlo Bordini, 2016-11-03 This book examines the insecurity that besets our lives in the contemporary world whether as a result of natural disasters human negligence or more recently threats to security in the form of terrorist activity which itself gives rise to new fears fear of travel agoraphobia distrust of others and existential anxieties Revealing the connection between the two components of our insecurity as reflecting on and conditioning human existence and producing social problems the author brings this to bear on the notion of security that modernity had sought to guarantee to its citizens a notion that has slowly crumbled with the crisis of modernity and with the emergence of the liquid world Now insecurity is endemic and has so firmly become part of us as to be accepted as an unpleasant aspect of normality that we must live with However the necessity of living in a risk society in which security has emerged as important does nothing to dispel the fear that accompanies us at all times An engagement with the thought of Bauman that explores fear as an accompaniment to the end of modernity and its assurances State of Fear in a Liquid World offers developments of the thesis of liquid modernity and will appeal to scholars and students of sociology social theory and politics with interests in individualisation social change and in security

Cultural Studies and Finance Capitalism Mark Hayward, 2014-03-05 While many discussions of the economic crisis of 2007 2008 have sought to explain the causes of the financial collapse this volume looks to supplement these accounts by exploring possible alternatives for the post crisis world in which we now live However rather than offering a strictly economic approach Cultural Studies and Finance Capitalism argues that the crisis was as much cultural as economic and that any way forward must understand the complex relationship between media culture and the economy The chapters in this volume deal with a wide range of themes including celebrity culture media coverage of the economy examinations of economic theory and financial markets They bring together research that combines an historical perspective with a view towards the future of critical cultural and political analysis In a period marked by anxiety and economic austerity this volume offers the reader tools for understanding the place and importance of cultural research in the post crisis era This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Cultural Studies

The Emerging Lesbian Tze-Lan D. Sang, 2003-01-15 In early twentieth century China age old traditions of homosocial and homoerotic relationships between women suddenly became an issue of widespread public concern Discussed formerly in terms of friendship and sisterhood these relationships came to be associated with feminism on the one hand and psychobiological perversion on the other a radical shift whose origins have long been unclear In this first ever book length study of Chinese lesbians Tze lan D Sang convincingly ties the debate over female same sex love in China to the emergence of Chinese modernity As women s participation in social economic and political affairs grew Sang argues so too did the societal significance of their romantic and sexual relations Focusing especially on literature by or about women preferring women Sang traces the history of female same sex relations in China from the late imperial period 1600 1911 through the Republican era 1912 1949 She ends by examining the reemergence of public debate on lesbians in China after Mao and in Taiwan after martial law including the important roles played by globalization and identity politics

Surviving with Dignity Scott M. Youngstedt, 2013 Surviving with Dignity explores three key interconnected themes structural violence suffering and surviving with dignity through examining the lived experiences of first and second generation migrant Hausa men in Niamey over the past two decades in the current neoliberal moment Colonialism state mismanagement structural adjustment and global neoliberalism have inflicted structural violence on Nigeriens by denying them human and particularly socioeconomic rights and relegating them to a status at or very near the bottom of UN Human Development Index in each year of the past decade As a result of structural violence most Hausa of Niamey suffer grinding and intractable poverty that has intensified over the past two decades Suffering is a recurrent and expected condition it is the normal condition The central goal of the book is to explain the material migration and informal economy work and symbolic meaning making strategies that Hausa individuals and communities have deployed in their struggles not only to literally survive in the face of economic austerity on the outer periphery of the global economy but also to survive with dignity Despite daunting challenges many Hausa men find strength and patience in their humble devotion to Islam cherish their vibrant sociability and gracious hospitality deeply value extraordinary conversational virtuosity and knowledge deploy humor in complex transcendent defensive and self critical ways perpetuate a sense of hope and optimism for the future articulate their own modernities and strive relentlessly to feel connected to the modern world at large Extreme poverty created by socioeconomic injustice constitutes an unacceptable assault on human dignity Hausa men s remarkable strength does not negate the reality of the socioeconomic injustices they face Their dire poverty in a world of plenty is unacceptable even when they handle it gracefully

The Gender Question in Globalization Francien van Driel, 2020-11-25 Orthodox views of globalization assume that it has the same features and impact everywhere i e the feminization of poverty labour and even peace As these ideas circulate in official documents and scientific writings they settle practically as truths This challenging and unique book is amongst the first to deconstruct these orthodoxies using a multi layered gender analysis where globalization is not treated as a linear and top down process with a known outcome and a pre conceived definition of gender Instead the authors scrutinize the dynamics of each context on its own merits including the agency of women and men resulting in unexpected and groundbreaking insights into the variety of differences apparent even in sometimes seemingly similar global processes Through this gender lens different and new meanings of gender appear

Power in the Global Age Ulrich Beck, 2014-10-15 This brilliant new book by one of Europe's leading social thinkers throws light on the global power games being played out between global business nation states and movements rooted in civil society Beck offers an illuminating account of the changing nature of power in the global age and assesses the influence of the ever expanding counter powers The author puts forward the provocative thesis that in an age of global crises and risks a politics of golden handcuffs the creation of a dense network of transnational interdependencies is exactly what is needed in order to regain national autonomy not least in relation to a highly mobile world economy It is imperative that the maxim of nation based realpolitik that national interests have necessarily to be pursued by national means be replaced by the maxim of cosmopolitan realpolitik The more cosmopolitan our political structures and activities Beck suggests the more successful they will be in promoting national interests and the greater our individual power in this global age will be

Debating civilisations Jeremy C. A. Smith, 2017-06-24 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC open access license Debating civilisations offers an up to date evaluation of the re emerging field of civilisational analysis tracing its main currents and comparing it to rival paradigms such as Marxism globalisation theory and postcolonial sociology The book suggests that civilisational analysis offers an alternative approach to understanding globalisation one that focuses on the dense engagement of societies cultures empires and civilisations in human history Building on Castoriadis's theory of social imaginaries it argues that civilisations are best understood as the products of routine contacts and connections carried out by anonymous actors over the course of long periods of time It illustrates this argument through case

Overcome by Modernity Harry D. Harootunian, 2011-11-28 In the decades between the two World Wars Japan made a dramatic entry into the modern age expanding its capital industries and urbanizing so quickly as to rival many long standing Western industrial societies How the Japanese made sense of the sudden transformation and the subsequent rise of mass culture is the focus of Harry Harootunian s fascinating inquiry into the problems of modernity Here he examines the work of a generation of Japanese intellectuals who like their European counterparts saw modernity as a spectacle of ceaseless change that uprooted the dominant historical culture from its fixed values and substituted a culture based on fantasy and desire Harootunian not only explains why the Japanese valued philosophical understandings of these events often over sociological or empirical explanations but also locates Japan s experience of modernity within a larger global process marked by both modernism and fascism What caught the attention of Japanese thinkers was how the production of desire actually threatened historical culture These intellectuals sought to overcome the materialism and consumerism associated with the West particularly the United States They proposed versions of a modernity rooted in cultural authenticity and aimed at infusing meaning into everyday life whether through art memory or community Harootunian traces these ideas in the works of Yanagita Kunio Tosaka Jun Gonda Yasunosuke and Kon Wajiro among others and relates their arguments to those of such European writers as George Simmel Siegfried Kracauer Walter Benjamin and Georges Bataille Harootunian shows that Japanese and European intellectuals shared many of the same concerns and also stresses that neither Japan s involvement with fascism nor its late entry into the capitalist industrial scene should cause historians to view its experience of modernity as an oddity The author argues that strains of fascism ran throughout most every country in Europe and in many ways resulted from modernizing trends in general This book written by a leading scholar of modern Japan amounts to a major

reinterpretation of the nature of Japan's modernity
