Our Dinosaurs Are Dying New American Poetry:

Our Dinosaurs Are Dying Kenan Heise, 1994-12 A New Theory for American Poetry Angus FLETCHER, 2009-06-30

Amid gloomy forecasts of the decline of the humanities and the death of poetry Angus Fletcher a wise and dedicated literary voice sounds a note of powerful tempered optimism He lays out a fresh approach to American poetry at large the first in several decades expounding a defense of the art that will resonate well into the new century Breaking with the tired habit of treating American poets as the happy or rebellious children of European romanticism Fletcher uncovers a distinct lineage for American poetry His point of departure is the fascinating English writer John Clare he then centers on the radically American vision expressed by Emerson and Walt Whitman With Whitman this book insists that the whole theory and nature of poetry needs inspiration from science if it is to achieve a truly democratic vista Drawing variously on Complexity Theory and on fundamentals of art and grammar Fletcher argues that our finest poetry is nature based environmentally shaped and descriptive in aim enabling poets like John Ashbery and other contemporaries to discover a mysterious pragmatism Intense resonant and deeply literary this account of an American poetics shows how today's consumerist and conformist culture subverts the imagination of a free people While centering on American vision the argument extends our horizon striking a blow against all economically sanctioned attacks upon the finer stronger human capacities Poetry the author maintains is central to any coherent vision of life poets developed from mutual influences benefitted from direct relations and overlapped their boundaries This collection of academic essays refines and adds context to Beat Studies and Black Mountain Studies by investigating the groups intersections and undercurrents One goal of the book is to deconstruct the Beat and Black Mountain labels in order to reveal the shifting and fluid relationships among the individual poets who developed a revolutionary poetics in the 1950s and beyond Taken together these essays clarify the radical experimentation with poetics undertaken by these poets Don't Call Us Dead Danez Smith, 2017-09-05 Digte Addresses race class sexuality faith social justice mortality and the challenges of living HIV positive at the intersection of black and queer identity Resistance to Science in Contemporary American Poetry Bryan Walpert, 2011-09-26 This book examines types of resistance in contemporary poetry to the authority of scientific knowledge tracing the source of these resistances to both their literary precedents and the scientific zeitgeists that helped to produce them Walpert argues that contemporary poetry offers a palimpsest of resistance using as case studies the poets Alison Hawthorne Deming Pattiann Rogers Albert Goldbarth and Joan Retallack to trace the recapitulation of romantic arguments inherited from Keats Shelly and Coleridge which in turn were produced in part in response to Newtonian physics modernist arguments inherited from Eliot and Pound arguments influenced in part by relativity and quantum theory and postmodernist arguments arguments informed by post structuralist theory e g Barthes Derrida Foucault with affinities to arguments for the limitations of science in the philosophy sociology and rhetoric of science Some of these poems reveal the discursive ideologies of scientific language reveal in other words the performativity of scientific language In doing so these poems themselves can also be read as performative acts and therefore as forms of intervention rather than representation Reading Retallack alongside science studies scholar Karen Barad the book concludes by proposing that viewing knowledge as a form of intervention rather than representation offers a bridge between contemporary poetry and science Fifty Years of American Poetry Academy Of American Poets, 1995-08-01 Seer critic lover madwoman the poet s sensibility gives us a chance to experience them all This rich wide ranging collection of work by scores of America s contemporary poets brings you both wisdom and entertainment in short verse In it are represented with one poem each the chancellors fellows and award winners of the Academy of American Poets since 1934 The result is a unique sampler of the various literary styles and themes that have left their marks on the past five decades Fifty Years of American Poetry gives readers the opportunity to hear familiar voices and new ones and encounter the great American poems that have captured both our minds and our hearts The Academy of American Poets has as its stated purpose To encourage stimulate and foster the production of American poetry This was never limited to poets of any particular school method or category of poetry so this anthology is as representative a cross section of American poetry in the last 50 years as any of its kind The Academy is not a stodgy eastern provincial institution It encourages young poets recognizes the importance of change and growth in the poetry of America and believes that poetry is not for poets only This anthology was compiled on this basis Fifty Years Of American Poetry is not only educational but also inspirational hopefully imbuing everyone who reads it with a sense of the dynamic and development of American poetry in the last half century The Academy of American Poets is the only institution which could compile such a unique anthology because it is the only group which has consistently played a large part in the American poetry scene through its patronage to poets and its mission to make poetry an accessible and vital part of the American literary landscape
