My Favourite Village Stories Ronald Blythe, 1979 From the My Favourite series favourite stories on different themes by different authors each volume edited by a celebrity in the field Villages are all stories of course writes Ronald Blythe introducing this selection of his favourites In any village where past and present interleave stories emerge coloured by landscape and weather and shaped by the villagers lives For villages are made up of people from the families who have lived there for generations to the gypsies camping in the lane Here are Hardy s villagers whose simple compassion cannot avert a neighbour s tragedy Lawrence s men and women trapped in a small community and set on edge by the unfailing brilliance of a new spring George Mackay Brown s shepherds and tinkers whose story is as bleak and terse as a ballad Here is a squire puffed up with self importance a gamekeeper calm with self respect a priest with the strength of a stevedore a blacksmith who put his faith in the old ways a policeman full of malice a delectable doctor A child is made welcome at farmhouse tea with pikelets and plum cake home cured ham and sherry trifle village life at its most comfortable and reassuring But an old woman in the raw poverty of Dulditch would sooner be robbed by her own kin than be carried to the workhouse There is humour in this collection and poetry and drama for village stories are as individual as the people who make them

The Power of the Second Question Chris

Skellett,2015-03-17 Have you ever heard a line in a song that took your breath away Or been reduced to tears by a deeply significant phrase in a movie Have you ever heard a simple truth that resonates perfectly with you In The Power of the Second Question psychologist Chris Skellett reveals how you can learn to harness the power of personal reflection to capture your simple truths about the world You will be encouraged to lift yourself up from the routines of everyday thinking and take time to consider what life is all about for you Each concise chapter suggests ideas gives examples and reviews the importance of personal insight You are then invited to reflect upon your own wisdom in key areas of your life and to consolidate what you have learned from life so far At the end of the process you will have developed a much broader appreciation of who you are and what you have learned along life s journey

How it All Happened and Other Stories

Louisa Parr,1871 Stories of Transformative Justice Ruth Morris,2000 Can justice be healing Can crime victims find a new peace through transformative processes that include victims offenders and community in creative solutions that enable all to grow We can turn irritation into iridescence find ways to take the hard blows of life and use the very power of our pain to grow from the experience and create new hope beyond crime or other trauma Forgiveness is an untapped force in our revenge oriented culture These stories show that forgiveness is not condoning or forgetting or failing to set limits Forgiveness is recognizing and acknowledging all that was wrong but refusing to be destroyed by it and refusing to be drawn into a cycle of hatred and bitterness We can change our criminal justice system to include transformative methods We can change our world to one with greater social and economic justice For readers who yearn for realistic hope in these troubled times this is a must read

My Korea Kevin O'Rourke,2025-10-01 My Korea Forty Years Without a Horsehair Hat is a cultural introduction to Korea part memoir and part miscellany which introduces traditional and contemporary culture through a series of essays stories anecdotes and poems The book seeks to tell the reader all that he or she needs to know for a full and rewarding life in Korea or as a visitor passing through Confucianism Buddhism relationships everyday living language and literature are comprehensively covered Newcomers to Korea are provided with insights into daily life They are told how to deal with people and the intricacies of honorific language how to handle business dealings how to be comfortable with social ranking and how to react when they bump into the cultural wall Ngapartji Ngapartji Vanessa Castejon, Anna Cole, Oliver Haag, Karen Hughes, 2014-11-12 In this innovative collection Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars from Australia and Europe reflect on how their life histories have impacted on their research in Indigenous Australian Studies Drawing on Pierre Nora s concept of ego histoire as an analytical tool to ask historians to apply their methods to themselves contributors lay open their paths personal commitments and passion involved in their research Why are we researching in Indigenous Studies what has driven our motivations How have our biographical experiences influenced our research And how has our research influenced us in our political and individual understanding as scholars and human beings This collection tries to answer many of these complex questions seeing them not as merely personal issues but highly relevant to the practice of Indigenous Studies I think this rich collection will become a landmark text and a favourite within Australian scholarship I am keen to see it published so that I can recommend it to others Professor Emerita Margaret Allen Gender Studies and Social Analysis University of Adelaide The idea was to explain the link between the history you have made and the history that has made you Pierre Nora Tale, Performance, and Culture in EFL Storytelling with Young Learners Licia Masoni, 2019-10-10 This book analyses the interplay between storytelling with specific reference to oral retellings of authentic picture books language learning culture and emotions in the EFL pre school and primary classroom Using a multidisciplinary approach it applies oral narrative studies as well as research on shared reading with children and literature in picture books to foreign and second language teaching theory and practice while also discussing the impact of EFL storytelling on intercultural understanding Although specifically conceived for teaching English as a foreign language most contents apply to foreign second language teaching to young children in general A Time to Read Mary Ruth Wilkinson, Heidi Wilkinson Teel, 2000-06 In a Time to Read Mary Ruth K Wilkinson and her daughter Heidi Wilkinson Teel have compiled a helpful guide to children s books More than bibliography A TIME TO READ also includes essays on the nature of children families literature and story and how these hold together in a Christian life reflecting Mary Ruth s 30 years experience teaching a literary and Christian approach to children s books The Homestead, 1927 Telling Tales Gail de Vos, Merle Harris, Celia Barker Lottridge, 2003-08-29 Storytelling is relationship Stories become the threads that bind a family We all tell stories about our experiences and daily life When we die it is our stories that are remembered Family stories remembered and shared help the family and the individuals who comprise it to survive and flourish Storytelling within the family provides quality time creating bonds increasing listening skills and fostering communication Enrich your family life connect with your children and celebrate your ancestors by learning to tell family stories folktales and nursery rhymes Telling Tales Storytelling in the Family is a fascinating guide to the art of gathering and telling stories Written by three renowned storytellers Telling Tales includes personal stories how to tips and extensive resource lists and builds upon the success of the acclaimed first edition Storytelling is contagious Telling stories helps us make sense of what is happening around us and within ourselves Stories are our powerful gift to the younger generation The 2025 Canterbury

Preacher's Companion Catherine Williams,2024-05-31 This longstanding annual favourite brings a wide variety of preaching voices together to offer a resource for preaching at the principal and the second service for which preaching resources are scarce every Sunday of the coming year plus on principal feast days and seasonal services Ideal for preachers wherever the 3 year lectionary is used it also includes sermons for holy days major saints days and special occasions such as Mothering Sunday harvest rogation and Christmas services Hymn suggestions are provided throughout It also includes an introductory essay to help build preachers skills and confidence this year by Mark Oakley If preparation time is short the sermons are complete and can be used as they are but they will also act as a springboard or framework for creating your own sermon texts A boon for hard pressed clergy readers and local preachers everywhere Doctor Who in Time and Space

Gillian I. Leitch,Donald E. Palumbo,C.W. Sullivan III,2013-03-13 This collection of fresh essays addresses a broad range of topics in the BBC science fiction television series Doctor Who both old 1963 1989 and new 2005 present The book begins with the fan There are essays on how the show is viewed and identified with fan interactions with each other reactions to changes the wilderness years when it wasn't in production Essays then look at the ways in which the stories are told e.g. their timeliness their use of time travel as a device etc After discussing the stories and devices and themes the essays turn to looking at the Doctor's female companions and how they evolve are used and changed by their journey with the Doctor
