Point No Point Poems:

Point No Point Sujata Bhatt,1997 In a very short time the author has gained recognition as one of the distinct and reckonable new voices She has things to say about her native India and her native tongue Gujarati about America and Britain and about Germany where she now lives This bok includes her poems Point No Point Jane Munro,2006-03-07 Point No Point s title comes from a landform an actual point on the west coast of Vancouver Island which seems when approached from the other side to be no point at all and it alerts us to the fact that Jane Munro s poems are situated in a deep sense They live in situ in the way they inhabit their native place intimate with its mists its mosses and lichens with the salmonberry and false lily of the valley of their ecosystem They are also situated temporally evoking sharply etched memories visions and dreams a real time visit to her father s boatyard a dream visit with her mother from a time before the poet was conceived a flashback to the sixties rendered in extreme close up By their musical attunement and the acuity of the focus they demonstrate how such deep situation may come about how we might bring language to the task of living in a way which is fully present In the long culminating poem Moving to a Colder Climate Munro brings all these elements into play summoning her father s bold obstreperous ghost to be present as a new house is built situated in this language Her gifts as a poet acuity candour musicality make Point No Point a work of unforgettable witness The Lady in Kicking Horse Reservoir: Poems Richard Hugo,1973-01-17 Richard Hugo s concern is the unenviable the unvisited even the uninviting which he must invest with his own deprivations his own private war The distinctiveness of impulse int he language the movement organized in single syllables by the craving mind this credible richness is related to is even derived from the poverty of the places local emanations free or freed to be the poet s own Richard Howard Richard Hugo is such an important poet because the difficulties inherent in his art provide him a means of saying what he has to say It is no accident that he must develop a negative in order to produce a true image Richard Howard Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W. Conolly,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Making Certain It Goes On: The Collected Poems of Richard Hugo Richard Hugo,1991-07-17 The definitive collection of a major American poet s work Richard Hugo was in James Wright s words a great poet true to our difficult life Making Certain It Goes On brings together as Hugo wished the poems published in book form during his lifetime together with the new poems he wrote in his last years What Are Poets For? Gerald L Bruns,2012-06 Conceptions and practices of poetry change not only from time to time and from place to place but also from poet to poet This has never been more the case than in recent years Gerald Bruns s magisterial What Are Poets For explores typographical experiments that distribute letters randomly across a printed page sound tracks made of vocal and buccal noises and holographic poems that recompose themselves as one travels through their digital space Bruns surveys one word poems found texts and book length assemblies of disconnected phrases he even includes descriptions of poems that no one could possibly write but which are no less interesting or no less poetic for all of that The purpose of the book is to illuminate this strange poetic landscape spotlighting and describing such oddities as they appear anomalies that most contemporary poetry criticism ignores Naturally this breadth raises numerous philosophical questions that Bruns also addresses for example whether poetry should be responsible semantically ethically politically to anything outside itself whether it can be reduced to categories distinctions and the rule of identity and whether a particular poem can seem odd or strange when everything is an anomaly Perhaps our task is simply to learn like anthropologists how to inhabit such an anarchic world The poets taken up for study are among the most important and innovative in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries John Ashbery Charles Bernstein Paul Celan Kenneth Goldsmith Lyn Hejinian Susan Howe Karen Mac Cormack Steve McCaffery John Matthias J H Prynne and Tom Raworth What Are Poets For is nothing less than a lucid detailed study of some of the most intractable writings in contemporary poetry

Lives of the Poets Michael Schmidt, 2010-04-14 National Book Critics Circle Award Finalist In this stunning volume of epic breadth Michael Schmidt connects the lives and works of more than 300 poets over the last 700 years spanning distant shores from Scotland to Australia to the Caribbean all sharing the English language Schmidt reveals how each poet has transformed a common language of poetry into the rustic rhythms and elegiac ballads love sonnets and experimental postmodern verse that make up our lyrical canon A comprehensive guided tour that is lively and always accessible Lives of the Poets illuminates our most transcendent literary tradition      Ibbetson Street #37 Doug Holder, 2015-05-26 In this issue of Ibbetson Street you will experience poetry by such fine poets as Jared Smith Brendan Galvin Jennifer Barber Kathleen Spivack Marge Piercy Linda Conte and many more We are very pleased that Melissa Shook a retired Professor of Photography at the University of Massachusetts Boston and a nationally and internationally exhibited photographer has a self portrait gracing our front page and an alluring sketch adorning our back      The Restoration Transposed Gillian Wright, 2020 An innovative account of the literary Restoration that stresses its diversity historical self awareness and openness to new voices      Being/s in Transit, 2021-11-22 This fifth volume of ASNEL Papers covers a wide range of theoretical and thematic approaches to the topics of travelling migration and dislocation All migrants are travellers but not all travellers are migrants Migration and the figure of the migrant have become key concepts in recent post colonial studies However migration is not such a new or exceptional phenomenon From the eighteenth century onward there have been migrations from Europe to what are now called post colonial countries and this prepared the ground for movement back to the old but also to the new centres of Europe and elsewhere Travel and travel experience on the other hand have been part of the cultural codes not only of the West and not only of imperialism The essays in this volume look at both kinds of movement at their intersections and at their dis locating effects They cover a wide range of topics from early seventeenth century travel reports through nineteenth century women s travel writing to such contemporary writers as Michael Ondaatje and Janette Turner Hospital A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson,Alice Entwistle,2005-05-19 Publisher Description

The topic of loss and separation in poetry Hanno Frey, 2003-03-26 Seminar paper from the year 2000 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2.0 University of Hamburg FB Anglistik course Seminar II language English abstract

As the title suggests this term paper deals with the topic of loss and separation in poetry The texts which have been chosen as relevant material are the poems THE BREAK AWAY by Anne Sexton SHE IS AWAY by Kenneth Rexroth and RIVER ROAD by Stanley Kunitz<sup>1</sup> These three poems center around the same problem but they differ not only in the perspective of the lyrical I<sup>2</sup> but also in certain stylistic devices It is the aim of this term paper to point some of these differences out and to describe the concept of loss and separation i.e. how loss and separation are perceived in each case by the lyrical I In this context it should be mentioned that not all relevant elements of each poem can be taken into consideration doing so would go beyond the scope of this term paper<sup>3</sup> Consequently the main idea is to present some basic ideas In some cases it will be necessary to look at certain parts of a poem in great detail There will also be some autobiographical references to the lives of the authors mainly to Anne Sexton and Kenneth Rexroth as only very few material has been available about Stanley Kunitz In doing so the reader must be aware of the fact that the poems do surely not present totally autobiographical experiences nevertheless it seems to be quite impossible to strictly keep these out of them
