Twentieth-Century Rhetorics and Rhetoricians Michael G. Moran, Michelle Ballif, 2000-08-30 Rhetoric and rhetorical theory have been gaining in prominence throughout the 20th century As leaders in all fields give careful attention to issues in communication rhetoric becomes increasingly central to a range of disciplines Many of these leaders have shaped rhetorical theory through their work in other fields and rhetoric becomes more and more difficult to define and delimit This reference is a guide to major trends and developments in rhetoric and rhetorical theory during the last 100 years Included are alphabetically arranged entries for major and minor rhetoricians such as Mikhail Bakhtin Roland Barthes Wayne Booth Paul de Man Jacques Derrida Peter Elbow and Linda Flower Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography an analysis of the figure s rhetorical theory and a current bibliography of primary and secondary sources The figures included represent a range of rhetorical schools An extensive introduction discusses these schools and the volume concludes with extensive bibliographical material

Writing Creative Nonfiction Theodore Albert Rees Cheney,1991 What do writers as diverse as Tom Wolfe Norman Mailer Joan Didion and Hunter S Thompson have in common All are masters of the art of writing creative nonfiction capable of infusing the most prosaic of topics with wit poignancy and style Writing Creative Nonfiction outlines the tried and true techniques that such writers use to craft brilliant essays articles and book length works making the tools of trade accessible to those of us who have always dreamed of making our mark in publishing You ll learn how to write gripping opening sentences use dialogue and even overheard conversations to bring characters to life on the page and conduct and incorporate research to add depth and breadth to your work With the demand for content in both traditional and emerging medias at an all time high you too can become a cultural critic biographer or esteemed essayist with the help of this indispensable guide English Journal ,1985 Student-centered Language Arts, K-12 James Moffett,Betty Jane Wagner,1992 This is the fourth edition of James Moffett s seminal text first published in 1968 which set forth the rationale and practices for the kind of individualized interactive integrative language learning environment that only today is coming into its own It proposed whole language collaborative learning active learning writing workshops the process approach student empowerment portfolio assessment and the substitution of children s literature for basal readers many years before these cornerstones of enlightened English language arts teaching became fashionable The book is the centerpiece of life work devoted to curricular innovation and constitutes a truly original approach to the nature of discourse It is cross referenced to an equally original collection of anthologies that illustrate with both professional and student writing the reading writing talking dramatizing repertoires it stakes out and to Moffett s other works that build on and extend this one From the second edition on the book has profited from the input of Betty Jane Wagner a master teacher of teachers Student centered Language Art K 12 is arguably the most comprehensive practically detailed and original textbook resource book on English education It covers theory and practice elementary and secondary drama oral language activities and initial literacy as well as general reading and writing Furthermore verbal learning is placed in a social context and in the context of nonverbal media and arts that compete with and complement language The authors have made this edition more compact by shifting some material to a new edition of Active Voice and by abridging matters that no longer need to be dealt with at length because the profession is catching up with the book. They have recast some matters to tie in with current vocabulary and understanding and some practices have been updated to utilize current technology. In this fourth edition the book is shorter in length but broader in perspective as it continues to break new ground to integrate language arts with other learning.

Text and Context Claire J. Kramsch, Sally McConnell-Ginet, 1992. The papers in this volume stemming from the Fourth Annual conference of the Consortium for Language Teaching and Learning explore the relationships between form and meaning in language use.
