Points of Departure Julian Gobert, 2010 Points of Departure David Montenegro, Adrienne Rich, 1991 Ten of the world's leading writers speak out on the crucial issues of art censorship and political oppression Points of Departure Andrea Halaluyas- Peñaflorida, 2000 Understanding Roberto Bolaño Ricardo Gutiérrez-Mouat, 2016-11-21 An examination of the novels short story collections and poetry of the Latin American author In Understanding Roberto Bolaño Ricardo Gutiérrez-Mouat offers a comprehensive analysis of this critically acclaimed Chilean poet and novelist whose work brought global attention to Latin American literature in the 1960s unseen since the rise of García Márquez and magic realism Best known for The Savage Detectives winner of the Rómulo Gallegos Prize the novella By Night in Chile and the posthumously published novel 2666 winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award Bolaño died in 2003 just as his reputation was becoming established After a brief biographical sketch Gutiérrez-Mouat chronologically contextualizes literary interpretations of Bolaño's work in terms of his life cultural background and political ideals Gutiérrez-Mouat explains Bolaño's work to an English speaking audience including his relatively neglected poetry and conveys a sense of where Bolaño fits in the Latin American tradition Since his death eleven novels four short story collections and three poetry collections have been translated into English The afterword addresses Bolaño's status as a Latin American writer as the former literary editor of El País claimed neither magical realist nor baroque nor localist but creator of an imaginary extraterritorial mirror of Latin America more as a kind of state of mind than a specific place Theology, Creation, and Environmental Ethics Whitney Bauman, 2009-04-30 Winner of the John Templeton Award for Theological Promise 2009 This book argues that the Christian doctrine of creatio ex nihilo sets up a support system for a logic of domination over others It follows a genealogical method in examining how the concept of creation out of nothing materializes in the world throughout different periods in the history of the Christian West

The Mojave: Points of Departure John M. Davis (Poet.), 2006 The Columbia History of British Poetry Carl R. Woodring, James Shapiro, 2007-09-07 The Columbia Anthology of British Poetry brings together the most remarkable verse written in the British Isles over the course of the past twelve centuries offering the greatest diversity of poetic voices in any anthology of its kind From Shakespeare's memorable sonnets to Keats's haunting odes to T.S. Eliot's meditations on the conditions of modern life the collection contains many of the best loved treasures of British poetry Longer and much celebrated poems that rarely find their way into anthologies including Pope's Rape of the Lock and Coleridge's Rime of the Ancient Mariner claim a place in this collection Queen Elizabeth I Anne Killigrew Aphra Behn Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Felicia Hemans are among dozens of women writers renowned in their own day and now restored to their rightful prominence Scottish Welsh and Irish poets often excluded from anthologies of British poetry are here as well including such extraordinary voices as Lady Grisell Baillie Robert Burns Hugh MacDiarmid and Seamus Heaney The finest contemporary poets are fully represented also from Thom Gunn to Eavan Boland The result is an amazingly rich and wide ranging conversation among British poets that transcends the boundaries of time and place Carl Woodring and James Shapiro the team scholars who edited The Columbia History of British Poetry have written incisive introductions to the careers of the poets making this the most accessible and comprehensive anthology of British verse in print Covering the new and the ancient the classic and the rediscovered this generous volume reimagines the horizons of British poetry The Good Poem According to Philodemus Michael McOsker, 2021 This book elucidates the poetics of Philodemus of Gadara a first century BCE Epicurean philosopher and poet whose On Poems survives in extensive fragments among the Herculaneum papyri It relies on new editions of the primary sources to reconstruct a poetics focused on form and content Tristan Corbière and the Poetics of Irony Katherine Lunn-Rockliffe, 2006-06-22 Tristan Corbière is often viewed as the archetypal poet maudit a misunderstood rebel and bohemian prankster This is a study of the poet's innovative use of language It uses the critical tool of irony to analyse his idiosyncratic verse showing how he contributed to the general revolution in poetic language that marked the 1870s in France Corbière's poetry pushed the ironic element in Baudelaire to its limit and exerted an important influence on Laforgue Pound and Eliot It played a key role in the ironic tradition of Symbolism which is often overshadowed by the pure poetry of contemporaries like Mallarmé Using close textual readings of poems from Les Amours jaunes 1873 the only collection published in Corbière's lifetime this book outlines a method of reading his self-contradictory verse It tackles the difficulty of interpreting ironic discourse and demonstrates how irony operates in Les Amours jaunes at all levels from verbal device to world view showing how the doubts of modern man and the spiritual void of commodity culture shape the very language of his poetry Synthesizing critical approaches from continental and Anglo-American traditions it analyses his use of puns oral diction dialogue quotation and intertextuality It shows how he systematically undercuts habitual strategies of reading by importing novelistic techniques into verse to deride it from within and by ironizing irony itself This is an introduction to the work of a challenging poet and a study of the practice of reading French verse Modern Philology, 1925 Vols 30-54 include 1932-1956 of Victorian bibliography prepared by a committee of the Victorian Literature Group of the Modern Language Association of America Mediascapes of Ruined Geographies in the Global South Diego Granja do Amaral, A. Chukwudumebi Obute, 2023-08-15 This book undertakes an interdisciplinary and cross-cultural interrogation of the Global South through the prisms of media and cultural studies It closely explores the quotidian re-territorialization and brazen ruination of the material geographies of this vast expanse of the world by forces and proxies of neo-colonialism and global capitalism of resource extraction We cite the ongoing expulsion of Palestinians from their homelands by occupational forces the emerging detritus dump across Mexico City and Lagos the infrastructural precariousness of the favelas of Brazil the unending resource war in the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC and the flagrant operation of the oil industry in the Niger Delta region of Nigeria as examples of this geographic cataclysm The centripetal forces of neo-colonialism and resource extraction at full flight in the Global South aided by toxic hegemonic forces have overtly tossed some of the population to the peripheries of existence and the society at large As such this book additionally explores the resistance of the subalterns from the margins to this socio political malaise and further unmasks the knowledge production from these margins of the Global South This project is divided into five 5 parts of three essays each The first part examines the territorial contestation in the Middle East framed and expressed through films and literary lenses The second part examines the environmental burden of modern consumerism and urbanization on metropolis across Mexico Brazil and Nigeria while the third part explores the attritional violence of resource extraction in the DRC Brazil and Nigeria via filmic and journalistic lenses The fourth part offers a swift response from the margins through ethnographic and journalistic interrogation of the subjectivity of the subalterns of Brazilian favelas and street artists The fifth part offers an engaging critique of the political climates of South Africa and Brazil that reinforce the environmental catastrophe of the regions of the world Holocaust Literature: Lerner to Zychlinsky, index S. Lillian Kremer,2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 In the Heat of Shadows Denis Hirson,2014-12-29 South African poetry today is charged with restlessness bursting with diversity Gone is the intense inward focus required to deal with a situation of systematic oppression the enclosing effort of concentration on a single predicament While politics and identity continue to be central themes the poetry since the late 1990s reveals a richer investigation of ancestors and history alongside more experimentation with language and translation and enduring concern with the touchstones of love loss memory and acts of witnessing In the Heat of Shadows South African Poetry 1996 2013 presents work by 33 poets and includes some translations from Afrikaans isiXhosa isiZulu Sesotho and Xitsonga This collection follows on from Denis Hirson's 1997 anthology The Lava of this Land South African Poetry 1960 1996 Burnt Offering Joan Metelerkamp,2009 Burnt Offering is Joan Metelerkamp's seventh collection of poems The title comes from a poem in a cycle that embodies the labours of the medieval alchemists heating and burning transformation of passionate intensity the search for an enduring element In the process malignant doubt is burnt off and what takes its place is trust in the everyday take this day here take it all its clarity all its gold Like all of Metelerkamp's work these generous poems draw on and weave together with her distinctive energy and passion the details of family and rural life dreams landscapes and journeys The art of The Faerie Queene Richard Danson Brown,2021-01-19 The Art of The Faerie Queene is the first book centrally focused on the forms and poetic techniques employed by Spenser It offers a sharp new perspective on Spenser by rereading The Faerie Queene as poetry which is at once absorbing demanding and experimental Instead of the traditional conservative model of Spenser as poet this book presents the poem as radical edgy and unconventional thus proposing new ways of understanding the Elizabethan poetic Renaissance The book moves from the individual words of the poem to metre rhyme and stanza form onto its larger structures of canto and book It will be of particular relevance to undergraduates studying Elizabethan poetry graduate students and scholars of Renaissance poetry for whom the formal aspect of the poetry has been a topic of growing relevance in recent years Andrew Marvell A. D. Cousins, 2016-03-02 This monograph studies how across the Folio of 1681 Marvell's poems engage not merely with different kinds of loss and aspiration but with experiences of both that were in mid seventeenth century England disturbingly new and unfamiliar It particularly examines Marvell's preoccupation with the search for home and with redefining the homeland in times of civil upheaval In doing so it traces his progression from being a poet who plays sophisticatedly with received myth to being one who is a national mythmaker in rivalry with his poetic contemporaries such as Waller and Davenant Although focusing primarily on poems in the Folio of 1681 this book considers those poems in relation to others from the Marvell canon including the Latin poems and the satires from the reign of Charles II It closely considers them as well in relation to verse by poets from the classical past and the European especially English present

Collection of Reprints Ernest Hatch Wilkins, 1927 Badiou, Poem and Subject Tom Betteridge, 2020-01-23 Reinterpreting Badiou's philosophy in light of both his persistent reverent invocations of the German Jewish poet Paul Celan and his long term engagement with Samuel Beckett Badiou Poem and Subject fundamentally reassesses Badiou's radical departure from the legacy of Martin Heidegger and his wholesale rejection of philosophies that would in the wake of twentieth century violence and beyond proclaim their own end or completion For Badiou both writers from the terminus of Literary Modernism affirm novel conceptions of subjectivity capable of transcending the historical conditions of their presentation Celan's collective and ephemeral subject of anabasis and Beckett's disjunctive Two of love Blending close textual analyses with critical reflections on Heidegger Lacoue Labarthe and Adorno among others Tom Betteridge argues that Badiou's innovative readings of both Celan's poetry and the latent poem in Beckett's late prose are crucial to understanding his significance in the history of twentieth century French philosophy and its German heritage offering a significant contribution to a growing field of interest in Badiou's philosophical encounter with poetry and its political ramifications

Gendered Testimonies of the Holocaust, Petra M. Schweitzer, 2016-04-08 Gendered Testimonies of the Holocaust Writing Life begins with the premise that writing proves virtually synonymous with survival bearing the traces of life and of death carried within those who survived the atrocities of the Nazis In reading specific testimonies by survivor writers Paul Celan Charlotte Delbo Olga Lengyel Gisella Perl and Dan Pagis this text seeks to answer the question How was it possible for these survivors to write about human destruction if death is such an intimate part of the survivors survival This book shows how the works of these survivors arise creatively from a vigorous spark the desire to preserve memory Testimony for each of these writers is a form of relation to oneself but also to others It situates each survivor's anguish in writing as a need to write so as to affirm life Writing as such always bears witness to the life of the one who should be dead by now and thus to the miracle of having survived This book s claim is that the act of writing testimony manifests itself as the most intensive form of life possible More specifically its exploration of writing s affirmation of life and assertion of identity focuses on the gendered dimension of expression and language This book does not engage in the binary structure of gender and the hierarchically constructed roles in terms of privileging the male over the female The criteria that guide its discussion on Gendered Testimonies emerge out of Levinas s concept of maternity

The Modernist Traveler Kimberley J. Healey, 2003-01-01 The Modernist Traveler considers figures whose writing about travel rebelled against a literary tradition of exoticism adventure stories and novelistic travelogues Instead these writers initiated a modernist strain in travel writing and a shift in the literary establishment and the culture at large Kimberley J Healey focuses on those French writers and thinkers who traveled in order to experience a displacement of both the inner self and the physical body while writing against the prevalent tradition of travel literature The modern self modern time colonial spaces and the physical body are Healey s concerns as she reads works by Victor Segalen Paul Morand Blaise Cendrars Henri Michaux Saint John Perse Guillaume Apollinaire Paul Nizan Albert Londres Andre Malraux Val ry Larbaud and Isabelle Eberhardt This book shows how in the field of French literature these texts about travel best capture the modernist experience of being alone in a world of new technologies cultural diversity and anxiety about the self
