Poison In The Gift:

The Poison in the Gift Gloria Goodwin Raheja, 1988-06 The Poison in the Gift is a detailed ethnography of gift giving in a North Indian village that powerfully demonstrates a new theoretical interpretation of caste. Introducing the concept of ritual centrality, Raheja shows that the position of the dominant landholding caste in the village is grounded in a central peripheral configuration of castes rather than a hierarchical ordering. She advances a view of caste as semiotically constituted of contextually shifting sets of meanings rather than one overarching ideological feature. This new understanding undermines the controversial interpretation advanced by Louis Dumont in his 1966 book Homo Hierarchicus in which he proposed a disjunction between the ideology of hierarchy based on the purity of the Brahman priest and the temporal power of the dominant caste or the king.

The Logic of the Gift Alan D. Schrift, Patrick Murray, 1997 The Logic of the Gift is an interdisciplinary collection that brings together some of the classic essays on gifts and gift giving alongside work especially written for this volume.

Poison and Poisoning in Science, Fiction and Cinema Heike Klippel, Bettina Wahrig, Anke Zechner, 2017-11-14 This book is about poison and poisonings; it explores the facts, fears, and fictions that surround this fascinating topic. Poisons attract attention because they are both dangerous and hard to discover. Secretive and invisible, they are a challenging object of representation. How do science, studies, literature, and especially film, the medium of the visible, explain and show what is hidden? How can we deal with uncertainties emerging from the ambivalence of dangerous substances? These considerations lead the editors of this volume to the notion of precarious identities as a key discursive marker of poisons and related substances. This book is unique in facilitating a multi-faceted conversation between disciplines. It draws on examples from historical cases of poisoning, figurations of uncertainty and blurred boundaries in literature and cinematic examples from early cinema and arthouse to documentary and blockbuster. The contributions work with concepts from gender studies, new materialism, postcolonialism, deconstructivism, motif studies, and discourse analysis.

God, the Gift, and Postmodernism John D. Caputo, Michael J. Scanlon, 1999-12-22 Pushing past the constraints of postmodernism which cast reason and religion in opposition, God, the Gift, and Postmodernism seizes the opportunity to question the authority of the modern and open the limits of possible experience, including the call to religious experience as a new millennium approaches. Jacques Derrida, the father of deconstruction, engages with Jean-Luc Marion and other religious philosophers to entertain questions about intention, givenness, and possibility which reveal the extent to which deconstruction is structured like religion. New interpretations of Kant, Heidegger, Husserl, and Derrida emerge from essays and discussions with distinguished philosophers and theologians from the United States and Europe. The result is that God, the Gift, and Postmodernism elaborates a radical phenomenology that stretches the limits of its possibility and explores areas where philosophy and religion have become increasingly and surprisingly convergent. Contributors include John D. Caputo, John Dominic Crossan, Jacques Derrida, Robert Dodaro, Richard Kearney, Jean-Luc Marion, Françoise Meltzer, Michael J. Scanlon, Mark C. Taylor, David

Tracy Merold Westphal and Edith Wyschogrod Dangerous Giving in Nineteenth-Century American Literature Alexandra Urakova, 2022-04-27 This book explores the dark unruly and self destructive side of gift giving as represented in nineteenth century literary works by American authors It asserts the centrality and relevance of gift exchange for modern American literary and intellectual history and reveals the ambiguity of the gift in various social and cultural contexts including those of race sex gender religion consumption and literature Focusing on authors as diverse as Emerson Kirkland Child Sedgwick Hawthorne Poe Douglass Stowe Holmes Henry James Twain Howells Wilkins Freeman and O Henry as well as lesser known obscure and anonymous authors Dangerous Giving explores ambivalent relations between dangerous gifts modern ideology of disinterested giving and sentimental tradition

Women and the Gift Morny Joy, 2013-09-17 Recent inquiries into the concept of the gift have been largely male dominated and thus have ignored important aspects of the gift from a woman s point of view In the light of philosophical work by Mauss L vi Strauss Derrida and Bataille Women and the Gift reflects how women respond to the notion of the gift and relationships of giving This collection evaluates and critiques previous work on the gift and also responds to how women view care fidelity generosity trust and independence in light of the gift

Poisoned Relations Chelsea Berry, 2024-09-17 Illuminates the competing understandings of poison and power in the Atlantic world By the time of the opening of the Atlantic world in the fifteenth century Europeans and Atlantic Africans had developed significantly different cultural idioms for and understandings of poison Europeans considered poison a gendered weapon of the weak while Africans viewed it as an abuse by the powerful Though distinct both idioms centered on fraught power relationships When translated to the slave societies of the Americas these understandings sometimes clashed in conflicting interpretations of alleged poisoning events In Poisoned Relations Chelsea Berry illuminates the competing understandings of poison and power in the Atlantic World Poison was connected to central concerns of life to the well being in this world for oneself and one s relatives to the morality and use of power and to the fraught relationships that bound people together The social and relational nature of ideas about poison meant that the power struggles that emerged in poison cases while unfolding in the extreme context of slavery were not solely between enslavers and the enslaved they also involved social conflict within enslaved communities Poisoned Relations examines more than five hundred investigations and trials in four colonial contexts British Virginia French Martinique Portuguese Bahia and the Dutch Guianas bringing a groundbreaking application of historical linguistics to bear on the study of the African diaspora in the Americas Illuminating competing understandings of poison and power in this way Berry opens new avenues of evidence through which to navigate the violence of colonial archival silences

'The Gift' in Nietzsche's Zarathustra Emilio Carlo Corriero, 2021-07-29 Tracing the notion of the gift in Nietzsche s Thus Spoke Zarathustra Emilio Corriero provides a new interpretation of this essential text alongside the gift s evolution as a key concept in the history of western philosophy and Christianity The last phase of Nietzsche s thought including his writings on the death of God The Will to Power the Overman and eternal recurrence are analysed anew in Corriero's reading of Thus Spoke Zarathustra From Nietzsche's Prologue in which Zarathustra presents the idea of the Overman as a gift of love and wisdom up to the fourth and final book in which the theme of hospitality and sacrifice are inextricably linked to the concept of donation highlighting the novelty and exceptionality of Zarathustra's gift Building on these ideas this book reveals how the gift of Zarathustra put forward by Nietzsche rethinks the relationships between individuals based on Christian doctrine enabling new forms of coexistence and sociality to thrive

A Disease of Society Dorothy Nelkin, 1991-02-22 This book first published in 1991 argues that AIDS is a disease of society which is challenging and changing society profoundly

The Gift and its Paradoxes Dr Olli Pyyhtinen, 2014-02-28 Bringing social theory and philosophy to bear on popular movies novels myths and fairy tales The Gift and its Paradoxes explores the ambiguity of the gift it is at once both a relation and a thing alienable and inalienable present and poison Challenging the nature of giving as reciprocal the book engages critically with the work of Mauss and develops a new theory of the gift according to which the gift cannot be reduced to a model of exchange but must instead entail a loss or sacrifice Ultimately the gift is examined in the book as the impossible occurrence of gratuitous giving In addition to exploring the conditions of possibility and impossibility of the gift the book draws on the thought of figures such as Derrida Serres Simmel Cixous Irigaray and Heidegger to argue for the relevance of the phenomenon of the gift to broader issues in contemporary social sciences It takes up questions concerning the constitution of community and the processes by which people are included in or excluded from it gender relations materiality the economy and the possibility that death itself could be a gift in the form of euthanasia or self sacrifice A rigorous yet accessible examination of the phenomenon of the gift in relation to a range of contemporary concerns The Gift and its Paradoxes will appeal to scholars and students within sociology philosophy anthropology political theory and film and literature studies

The Gift of Thanks Margaret Visser, 2009-11-19 A scholarly many angled examination of what gratitude is and how it functions in our lives from the bestselling author of The Rituals of Dinner The New York Times Known as an anthropologist of everyday life Margaret Visser has won numerous awards for illuminating the unexpected meanings of everyday objects and rituals Now she turns her keen eye to another custom so ubiquitous that it often escapes notice saying Thank you What do we really mean by these two simple words This fascinating inquiry into all aspects of gratitude explores such topics as the unyielding determination of parents to teach their children to thank the difference between speaking the words and feeling them and the ways different cultures handle the complex matters of giving receiving and returning favors and presents Visser elucidates the fundamental opposition in our own culture between gift giving and commodity exchange as well as the similarities between gratitude and its opposite vengefulness The Gift of Thanks considers cultural history including the modern battle of social scientists to pin down the notion of thankfulness and account for it and the newly awakened scientific interest in the biological and evolutionary roots of emotions With characteristic wit and erudition Visser once again reveals the extraordinary in the everyday An anthropological and philosophical account of how and why we give thanks All delivered in elegant clear prose A book to be thankful for sympathetic to human foible deeply learned and a pleasure to read Kirkus Reviews A delightful and graceful gift of a book for which any fortunate recipient will be thankful Publishers Weekly Englisch-Deutsches und Deutsch-Englisches Wörterbuch Newton I.
